COLONIAL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION COMMISSIONER TOM YEAGER

Tom Yeager is in his 29th year as the only commissioner in the history of the Colonial Athletic Association. He is currently the longest-tenured commissioner of a Division I conference.

Working with the conference presidents and athletic directors, Yeager has transformed what was once a Virginia/North Carolina conference into a league with a presence in many of the major metropolitan areas on the East Coast. The CAA footprint, which runs from Boston to Charleston, S.C., encompasses four of the nation's top nine media markets. The growth has enhanced the CAA's reputation as one of the most respected and well-run conferences in the nation.

The CAA conducts championships in 22 men's and women's sports and the conference is rated among the top 10 nationally in many of them. The CAA has seen unprecedented success in basketball over the past eight years, with 72 men's and women's teams earning post-season berths. The CAA has seen two men's basketball teams advance to the NCAA Final Four since 2006 and the conference had three teams selected to the NCAA Tournament field for the first time in 2011. In women's basketball, the CAA placed a league-record three teams in the 2007 NCAA Tournament and last year had Delaware advance to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament while Drexel won the WNIT.

The CAA annually ranks among the top 15 in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, demonstrating the league's all-around excellence. Over the years, the conference has produced 16 national team champions in four different sports, 33 individual national champions, 12 national coaches of the year and 13 national players of the year. The league also boasts five Rhodes Scholar student-athletes, 24 NCAA post-graduate scholars and 13 Honda Award winners. In 2012-13, the CAA honored more than 1,900 student-athletes who achieved a 3.2 grade point average with the Commissioner's Academic Award.

While his job responsibilities are far reaching, Yeager's major duties include negotiation of championship, sponsorship and television contracts, representing the conference with the NCAA and supervising the 20 members of his staff.

Yeager came to the conference office from the NCAA staff in Kansas City, where he was Director of Legislative Services. He joined the NCAA in 1976, spending five years as an investigator in the enforcement department. In 1981, he was promoted to Assistant Director of Legislative Services and in 1984 to Director.

In addition to his duties with the CAA, Yeager is also actively involved with NCAA affairs. Currently, he is a member of the Board of Directors for the NCAA's college football and men's basketball officiating LLCs. Yeager is a former chair of one of the NCAA's most important committees, the Division I Committee on Infractions, which hears and assesses penalties for violations of NCAA rules. Previously he served as a member of the NCAA Council and chaired the NCAA Interpretations Committee for eight years, in addition to serving on numerous other NCAA committees. Well respected by other commissioners, Yeager is also a former executive vice president of the Collegiate Commissioners Association and was the chair of the National Letter of Intent Steering Committee.

In April, 1994, the National Invitation Tournament recognized Yeager's contributions to college basketball by selecting him as the "NIT Man of the Year" joining a prestigious group of past recipients including John Wooden, Bobby Knight and Vic Bubas.

Yeager is a 1972 graduate of Springfield College in Springfield, Massachusetts. He holds a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in education (1975). As an undergraduate, he was a member of the gymnastics team; as a graduate student, he was an assistant coach for the squad. After earning his first degree, Yeager worked at the YMCA in Allentown, Pa. He then returned to Springfield as a teaching fellow on the physical education faculty. After receiving his master's degree, he remained at Springfield as the assistant director of athletics for the 1975 76 school year prior to joining the NCAA staff. In November 2009, Yeager received Springfield's Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Yeager, 63, and his wife Dorcas, also a Springfield graduate, have two children: Kyle and Hallie, both graduates of James Madison University.

CAA Commissioner Tom Yeager hands Northeastern's women's head basketball coach Daynia La-Force the 2013 CAA Coach of the Year award.

COLONIAL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

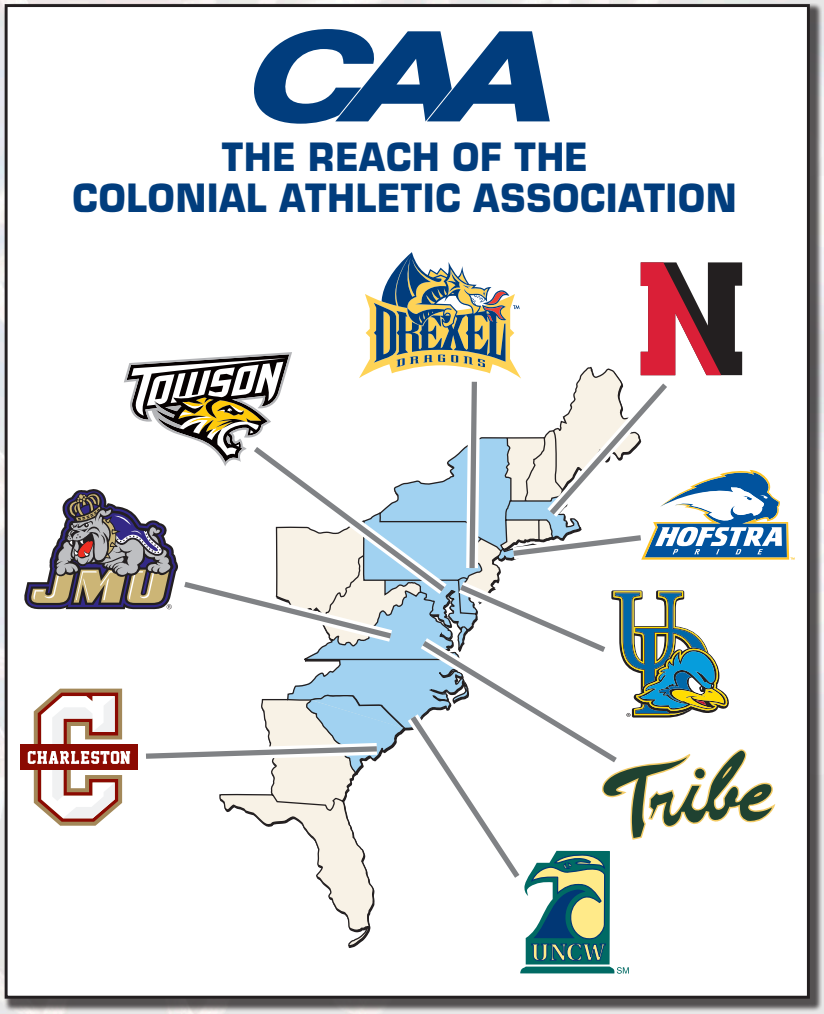
With nearly three decades of success athletically and academically, the Colonial Athletic Association has built a reputation as one of the nation's top collegiate conferences.

