Cal men’s basketball travels more than 7,000 miles for a rare opportunity to open the season at the annual Pac-12 China Game, where the Golden Bears meet the Yale Bulldogs in Shanghai, China. Cal officially tips off the season on Friday, Nov. 9 at 8 p.m. PT (Saturday, Nov. 10 at 12 p.m. in Shanghai) at the Baoshan Sports Center. The game airs live on ESPNU.

The flagship event of Pac-12 Global is designed to grow the global popularity of Pac-12 athletic programs and universities, fostering cultural exchange through sport, and creating unique educational experiences for Pac-12 student-athletes. Cal’s trip includes a number of educational and cultural experiences across Shanghai and Hangzhou in China, with a full week’s worth of events following Cal’s arrival to the country on Nov. 3.

The Bears make their official debut following an 82-62 rout of CSU East Bay in an exhibition game on Tuesday, Oct. 30. Cal saw double-figure contributions from five members of its lineup, led by new addition Matt Bradley’s 18 points. The exhibition was the unofficial debut of home-town hero and Oakland’s own Paris Austin, who along with Justice Sueing contributed 15 points in the win. Andre Kelly and Jacobi Gordon each chipped in 11 points.

HOW TO FOLLOW THE ACTION: All the action from the Pac-12 China Game airs live on ESPNU on Friday, Nov. 9 at 8 p.m. PT, with play-by-play and analysis from Roxy Bernstein and Sean Farnham. There will be no radio broadcast from the California Golden Bears Sports Network. Live stats, full broadcast details and more can be accessed via the Cal men’s basketball schedule page. Fans can follow the Bears on social media via @CalMBball on Twitter and Instagram, and at Facebook.com/CalMBball.

BY THE NUMBERS

51.8 Cal’s three returning starters – Juwan-Harris Dyson, Darius McNeill and Justice Sueing – accounted for 51.8 percent of Cal’s scoring in conference play. The trio combined for 580 points in conference.

18,000 The Bears’ nonconference schedule includes more than 18,000 miles of travel, with the bulk of it coming in a 20-day span between roundtrip travel to China (Nov. 2-10) and Brooklyn, N.Y. (Nov. 16-21).

4 Four Golden Bear newcomers scored in double figures in Cal’s exhibition against CSU East Bay. Matt Bradley led the quartet with a game-high 18 points, along with Paris Austin (15), Andre Kelly (11) and Jacobi Gordon (11).

12.3 Oakland native Paris Austin makes his long-awaited debut this season. The Boise State transfer sat out in 2017-18, joining Cal after his sophomore season. In his last year with the Broncos, he averaged 12.3 points.

5 California’s trip to China marks the first-ever trip abroad for five Golden Bear student-athletes.
BEAR NECESSITIES: CAL'S TOP STORYLINES

SCOUTING THE BULLDOGS
- Last Meeting: The Bears and Bulldogs last met on Dec. 29, 2000, with Cal taking a 76-72 advantage over Yale in the Golden Bear Classic in Berkeley.
- Series Record: Cal leads the all-time series, 2-0
- Yale was tabbed third in the Ivy League preseason poll, receiving one first-place vote.
- The Bulldogs welcome back 95 percent of their offensive production from last season.
- Miye Oni was a unanimous first team All-Ivy selection after leading Yale in scoring (15.1 ppg), rebounding (6.0 rpg) and assists (105) last season.
- The Bulldogs also return two other upperclassmen who averaged double figures last season – Alex Copeland (11.2 ppg) and Blake Reynolds (10.7 ppg).
- Azar Swain was second on his squad in three-pointers last season, turning in 54 treys with a team-best 39.1 shooting percentage from deep.