The CAA encompasses many of the nation's largest metropolitan areas with a geographic footprint that stretches from Boston to Charleston, S.C. The conference has produced 16 national team champions in five different sports, 33 individual national champions, 13 national players of the year, 12 national coaches of the year and 13 Honda Award winners. Just as impressive, however, are the honors accumulated away from competition, which include five Rhodes Scholars and 23 NCAA post-graduate scholars. In 2012-13, more than 1,900 of the league's 4,000 student-athletes received the Commissioner's Academic Award after posting at least a 3.2 grade point average while lettering in a varsity sport. The conference had 23 teams in 15 different sports receive NCAA Public Recognition Awards based on the latest Academic Progress Report released in 2013.

The landscape of the conference stretches along the majority of the East Coast, and includes several of the nation's top media markets – New York (1), Philadelphia (4), Boston (7), Washington, D.C. (9) and Baltimore (25). The number of television homes in the CAA market exceeds 20 million.

The CAA conducts championships in 22 sports. Male athletes compete for championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, lacrosse, soccer, swimming & diving, tennis and track & field. Female athletes battle for conference titles in basketball, cross country, field hockey, golf, lacrosse, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis, track & field and volleyball. In 2012-13, 27 teams earned NCAA Tournament berths and 43 student-athletes received All-America honors in 14 different sports.

The conference has made its presence known nationally in men's basketball with two teams – George Mason (2006) and VCU (2011) – advancing to the NCAA Final Four over the past seven years. CAA teams have combined to win 41 games in postseason play since 2006, including 14 victories in the NCAA Tournament. The CAA has posted at least one NCAA Tournament win in six of the past eight years, including the last four in a row. The conference has seen five or more teams reach postseason play in four of the last five seasons.



In women's basketball, 2013 CAA champion Delaware defeated West Virginia and North Carolina to become the 12th CAA team to reach the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. Behind the play of Honda Award winner Elena Delle Donne, the Blue Hens finished the season ranked #13 in the final USA Today Coaches Top 25 poll. Drexel captured the WNIT championship with a 46-43 victory over Utah and James Madison reached the quarterfinals of the WNIT. CAA teams have gone 20-9 in postseason play over the past two years.

The conference also excels in many other sports. CAA squads have combined to win 10 field hockey national titles since the championship began in 1981. Three men's soccer teams earned NCAA Tournament berths last season and each current member of the conference has reached the NCAA Tournament since 2006. In softball, Hofstra reached the NCAA Super Regionals in 2012 and the CAA placed two teams (Hofstra and James Madison) in the NCAA's for the first time last season. At least two women's soccer teams have reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament three times in the past six seasons. William & Mary's men's cross country squad has made the NCAA Championship in 12 of the past 14 years and the women's team had two runners (Elaina Balouris and Emily Stites) earn All-America honors in 2012. Delaware and Towson have each reached the Final Four of the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship. The CAA sent three teams to the NCAA Baseball Championship in 2013 and has had at least 11 players selected in nine of the last 11 Major League Baseball drafts. The conference also had individuals earn All-America honors in women's lacrosse, track and field and swimming & diving last season and had players nationally ranked in tennis and golf.

THE CAA ON TELEVISION

The Colonial Athletic Association will again feature an extensive television packages in 2013-14. The conference will have 12 national telecasats on the NBC Sports Network and will have more than 30 games televised regionally by Comcast SportsNet Mid-Atlantic, Comcast SportsNet Philadelphia, SportsNet New York, Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast and Comcast SportsNet New England as well as The Comcast Network. The CAA also had national telecasts on ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU and ESPN3, along with the CBS Sports Network, FS1, the Big Ten Network and the Pac 12 Network.

CAA member institutions are committed to excellence in the classroom. The Colonial Academic Alliance was created in 2002 by the league's presidents with a goal of expanding their partnership to all aspects of university education and life outside of intercollegiate athletics. Among the programs that have been established are an undergraduate research conference, coordination of study abroad programs, visiting faculty programs and a recent partnership with NBC Learn to provide educational videos to over 8,500 public schools across the United States.

UNCW's Danielle Tafuri of the Track team participated in the 2013 CAA Blood Challenge.

CAA schools are also very active in community service projects. The CAA Blood Challenge, which is held each fall, has raised more than 36,000 units of blood over the past 11 years. The first-ever CAA Food Drive Challenge last winter resulted in over 9,500 pounds of donated food.

Commissioner Thomas E. Yeager has guided the CAA since its inception. The conference traces its roots back to 1983 when two of its current members- James Madison University and the College of William and Mary - were aligned with East Carolina University, George Mason University, the United States Naval Academy and the University of Richmond as a basketball league (ECAC South). During the next two years, the league added 11 sports, acquired two new members (the University of North Carolina at Wilmington and American University) and decided to form a new conference. The transformation from ECAC South to CAA took place on June 6, 1985.

Old Dominion University joined the CAA in 1991 and was followed by Virginia Commonwealth University in 1995. The conference added the University of Delaware, Drexel University, Hofstra University and Towson University in 2001. Georgia State University and Northeastern University became members of the conference in 2005 and the College of Charleston began its first year as a CAA member on July 1, 2013. Elon University will join the conference beginning in 2014-15.

COLONIAL ACADEMIC ALLIANCE

The Colonial Academic Alliance is the academic consortium that links the nine colleges and universities of the Colonial Athletic Association in programs that improve the quality of teaching, learning and research for all.

The Alliance was created by the CAA presidents in 2002 and is administered by the provosts of the member institutions. It is a cooperative effort committed to enhancing all areas of excellence throughout each institution. Interest groups, representing various academic and administrative areas from all nine universities, jointly develop collaborative programs that benefit each member institution.

The Alliance extends its programs to all aspects of university life outside of intercollegiate athletics. Its efforts are focused on the following areas:

UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH

This annual symposium brings together more than 100 of the "best and brightest" undergraduate students and their faculty mentors from the 11 CAA institutions to share their research findings, develop a sense of academic community, and learn about career and graduate-school opportunities. The Alliance is also exploring the development of summer research opportunities for CAA students.

VISITING ACADEMIC STATUS FOR ATHLETIC TEAMS

Traveling CAA athletic teams have been granted "visiting academic status" at other Alliance institutions, allowing access to institutional libraries, academic resource centers and computer labs. This access will help to minimize the academic disruption caused by traveling to represent the institution in intercollegiate competition.