CAL’S MOBILE CLASSROOM
- While the Golden Bears are in Shanghai this week, they’ll also have an opportunity to earn one unit of credit from UC Berkeley through a “One Week in China: Travel Writing, Cultural Exploration and Self Discovery” class facilitated by Dr. Derek Van Rheenen.
• Teammate James (Tianjian) Zhao will also contribute as a teaching assistant, offering up a Mandarin word or phrase of the day and helping the class with interpretation.
• The goal of the course is to combine art, reading, writing, observation and reflection in a travel journal to help illustrate and record the trip.
• Among some of the course’s requirements are: reading assignments, including David Sedaris’ “Journey Into Night” and Theroux’s “Sailing Through China” and writing assignments challenging each student-athlete’s observations of their new surroundings and of themselves.

WELL-TRAVELED
• The Bears’ nonconference schedule includes more than 18,000 miles of travel.
• The bulk of Cal’s nonconference travel comes in a 20-day span between roundtrip travel to China (Nov. 2-10) and Brooklyn, N.Y. (Nov. 16-21). Other stops away from Haas Pavilion include Fresno, Calif. and a trip through the Caldecott Tunnel to face Saint Mary’s.
• No other team in the nation will travel more during their nonconference slate than Cal.

CAL IN THE PAC-12 PRESEASON POLL
• For the second year in a row, the Golden Bears were projected to finish 11th in the Pac-12, according to a preseason vote by media who regularly cover the conference.
• Oregon is the favorite to win the conference.
• Last season, Cal finished 12th in the league with a 2-16 Pac-12 record.

OFFSEASON NEWS
• Chris Walker, who joined Cal as an assistant in April 2017, was elevated to Associate Head Coach in June 2018.
• Wyking Jones brought on Marty Wilson and David Grace as assistants in April.
• Wilson previously served as the head coach at his alma mater Pepperdine and also worked at San Diego (1996-98), UC Santa Barbara (1998-2004) and Utah (2004-08).
• A 10-year Pac-12 veteran, Grace completed five seasons at UCLA before arriving in Berkeley. He spent five seasons at Oregon State prior to that, along with stints at the University of San Francisco and Sacramento State. He also served with the United States Air Force for two decades.
• Jacob Orender and Cal graduate Nick Hamilton were named to the NABC Honors Court for outstanding academic performances. To be eligible for selection, a student must be a junior or senior varsity player, carry a cumulative GPA of 3.2 or higher at the conclusion of the academic year.

BEARS IN THE NBA
Five Golden Bears opened their pro season active on NBA rosters this year: Ryan Anderson (Phoenix Suns), Jaylen Brown (Boston Celtics), Allen Crabbe (Brooklyn Nets), Ivan Rabb (Memphis Grizzlies) and Tyrone Wallace (Los Angeles Clippers). Numerous former members of the Golden Bear roster own front-office roles, including Nets General Manager Sean Marks plus several Bears in scouting and development roles or in the G League, including Marcus Lee (Sioux Falls Skyforce) Roger Moute a Bidias (Raptors 905) and Richard Solomon (Oklahoma City Blue).

NEXT UP
Cal returns to Berkeley for its home opener, where the Golden Bears will face off against Hampton on Tuesday, Nov. 13 at 7 p.m. The game airs on Pac-12 Networks and marks the first of two Legends Classic campus site games that the Bears will host.

HEAD COACH WYKING JONES

With more than 15 years of collegiate coaching experience, Wyking Jones was introduced as California’s head coach on March 24, 2017.

Jones’ first season at the helm saw the Golden Bears upset Stanford in Maples Pavilion for the first time since 2014, and the Bears also took key road wins in a hostile Viejas Arena against San Diego State, and at Seattle. Jones helped guide upperclassmen Kingsley Okoroh and Marcus Lee as stifling defenders in the paint, with Cal ranking 27th nationally in total blocks (149) and 30th in the nation in blocked shots per game (4.8 bpg) following regular-season play. The Bears also reached the 200-steal mark for the first time since the 2003 season. Cal finished with 220 steals — its highest total in more than a decade — to average 6.9 steals per game, up from 4.6 in 2017.