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

CAA institutions have agreed to work together to coordinate study-abroad programs for students at CAA institutions, as well as develop new international programs that open new opportunities for students and faculty.

RESOURCE SHARING

The nine institutions are developing a network of programs and facilities – found only at one of the member schools -- that can be shared by other members of the Alliance.

UNIVERSITY LIFE

Alliance members are planning staff exchange programs and other opportunities to share "best practices" in residential life and university life programs. In addition, a CAA "alternative spring break" will put CAA students to work side by side in community service.

ADVANCEMENT AND ALUMNI RELATIONS

Alumni relations directors from the nine institutions recently participated in a benchmarking survey for their programs, and are planning joint alumni events to unite graduates of the CAA schools.

The Colonial Academic Alliance reflects a commitment from the institutions for further excellence in all aspects of university operations. Collectively, these institutions comprise more than 20,000 students and nearly 10,000 full-time faculty, including three Nobel Prize-winning professors. By leveraging the strengths of each institution, the Alliance can build programs that no one college or university could undertake on its own.

COLONIAL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION BROADCAST PACKAGE

PARTNERS WITH...

Reaching a potential cumulative audience of over 4 billion television households (TVHH), the CAA features a multi-tiered, multi-platform broadcast package utilizing the latest technologies in showcasing the league's players and coaches throughout the world.

The CAA is in the second year of a five-year agreement with the NBC Sports Group, which provides national television coverage of 12 men's basketball games on the NBC Sports Network, including the semifinals and finals of the CAA Men's Basketball Championship. The Comcast SportsNet regional networks, which have partnered with the CAA for the past 29 years, will regionally televise 35 additional men's and women's basketball games, including the quarterfinals of the CAA Men's Basketball Championship and the semifinals and finals of the CAA Women's Basketball Championship.

NBC Sports Network is available in more than 80 million homes and features coverage of the Summer and Winter Olympics as well as the National Hockey League, Premier League, Formula One, Major League Soccer, the IZOD Indy Car Series, the Tour de France and major college football and basketball. Comcast Sports Group, which includes CSN Mid-Atlantic, CSN Philadelphia, CSN-New England, The Comcast Network and CSS, consists of 14 regional networks that deliver 2,400 sporting events annually to more than 50 million homes.

The landscape of the CAA stretches along the majority of the East Coast and includes five of the nation's top 30 media markets. The number of television homes in the CAA footprint exceeds 20 million.

In addition, hundreds of men's and women's basketball games are available for viewing through CAA.TV and the websites of the CAA member schools, all promoted globally through the CAA's partnership with NBCSports.com.

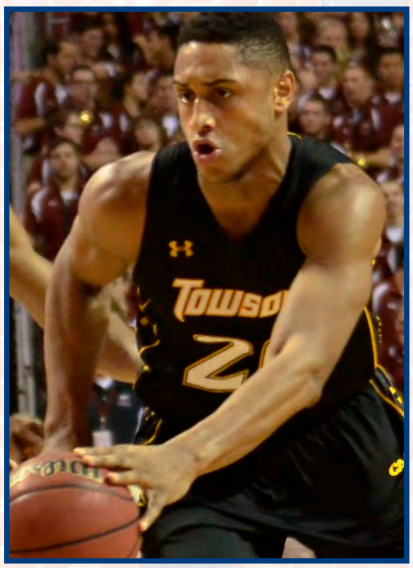
COLONIAL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION MEN'S BASKETBALL



CAA MEN'S BASKETBALL NOTES

Jerrell Benimon, Towson

EIGHT ALL-CONFERENCE PLAYERS RETURN: The CAA welcomes back eight players who earned all-conference honors in 2012-13, including a pair of first-team honorees in Towson forward Jerrelle Benimon and Delaware guard Devon Saddler. Back from the second team are Drexel guards Damion Lee and Frantz Massenat and William & Mary guard Marcus Thornton. Returning from the third team are Northeastern forward/guard Quincy Ford, William & Mary forward Tim Rusthoven and Delaware guard Jarvis Threatt.

MAJORITY OF STARTERS ARE BACK: The CAA's nine teams return 67% (30-of-45) of their starters from a year ago. College of Charleston, UNCW, Towson and William & Mary have four starters back and four other teams return three regulars. In addition, eight of the CAA's top 15 scorers are back in 2013-14 as are seven of the 15 players in rebounding.

TOWSON'S BENIMON FILLS THE STAT SHEET: Towson forward Jerrelle Benimon recorded 20 double-doubles in 31 games last season, which was tied with UNCW's Keith Rendleman for the second-most in the nation. Benimon, the 2013 CAA Player of the Year, ranked third nationally in rebounding (11.2 rpg) and averaged 17.1 points per game.

PILING UP POSTSEASON WINS: CAA teams have combined to win 41 games in postseason play since 2006, including 14 victories in the NCAA Tournament. During that eight-year period, the CAA has had two teams reach the NCAA Final Four, one reach the semifinals of the NIT, and has had squads capture championships of the CBI and CIT.

DELAWARE'S SADDLER AMONG NATION'S LEADING SCORERS: Delaware guard Devon Saddler enters his senior season with 1,670 career points, which is the second-highest total of any active Division I player behind Creighton All-American Doug McDermott. Saddler is already third on the Blue Hens' career scoring list and is on pace to become just the 11th 2,000-point scorer in CAA history.

COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON JOINS THE CAA: The CAA welcomes the College of Charleston to the conference this season. The Cougars are coming off an impressive 24-11 campaign in their first year under coach Doug Wojcik. CofC reached the championship game of the Southern Conference tournament and earned a postseason berth in the CBI. The Cougars return four starters and several top reserves from that squad. Wojcik played in the CAA as the starting point guard at Navy, where he teamed with David Robinson to lead the Midshipmen to the NCAA Elite Eight in 1986. Wojcik holds the CAA career record for assists (714) and was a member of the league's 25th Anniversary team.

MIHALICH TAKES OVER AS HEAD COACH AT HOFSTRA: Hofstra begins its first season under head coach Joe Mihalich, who spent the last 15 seasons as head coach at Niagara. Mihalich guided the Purple Eagles to 265 victories, a pair of NCAA Tournament berths and three appearances in the NIT during his tenure. In 2013, he was honored as the MAAC Coach of the Year and the NABC District 1 Coach of the Year after Niagara captured the MAAC regular-season title. Mihalich was also selected as the 2013 Skip Prosser Man of the Year, which honors a coach who not only achieves success on the basketball court, but displays moral integrity off it as well.

NCAA TOURNAMENT SUCCESS: With JMU's 68-55 win over LIU Brooklyn in the first round of the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship last season, CAA teams have won opening round NCAA Tournament games in six of the last eight years, including the last four in a row. Since 2006, CAA teams have compiled a 14-12 record in the NCAA Tournament with two squads reaching the NCAA Final Four.

TOWSON POSTS BIGGEST TURNAROUND IN NCAA HISTORY: Towson posted the biggest turnaround in NCAA Division I history last season at +17.5 games after improving from 1-31 in 2011-12 to 18-13. The Tigers' 13 CAA victories and second-place conference finish were their best ever and their 18 overall wins were the most since 1993-94. Towson also had its first CAA Player of the Year (Jerrelle Benimon) and its first CAA Coach of the Year (Pat Skerry).

CAA MEN'S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP
March 7-10, 2014
AT THE BALTIMORE ARENA, BALTIMORE, MD.

The CAA Men's Basketball Championship moves to the Baltimore Arena with eight games over four action-packed days. All nine teams will be competing for the conference title and the CAA's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

The CAA Men's Basketball Championship has traditionally been played before large, energetic crowds as March Madness gets underway. Along with the non-stop action on the court, several special events are planned around the Baltimore area, which gives fans a chance to gather before and after the game. The city also offers an outstanding selection of restaurants, shops and attractions, with the Arena located just a couple of blocks from the Inner Harbor.

Tournament play begins with first-round action on Friday, March 7 and continues through Monday, March 10 when the 2014 CAA champion will be crowned. Ticket books for all eight games and single-session tickets are available by contacting the box office of your favorite CAA team or through Ticketmaster at 800-745-3000 and ticketmaster.com.

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURE FOR CAA CHAMPIONSHIP SEEDING

Seeding for the Men's Basketball Championships will be based on Regular Season Conference Record. In case of ties, ties will be broken from top to bottom. Once a tie is broken and the seeds are determined, the seeds will be used to break any subsequent ties.

1. TWO TIED TEAMS:

a) Head-to-head competition.

b) If two tied teams split their two games during the regular season, compare each tied team's record against the team occupying the highest position in the standings and continue down through the standings until one team gains the advantage, thereby earning the higher seed. When comparing records against a single team or a group of teams, the higher winning percentage shall prevail, even if the number of games played against a team or group is unequal (i.e., 2-0 is better than 3-1; 1-0 is the same as 2-0; 2-0 is the same as 4-0; 2-1 is the same as 4-2; 1-0 is better than 1-1; 0-1 is the same as 0-2; 0-2 is the same as 0-4). If the winning percentage of the tied teams is equal against a team, or a group of tied teams, continue down through the standings until one team gains an advantage.

i) When arriving at another pair of tied teams while comparing records, use each team's record against the collective tied teams as a group (prior to their own tie-breaking procedures), rather than the performance against the individual tied teams.

c) If a tie still exists, the Ratings Percentage Index, as computed from the RPI Report by 9:00 AM, on the day following the last scheduled conference game, will be used to break the tie. The team with the better RPI will earn the higher seed.

2. THREE OR MORE TIED TEAMS:

a) Head to head competition as determined by the combined record of games among the tied teams involved. Ties will be broken and seeds will be based on the winning percentage of games amongst the tied teams, even if the number of games played against the group is unequal (i.e., 2-0 is better than 3-1; 1-0 is the same as 2-0; 2-0 is the same as 4-0; 2-1 is the same as 4-2; 1-0 is better than 1-1; 0-1 is the same as 0-2; 0-2 is the same as 0-4).

b) If procedure 2a fails to break the tie, then each tied team's record shall be compared to the team occupying the highest position in the standings, continuing down through the standings until one team gains an advantage by a higher winning percentage as described in 2a.

c) If the tie is broken by 2a or 2b regarding one or more teams, but three or more teams remain tied, then procedures 2a and 2b will be re-applied among those tied teams only. If two teams remain tied, revert to the two-tied team procedure.

d) If a tie still exists, the Ratings Percentage Index, as computed from the RPI Report by 9:00 AM, on the day following the last scheduled conference game, will be used to break the tie. The team with the better RPI will earn the higher seed.

College of Charleston should make an impact in its first year as a member of the CAA. The Cougars return four starters and several top reserves from last year's 24-11 squad that advanced to the Southern Conference championship game and earned a postseason berth in the CBI.

Running the show for the Cougars is junior point guard Anthony Stitt, who was the team's second-leading scorer last season with 11.0 ppg and dished out 109 assists. He drained 57 treys and shot better than 40% from beyond the arc. CofC also has a formidable presence in the post with 6-9 junior Adjehi Baru, who led the SoCon in rebounding (8.3 rpg), blocked 44 shots and contributed 9.8 ppg a year ago.

Rounding out the returning starters are senior forward Anthony Thomas (8.5 ppg) and senior forward Willis Hall, who chipped in 7.7 ppg and was the team's second-leading rebounder (6.4 rpg).

Providing depth on the wings are senior Nori Johnson (4.5 ppg), sophomore Theo Johnson (2.8 ppg) and redshirt freshman Canyon Barry. True freshman point guard Joe Chealey and 7-2 Tulsa transfer David Wishon will also compete for playing time.

Expectations remain high at Delaware, which posted its most CAA victories and had its best league finish ever last year. The Blue Hens return three backcourt starters and added a transfer guard who provides even more firepower.

Leading the Hens is senior Devon Saddler, who topped the CAA and ranked 18th nationally in scoring last year with 19.9 ppg. The first-team all-conference pick enters the season with 1,670 career points, which is the second-highest total of any returning player in Division I. Junior guard Jarvis Threatt earned a spot on the All-CAA third team a year ago after being the only player to be ranked among the CAA's top 20 in scoring, rebounding, assists and steals.

Junior Kyle Anderson contributed 9.1 ppg and made a team-best 62 threes last year. They are joined by senior Davon Usher, who led the SWAC in scoring (18.8 ppg) last season at Mississippi Valley State.

The question for the Blue Hens is in the post, where two starters graduated. UD will rely on senior Carl Baptiste (4.0 ppg, 4.2 rpg), sophomore forward Marvin King-Davis and redshirt freshman Maurice Jeffers to fill the void.