Jones’ rookie trio of Justice Sueing, Darius McNeill and Juwan Harris-Dyson set a strong foundation for the program moving forward, with McNeill topping Allen Crabbe’s freshman record in three-point field goals made and Sueing ranking in the top five among freshman record holders in points and steals.

In the classroom, Nick Hamilton headlined the Pac-12 All-Academic team, becoming the first Golden Bear since Alex Pribble in 2007 to earn first team honors.

Prior to his tenure as head coach, Jones served as an assistant coach at Cal for two seasons under Cuonzo Martin in 2015-16 and 2016-17.

Charged with coaching Cal’s big men, Jones helped forward Ivan Rabb become a two-time All-Pac-12 performer and Jaylen Brown earn All-Pac-12 and Pac-12 Freshman of the Year honors in 2015-16. In addition, center Kingsley Okoroh set a school record with 74 blocks in 2016-17.

In his first season with the Golden Bears, Jones helped steer Cal to the program’s first NCAA Tournament bid since 2013 and the program’s highest tournament seeding, a No. 4 seed. Cal’s defense earned top marks, leading the Pac-12 with just 67.3 points allowed per game and finishing in the top three for rebounding. The Bears went 23-11 and extended their home winning streak to 19 games, dating back to the 2014-2015 season.

The Bears continued their success in 2016-17 by pushing their home winning streak to a program-record 27 games and once again led the league in defense, limiting opponents to 63.4 ppg and 40.0 percent shooting. Cal finished the season with a 21-13 record and earned the top seed in the National Invitation Tournament.

Throughout his career, Jones has also been instrumental in the development of 11 current and former NBA players, including standout Golden Bear Jaylen Brown, plus Terry Rozier, Gorgui Dieng, Montrezl Harrell, Tony Snell, Russ Smith and Peyton Siva.

Jones, a native of Inglewood, Calif., returned to his home state with 12 years of experience as a coach at the collegiate level and was introduced as Martin’s assistant on April 23, 2015. He joined the Golden Bears’ staff after serving as an assistant coach at Louisville for four seasons. During his time on the Cardinals’ coaching staff, UofL’s combined record was 123-30. Louisville captured the 2013 NCAA Championship and reached two Final Fours over the past four seasons. The Cardinals completed the 2014-15 season with a 27-9 record, reaching the NCAA Tournament regional final.

Prior to Louisville, Jones served two seasons on the coaching staff at New Mexico where the Lobos won 52 games in two seasons, including a school-record 30-win campaign in 2010. New Mexico finished the 2010 season ranked eighth in the Associated Press national poll.

Jones served as an assistant coach for five seasons from 2002-06 at Pepperdine, where he was the Waves’ recruiting coordinator. He got his start in coaching at his alma mater, Loyola Marymount, during the 1996-97 season.

As an assistant coach, Jones boasts one national championship, two Final Four runs, seven NCAA Tournament appearances, an Elite Eight and Sweet 16 run and 10 NBA Draft selections.

He was a standout at LMU from 1991-95 under head coach John Olive, where his 1,076 career points rank 24th all-time in the program’s history. Jones also collected 493 career rebounds during his career with the Lions. He was a two-time All-West Coast Conference selection, highlighted by a 19.7 ppg average as a junior. He earned his bachelor’s degree in business administration from Loyola Marymount in 1995.

Jones played professional basketball from 1995-2001 in Italy, France, Japan, Lebanon and South Korea. He also served on the staff at Nike Elite Youth Basketball for three years, where he was the Travel Team Manager for more than 45 programs.

Jones and his wife, Estrella, have a son, Jameel, and a daughter, Zoe.
LAST SEASON
- Saw action in three games for the Bears last season, scoring his first points and rebound as a Golden Bear in the Pac-12 Tournament against Stanford.

BEAR BITES
- Enjoys surfing and collecting shark teeth, with an interest in Marine Biology as a major.
- Mother, Donna, played pro basketball in the WBL for the New York Stars, New Jersey Gems and Chicago Hustle. She later became the second president of the NBA.