PLAYERS TO WATCH

DEVON SADDLER • Sr. • G

- Earned 1st team All-CAA honors in 2012-13 and 2nd team All-CAA accolades in 2011-12.
- Led the CAA and ranked 18th in the nation in scoring with 19.9 ppg. Reached double figures in 32 of 33 games and had 20+points 16 times.
- Enters the season ranked 3rd on UD's all-time scoring list with 1,670 points. His career total is the 2nd-highest of any returning player in Division I, trailing only Creighton All-American Doug McDermott.

JARVIS THREATT • Jr. • G

- Selected to the All-CAA third team in 2012-13.
- Only player to be ranked among top 20 in the CAA in scoring (13.0ppg/14th), rebounding (5.7rpg/17th), assists (3.2apg/7th) and steals (1.8 spg/3rd).
- Scored double figures in 22 of his 30 games last season and reached the 20-point mark five times.
- Tied a school record by going 19-for-20 at the free throw line in a win over ODU on Jan. 5.

Drexel appears to have the pieces in place to rebound from last year's 13-18 campaign. The Dragons will build around an outstanding trio of veteran guards. Senior Frantz Massenat, a two-time All-CAA selection, returns for his fourth season as the starting point guard. He ranked 10th in the CAA in scoring (14.7 ppg) and second in assists a year ago (4.2 apg). He's flanked by junior Damion Lee, who made the All-CAA second team after finishing third in the league in scoring with 17.1 ppg. They are joined by Chris Fouch, a past All-CAA performer who suffered a broken ankle last season. Fouch is one of the top 3-point shooters in school history with 203 career treys.

The top returnee up front is senior Dartaye Ruffin, who was 10th in the CAA in rebounding (6.8 rpg) and scored 6.9 ppg. Wing Tavon Allen chipped in 6.6 ppg during his rookie year. Also challenging for time inside are senior Goran Pantovic (2.1 rpg) and junior Kazembe Abif (4.4 ppg/3.4 rpg).

Junior guard Freddie Wilson, a transfer from Seton Hall, freshman guard Major Canady and freshman forward Rodney Williams will provide depth.

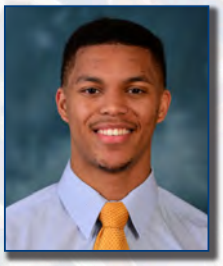
DAMION LEE • Jr. • G

- Named 2nd team All-CAA in 2012-13 and was CAA Rookie of the Year in 2011-12.
- Led Drexel and ranked third in the CAA in scoring with 17.1 ppg last season.
- Scored double digits in 23 of 27 games, including a career-high 34 points at ODU on Feb. 28.
- Made a team-best 62 three-pointers and ranked 6th in the CAA in 3-pt. FG percentage (36%). Was also second in the CAA in free throw percentage (82.9%).



FRANTZ MASSENAT • Sr. • G

- Made the All-CAA 2nd team in 2012-13 and was a 1st team All-CAA pick in 2011-12.
- Ranked 10th in the CAA in scoring (14.7 ppg) and 2nd in assists (4.2 apg) last season.
- Ranks 6th in career assists (406) and 24th in career points (1,122) at Drexel. Will likely become just the third player in school history to reach the 500-assist mark.
- Was among the CAA's top 10 in 3-pt FG percentage (32.4%) and FT percentage (81%).

Stephen Nwaukoni

It's a season of change at Hofstra, where veteran coach Joe Mihalich begins his first year with the Pride. Mihalich won 265 games and made five postseason appearances at Niagara, and hopes to replicate that success at Hofstra.

Only five letterwinners return from last season, but three are starters. Leading the group is senior forward Stephen Nwaukoni, who ranked sixth in the CAA in rebounding (7.9 rpg) and scored 6.8 ppg a year ago despite missing the final five games with a shoulder injury. Junior forward Moussa Kone (6.5 ppg, 4.4 rpg) stepped up after Nwaukoni's injury, averaging 14.0 points over the Pride's final four regular-season contests.

Rounding out the group of returning starters is sophomore forward Jordan Allen, who averaged 5.0 points and 2.9 rebounds in a solid rookie campaign. Also back are sophomore forward Darren Payen and sophomore guard Adam Savion.

Several newcomers have the opportunity for significant playing time. Freshman Eliel Gonzalez could earn the starting spot at point guard. The Pride has also added a pair of Division I transfers in the backcourt in graduate students Dion Nesmith (Monmouth) and Zeke Upshaw (Illinois State).

James Madison hopes to build off its first CAA championship in nearly 20 years, but the team will look much different from the one that won 21 games a year ago.

Thirteen of the Dukes' 14 players are either freshmen or sophomores, with sixth-year forward Andrey Semenov serving as the team's lone veteran. Semenov missed most of last season due to injury, but averaged 10.2 ppg and shot 44% from three in 2011-12.

The Dukes feature a talented group of sophomores who saw significant playing time last season. Guard Andre Nation was a CAA All-Rookie pick after scoring 9.3 ppg and ranking among the CAA's top 10 in blocks and steals, but he will sit out JMU's first 15 games this season. Guard Charles Cooke tallied 5.8 ppg and excelled during JMU's two NCAA Tournament games where he averaged 16.5 ppg. Point guard Ron Curry made 18 starts and averaged 5.7 ppg. Rounding out the returnees is forward Taylor Bessick (2.3 ppg /2.1 rpg).

JMU is excited about the potential of its freshman class, which is led by forwards Dimitrije Cabarkapa, Tom Vodanovich and Yohanny Dalembert, and guard Jackson Kent.

UNCW has a mix of veteran returnees and experienced newcomers as it looks to move up the CAA standings. The Seahawks welcome back five players who started 17 or more games, but must replace first-team All-CAA forward Keith Rendleman.

The Seahawks have plenty of depth in the backcourt. Senior Chris Dixon averaged 9.8 ppg and ranked sixth in the CAA in assists (3.3 apg) in his first year at UNCW. Sophomore Craig Ponder was the team's third-leading scorer (8.5 ppg), while junior Freddie Jackson chipped in 5.9 ppg and made 33 steals. They are joined by senior Tanner Milson, who knocked down a team-best 43 treys and averaged 6.4 ppg.

UNCW is hoping for a breakout season from forward Cedrick Williams, who scored 6.5 ppg and was 12th in the CAA in rebounding (6.0 rpg) last season. Also returning in the frontcourt are sophomore Luke Hager (2.3 ppg, 1.9 rpg) and senior Shane Reybold (1.9 ppg, 2.1 rpg).

The Seahawks have added a pair of transfers in the backcourt. Ben Eblen spent three seasons as a reserve point guard at Alabama, while Addison Spruill scored 17.0 ppg over two junior college seasons.

Northeastern captured its first CAA regular-season title in 2012-13 and earned its third postseason appearance in the past five years.

Leading a group of three returning starters for the Huskies is junior forward Quincy Ford, who received third-team All-CAA honors last season. The versatile Ford averaged 12.2 points, 5.8 rebounds and 1.2 steals per game last year and should see those numbers increase. Junior forward Reggie Spencer contributed 9.8 points per game while shooting 51.2% from the floor. The Huskies' post player also ranked 13th in the league in rebounding (6.0 rpg). NU has added 6-foot-8 St. Francis (Pa.) transfer Scott Eatherton, who tallied 14.0 ppg and 7.0 rpg in 2011-12 while shooting 61.4% from the floor. Sophomore forward Zach Stahl (5.7 ppg) provides depth.

The lone returning backcourt starter is sophomore David Walker, a CAA All-Rookie selection who scored 6.2 ppg, dished out 79 assists and made 42 steals. Juniors Demetrius Pollard (5.6 ppg) and Marco Banegas-Flores (2.2 ppg) and sophomore Derrico Peck will battle for a starting spot after seeing time as reserves a year ago. The Huskies have added three freshmen guards, led by T.J. Williams.

Towson is coming off a breakout 2012-13 season in which it posted the biggest turnaround in NCAA history and set a school record for CAA wins by going 13-5.

The Tigers enter this season as one of the favorites to capture the conference title. CAA Player of the Year Jerrelle Benimon leads a group of four returning starters after recording 20 double-doubles while averaging 17.1 ppg and ranking third in the nation in rebounding (11.2 rpg). Senior Marcus Damas is back at forward after contributing 11.4 ppg and 5.3 rpg last season. Sophomore Timajh Parker-Rivera (2.8 ppg/3.1 rpg) and freshmen John Davis and Walter Foster will also see time up front.

Back at point guard is Jerome Hairston, who made the CAA All-Rookie squad after averaging 9.9 ppg and dishing out 77 assists. At shooting guard is senior Mike Burwell, who knocked down a team-high 47 three-pointers and averaged 9.0 ppg. Senior Rafriel Guthrie provided a spark as the Tigers' sixth man with 8.1 ppg. Joining that group is Vermont transfer Four McGlynn, who was the America East Rookie of the Year in 2011-12 after scoring 12.0 ppg and draining 68 treys.

The Tribe features one of the league's top players in junior guard Marcus Thornton, who tallied double figures in all 30 games last season and ranked second in the conference in scoring (18.8 ppg). The second-team All-CAA pick was among national leaders in 3-pointers per game (3.1) and 3-point FG percentage (43.5%). Senior Brandon Britt joins him in the backcourt after ranking 13th in the CAA in scoring (13.9 ppg). Senior Julian Boatner and sophomore Terry Tarpey provide depth along with freshmen Omar Prewitt and Michael Schlotman.

The Tribe frontcourt is led by senior Tim Rusthoven, who made the All-CAA third team last season. The 6-foot-9 forward poured in 14.4 ppg while shooting a CAA-best 56% from the floor and was also ninth in the conference in rebounding (7.0 rpg). Senior forward Kyle Gaillard made a successful return from a knee injury and contributed 8.5 ppg and 5.3 rpg. Senior Fred Heldring, junior Tom Schalk and sophomore Sean Sheldon will battle for playing time in the post along with freshman Jack Whitman.

As part of its 25th Anniversary in 2009-10, the Colonial Athletic Association honored Silver Anniversary teams in 21 championship sports. Chosen by a panel of current and former head coaches, the 25-member teams featured the "best of the best" in the conference's storied history.

The 25th Anniversary men's basketball team included 16 former CAA Players of the Year, seven NBA draft picks, and several players who were key performers during some of the conference's greatest moments in the NCAA Tournament.

CAA MEN'S BASKETBALL POSTSEASON RESULTS

The CAA has had at least five teams participate in postseason play for the past four years. League teams have won 36 postseason games over the past seven seasons, including 13 victories in the NCAA Tournament. Highlighting that success has been a pair of Final Four teams - George Mason (2006) and VCU (2011). CAA teams have also won the CBI and CIT during that time period. Here's a year-by-year look at the CAA's postseason results.

2006 FINAL FOUR
GEORGE MASON

The CAA had two teams advance to the NCAA Final Four in a five-year period with George Mason in 2006 and VCU in 2011. The accomplishment places the CAA in elite company as only five other conferences have made more Final Four appearances than the CAA since 2006. There were many similarities in the two runs. Both the Rams and Patriots were at-large selections and played their opening game in Dayton, Ohio, both received #11 seeds in the tournament, and both had to upset #1 seeds in the regional finals to reach the Final Four. Here's a game-by-game look at each team's Road to the Final Four!

#11 George Mason 75, #6 Michigan State 65 • March 17, 2006 – First Round – Dayton, Ohio
George Mason won its first NCAA Tournament game in school history, knocking off 6th-seeded Michigan State, 75-65. Sophomore guard Folarin Campbell scored a team-high 21 points on perfect 8-for-8 FG shooting and forward Will Thomas posted a double-double with 18 points and 14 rebounds. Mason was ahead just 52-51 with 6:41 to go, but reeled off 10 unanswered points and never let the Spartans get closer than six points the rest of the way.

#11 George Mason 65, #3 North Carolina 60 • March 19, 2006 – Second Round – Dayton, Ohio
George Mason became the first CAA team to advance to the Sweet 16 since 1988 with a 65-60 upset of 3rd-seeded North Carolina. The Patriots fell behind 16-2 early, but rallied to within 27-20 at the break and then scored the first eight points of the second half to grab the lead. Senior guard Lamar Butler, who tallied 16 of his team-high 18 points in the second half, hit two free throws to give Mason a 56-54 lead with 2:52 to go and nailed a key jumper with 1:06 left. The Patriots made 7-of-8 free throws in the final 51 seconds to seal the win.

#11 George Mason 63, #7 Wichita State 55 • March 24, 2006 – Sweet 16 – Washington, D.C.
George Mason led from start to finish in beating 7th-seeded Wichita State, 63-55, to advance to the Elite Eight. The Patriots opened the game on a 9-0 run with a three-pointer by Lamar Butler and back-to-back treys from Folarin Campbell. Mason went on to bury 7-of-11 shots from beyond the arc in the first half and led 35-19 at the break. The Patriots pushed the margin to 19 with 17:21 left and never let the Shockers get closer than seven the rest of the way. Campbell finished with 16 points while Butler and Tony Skinn added 14.

#11 George Mason 86, #1 Connecticut 84 (ot) • March 26, 2006 – Elite 8 – Washington, D.C.
George Mason became the first team in CAA history to advance to the NCAA Final Four by shocking top-seeded Connecticut, 86-84 in overtime. The Patriots trailed by nine at the break but shot 56% in the second half, including 6-of-7 from 3-point range, to stage a remarkable comeback. Mason grabbed its first lead, 52-51, on a Lamar Butler trey with 11:10 to go and was up 74-70 with 18 seconds left in regulation after a pair of Butler free throws. UConn forced overtime with a layup at the buzzer, but the Patriots made 5-of-6 from the floor and never trailed in overtime. Mason went ahead 86-81 with 25 seconds to go, but had to survive a missed 3-point attempt by the Huskies as the horn sounded. All five Patriots' starters scored in double figures, led by senior forward Jai Lewis with 20 points and Butler with 19. Will Thomas recorded his second straight double-double with 19 points and a team-high 12 rebounds.

#3 Florida 73, #11 George Mason 58 • April 1, 2006 – National Semifinals – Indianapolis, Ind.
George Mason's Cinderella season came to an end as the Patriots lost to eventual national champion Florida, 73-57, at the NCAA Final Four. Mason trailed just 31-26 at halftime, but the Gators hit three straight treys to open the second period and never let the Patriots get closer than nine points the rest of the way. Seniors Tony Skinn and Jai Lewis each scored 13 points for Mason, which was the first mid-major squad since 1979 and the first #11 seed since 1986 to reach the Final Four. The Patriots would finish the season ranked #8 in the final ESPN/USA Today Top 25 poll.

VCU

#11 VCU 59, #11 USC 46 • March 16, 2011 – First Four – Dayton, Ohio

VCU turned in a stellar defensive effort and defeated USC, 59-46, in the inaugural First Four. The contest was tied 22-22 at the break, but Jamie Skeen opened the second half with a three-pointer and the Rams never trailed after that. VCU drained six treys over the final 20 minutes and converted numerous second-chance points. Skeen finished with a team-high 16 points and nine rebounds and junior Bradford Burgess added nine points and a 10 boards.

#11 VCU 74, #6 Georgetown 56 • March 18, 2011 – Second Round – Chicago, Ill.

VCU made 12 three-pointers and dominated 6th-seeded Georgetown, 74-56, to record two wins in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. Senior Brandon Rozzell hit 6-of-10 from beyond the arc and scored a team-high 26 points, while guard Joey Rodriguez contributed 17 points and seven assists. VCU trailed 19-18 midway through the first half when Rozzell made a three that put the Rams in front for good. VCU was ahead 35-24 at the break and then opened the second half on a 14-4 run to put the game away. The Rams' defense forced the Hoyas into 17 turnovers.

#11 VCU 94, #3 Purdue 76 • March 20, 2011 – Third Round – Chicago, Ill.

VCU recorded its third victory in five days, cruising past 3rd-seeded Purdue 94-76 to advance to the Sweet 16 for the first time ever. Led by 23 points and eight rebounds from Bradford Burgess, the Rams had six players score in double figures for the first time in three years. Guard Joey Rodriguez posted a double-double with 12 points, 11 assists and no turnovers. Trailing 18-13, VCU went on a 23-6 run and eventually took a 42-32 advantage into halftime. The Rams hit 7-of-8 shots to start the second half and pushed their lead to 67-48 with 11 minutes to go. VCU shot 57% for the game and had 26 assists with only four turnovers.

#11 VCU 72, #10 Florida State 71 (ot) • March 25, 2011 – Sweet 16 – San Antonio, Texas

Bradford Burgess made a layup off an inbounds pass with 7.1 seconds left and Jamie Skeen blocked a shot at the buzzer, giving VCU a 72-71 overtime victory against 10th-seeded Florida State. The Rams led 36-31 at the half and held a 57-49 cushion with 10:17 to play before the Seminoles rallied to send the game into overtime at 65-65. VCU trailed 71-70 when Burgess converted off the inbounds play for the last of his team-high 26 points. The Rams shot 45.3% from the floor, including 12-of-26 from 3-point range. Brandon Rozzell chipped in 16 points off the bench and Skeen had 11 points and eight boards.

#11 VCU 71, #1 Kansas 61 • March 27, 2011 – Elite 8 – San Antonio, Texas

Senior Jamie Skeen scored 26 points as VCU delivered the biggest upset of the NCAA Tournament by knocking off #1 Kansas, 71-61, to advance to the NCAA Final Four. The Rams became just the third #11 seed to reach the Final Four. VCU stormed out of the gates, hitting 9-of-12 from 3-point range in the first half to open up a 41-27 advantage at the break. The Jayhawks rallied to within 46-44 with 13:11 left, but the Rams responded with a 10-2 run to regain control. Brandon Rozzell added 12 points but it was VCU's defense that stole the show. The Rams held Kansas to a season-low 61 points on 36% FG shooting, including 2-of-21 on three-pointers.

#8 Butler 70, #11 VCU 62 • April 2, 2011 – National Semifinals – Houston, Texas

VCU's amazing run to the Final Four came to an end with a 70-62 setback to 8th-seeded Butler. Jamie Skeen was spectacular for the Rams with a game-high 27 points and Bradford Burgess contributed 15 points and nine rebounds. The Rams used an early 15-2 run to build an eight-point lead, but the Bulldogs rallied to grab a 34-26 advantage at the break. VCU scored 10 of the first 12 points in the second half to move back in front 38-36 with 15:16 remaining, but Butler clamped down defensively and regained control. The Rams finished with a school-record tying 28 victories and were ranked #6 in the final ESPN/USA Today poll, which was the highest final ranking ever for a CAA team.

NCAA SHOCKERS

In addition to the Final Four runs made by George Mason in 2006 and VCU in 2011, the CAA has been known as a giant killer for pulling some of the biggest upsets in the history of the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship. The list of CAA victims reads like a "Who's Who" of college basketball – Georgetown, Notre Dame, Syracuse and Villanova from the Big East, Auburn, LSU and South Carolina from the SEC, Ohio State and Indiana from the Big 10, Duke and Georgia Tech from the ACC and USC from the Pac 12. Since 1981, CAA squads have posted 23 wins over higher-seeded teams and 28 victories overall. Here's a brief look at the "bracket busters":

#10 James Madison 61, #7 Georgetown 55

James Madison makes its first Division I NCAA Tournament appearance and defeats Georgetown 61-55 in Providence, R.I. Linton Townes, Charles Fisher and Steve Blackmon combined for 45 points in the victory. Two days later, the Dukes appeared on national television (NBC) for the first time, but lost 54-45 to Notre Dame.

#9 James Madison 55, #8 Ohio State 48

The Dukes receive an at-large bid and defeat Ohio State, 55-48, in Charlotte, N.C. The Dukes scored 14 straight points in the second half and overcame an eight-point deficit. Dan Ruland scored 18 points and Linton Townes added 12 points and nine rebounds. JMU lost to eventual national champion North Carolina, 52-50 in the second round.

#10 James Madison 57, #7 West Virginia 50

JMU records a first-round win for the third consecutive season, beating West Virginia 57-50 in Greensboro, N.C.. Charles Fisher scored a team-high 13 points, including the 1,000 point of his career, to lead the Dukes. JMU lost to North Carolina in the second round for the second straight season.

#12 Richmond 72, #5 Auburn 71

After defeating Rider 89-65 at the Palestra to make the field of 48, the Spiders got 26 points from John Newman and shocked Auburn 72-71 in the NCAA first round in Charlotte, N.C. Bill Flye added 19 points for UR, which overcame a 23-point, 17-rebound effort by future NBA star Charles Barkley.

#13 Navy 78, #4 Louisiana State 55

For the fifth consecutive season, an ECAC-South member pulls the first round upset. Vernon Butler pours in a team-high 20 points and David Robinson grabs 18 rebounds as Navy thrashes LSU 78-55 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Dayton, Ohio.

#7 Navy 97, #2 Syracuse 85

After getting 30 points and 12 rebounds in a first-round win over Tulsa, CAA Player of the Year David Robinson tallies 35 points, 11 rebounds and seven blocks as Navy dominates Syracuse 97-85 on its home court at the Carrier Dome to reach the Sweet 16. The Middies then sink #14-seed Cleveland State 71-70 on a Robinson one-hander in the lane with five seconds left to earn a berth in the Elite 8. Navy falls to Duke in the Regional finals.

#13 Richmond 72, #4 Indiana 69

Richmond held Indiana scoreless for the last 2:40 and knocked the defending national champions out of the tournament with a 72-69 triumph in Hartford, Conn. Rodney Rice scored a team-high 21 points, including a jumper with less than a minute to play that put the Spiders ahead to stay.

#13 Richmond 59, #5 Georgia Tech 55

Richmond earned its first-ever berth in the Sweet 16 as Peter Woolfolk tallied 27 points and nine rebounds in a 59-55 upset of Georgia Tech. The Spiders' defense limited the high-scoring Yellow Jackets to 5-of-22 shooting from 3-point range.

#15 Richmond 73, #2 Syracuse 69

In what the Washington Post calls "one of the greatest upsets in college basketball history," Richmond becomes the first #15 seed to drop a #2 seed with a 73-69 win over Syracuse in College Park, Md. The Spiders never trailed and sealed the game when freshman Eugene Burroughs hit two free throws with 21 seconds left. Curtis Blair scored a team-high 18 points and Terry Connolly added 14 points off the bench.

#14 Old Dominion 89, #3 Villanova 81 (3 OT)

In perhaps the most exciting game in conference history, the Monarchs survive three overtimes and defeat Kerry Kittles and Big East champion Villanova, 89-81. CAA Player of the Year Petey Sessoms scores a career-high tying 35 points, including seven in the third OT. Before the night is over, most of the 15,100 fans in Albany's Knickerbocker Arena are chanting "O-D-U."

#14 Richmond 62, #3 South Carolina 61

The Spiders freshened their image as NCAA Tournament upset specialists with a 62-61 win over South Carolina in Washington, D.C. Richmond gets 24 points from CAA Player of the Year Jarod Stevenson and holds the Gamecocks scoreless over the final 1:16 for the victory.

Stewart Hare's dunk sealed UNCW's win over USC in 2002.

#13 UNCW 93, #4 Southern Cal 89 (ot)

UNCW pulls the biggest upset in the first round of the 2002 NCAA Tournament, defeating Southern Cal 93-89 in overtime. Six Seahawks score in double figures, including senior reserve Stewart Hare who punctuates the victory with a mammoth dunk in the final minute. It's the first NCAA Tournament win for UNCW and the school's first victory over a ranked opponent.

#11 VCU 79, #6 Duke 77

Eric Maynor scores a team-high 22 points, including a 15-foot jumper with 1.8 seconds left, as VCU rallies for a 79-77 victory over Duke in Buffalo, N.Y. The Rams trailed by seven with 8:00 remaining before grabbing a 72-71 lead on a Jesse Pellot-Rosa jumper. It was the first NCAA Tournament win for VCU since 1985. The Rams rallied from a 19-point deficit to force overtime against Pitt in the NCAA second round before suffering an 84-79 setback.

#11 Old Dominion 51, #6 Notre Dame 50

ODU rallies from an eight-point second-half deficit to knock off Notre Dame, 51-50, in New Orleans, La. The Monarchs took a 48-46 lead on Gerald Lee's jumper with 1:26 left and Keyon Carter sank a pair of crucial free throws with 10 seconds to go. The Irish missed a game-tying 3-pointer to give ODU its first NCAA Tournament victory since 1995. Frank Hassell had a team-high 15 points and nine rebounds and Carter added 11 points off the bench.

#12 VCU 62, #5 Wichita State 59

Senior Bradford Burgess scored a team-high 16 points, including a 3-pointer that gave VCU the lead with 1:29 to play, as the Rams knocked off Wichita State 62-59 in Portland, Ore. The Rams, who got 10 points apiece from Troy Daniels and Darius Theus, held the Shockers scoreless over the final 2:03

NBA

The CAA has had 21 players selected in the NBA Draft, highlighted by former Navy standout David Robinson being selected #1 overall by the San Antonio Spurs in 1987. Hofstra's Charles Jenkins was the league's most recent draft pick, going in the second round to the Golden State Warriors in 2011.
