BEARS BY THE NUMBERS

Bear Necessities

Pac-12 play is finally here! The Cal women’s soccer team kicks off conference this Saturday, hosting Arizona State at 1 p.m. PT at Edwards Stadium. The Golden Bears (4-3-1, 0-0-0 Pac-12) ended the non-conference campaign on a two-game unbeaten streak, playing UC Davis to a double-overtime draw last season in Berkeley. Abi Kim gave Cal the lead in the 48th minute, though the visitors responded in the 70th minute as the teams played to a tie.

“We look forward every year to getting into conference play because we will be tested at the very highest level,” said Bears’ head coach Neil McGuire, the program’s all-time wins leader. “Arizona State is a very good team. They are very well-coached and disciplined. They’ll be a team we will have to be at our best against given all their talents.”

The series between the Bears and Sun Devils has been tightly contested as of late, with the teams playing to a 1-1 double-overtime draw last season in Berkeley. Abi Kim gave Cal the lead in the 48th minute, though the visitors responded in the 70th minute as the teams played to a tie.

The 2018 campaign has seen Kim and classmate Kayla Fong lead the Bears’ offense during the non-conference with three goals apiece. Senior Miranda Nild has two game-winners so far this season.

- Assistant Coach: Cori Callahan (8th Season)

- Volunteer Asst. Coach: Jon Lipsitz (2nd Season)

- Recruiting Coordinator: Graham Winkworth (2nd Season)

- Record: Overall: 4-3-1 • Pac-12: 0-0-0

- Contributions:
  - 13 players have registered at least one point for Cal this year, led by 7 points apiece from Kayla Fong and Abi Kim.

- Starting Backline:
  - Freshman Paige Metayer scored her first collegiate goal in Cal’s double-overtime draw with UC Davis, becoming the ninth different Bear to score this season, tied for the fourth-most by any team in the conference. Overall, 13 players have registered at least one point for the Bears this year, led by 7 points apiece from Kayla Fong and Abi Kim.

- Starting Lineup:
  - Through the first eight games of the season, the Golden Bears have used seven different starting lineups. Three players have started all eight matches for the Bears: sophomore Emma Westin and freshmen defenders Abena Aidoo and Sydney Collins. Collins leads all Cal players in minutes played this season (693).

- Starting Goalkeeper:
  - Cal is unbeaten in its last 11 meetings with Sun Devils, a streak that dates back to the 2007 season. However, the series between the schools has been tightly contested as of late, with eight of the last 10 meetings between the teams being decided by one goal or fewer, including a 1-1 double-overtime draw last season in Berkeley.

- Starting Forward:
  - The Bears are looking to open Pac-12 play with a victory for the third consecutive year, and the fourth time in the last five seasons. Cal opened the 2017 Pac-12 campaign with a 1-0 win at Washington and beat Oregon State, 3-0, at home the year before. The last time the Bears failed to get a result in their Pac-12 opener was in 2015, falling at Colorado, 2-1.

WE ARE CALIFORNIA

When referring to any California athletic team, please use either “California” or “Cal” to denote the institution and “Golden Bears” or “Bears” when indicating the mascot. Refrain from using names such as UC Berkeley, California-Berkeley, Cal-Berkeley, or Cal State Berkeley.

SCOUTING THE SUN DEVILS

Arizona State closed the non-conference slate on a three-game winning streak, winning all three matches via shutout. Coming off a 1-0 blanking of Weber State their last time out, the Sun Devils enter the weekend with a shutout streak of 311 minutes, last conceding in a 1-0 loss at Baylor on September 7. At 5-2-0, Arizona State has already matched its win total from the 2017 campaign.

Freshman Nicole Douglas has led Arizona State’s offensive so far this season, scoring five goals on the year, including the game-winner her last time out against Weber State. The freshman from England is currently tied for third in the conference in scoring and has but 12 of her 19 shots this season on target. Senior Jemma Purfield, another English international, leads the team with a pair of assists.

Goalkeepers Sydney Davis and Nikki Panas have traded games in goal, each posting two shutouts on the year. Arizona State’s defense has been among the stingiest in the conference so far this season, conceding just four goals on the year.

Head coach Graham Winkworth is in his second season in Tempe, coming off a successful four-year run at South Alabama. The Sun Devils finished 10th in the Pac-12 table in 2017 and went 5-11-3 overall on the season.

LAST TIME OUT

The Golden Bears closed the non-conference campaign with a double-overtime draw against UC at Edwards Stadium. Cal opened the scoring in the 27th minute, as freshman Paige Metayer scored the first goal of her collegiate career. However, the Aggies leveled the score in the 60th minute as Emma Hasco scored off a free kick from 25 yards out. Neither team was able to find the back of the net again, as the Bears recorded their first draw of the 2018 season.

Coming off a come-from-behind win on the road at Oklahoma their last time out, the Bears got on the scoreboard first when Nild beat her defender to the endline and crossed the ball into Metayer at the top of the six-yard-box. The 5’10” freshman from Irvine headed the ball back across the grain, beating Aggies’ goalkeeper Alexis Smith to the far post. Metayer’s header was one of few scoring chances for either team in the first half, with Cal and UC Davis combining for just five shots in the opening 45 minutes.

NEXT UP

After Saturday’s match with the Sun Devils, the Bears will remain in Berkeley for a pair of matches against Top-10 opponents. Cal hosts No. 3 USC at Noon PT on Thursday, September 27 before taking on 8th-ranked UCLA at 3 p.m. PT on Sunday, September 30. Cal played both Los Angeles-based teams on the road last season, falling 1-0 to both schools in hard-fought affairs. Both matches will be broadcast live on Pac-12 Networks and are double-headers with the Cal men’s soccer team.

CONFERENCE KICKOFF

Conference play begins this weekend for what is widely considered the top conference in women’s Division I soccer. The Pac-12 enters the week with five teams ranked in the Top 25 of the United Soccer Coaches’ Poll. Through non-conference play, the Pac-12 has an overall win percentage of .734.
METAYER MAKES HER MARK

Three weeks since making her return from ACL surgery, freshman midfielder Paige Metayer is making her mark for the Bears. The rookie from Irvine, California scored her first collegiate goal last Friday, heading home a service from Miranda Nild. The 5’10” freshman made her collegiate debut on August 31 against San Diego State and made her first start on September 9 at Oklahoma. A crafty player with vision and size, Metayer also brings great speed, having run track in high school. She still holds records in the 400 meters at University High School.

NILD COMES UP CLUTCH

While she only has two goals for the Bears so far this season, both tallies for senior Miranda Nild have been game-winners. After missing Cal’s first two matches of the season while on international duty with the Thailand Senior National Team, Nild scored in her season debut against Harvard, finishing a direct free kick that opened the scoring in Cal’s 2-0 win. In Cal’s comeback win at Oklahoma, Nild scored in the 61st minute to give the Bears the 2-1 victory on the road. Nild tallied three game-winning goals in 2017, tied with teammate Abi Kim for the most by any Golden Bear last season.

BEARS IN THE POLLS

Cal entered the 2018 season ranked No. 16 in the Soccer America Preseason Poll and has been receiving votes in both the United Soccer Coaches’ and TopDrawerSoccer Top 25s. The Golden Bears were also picked to finish fourth in the Pac-12 Preseason Coaches’ Poll. Arizona State was picked 11th in the preseason poll.

INTERNATIONAL BEARS

The 31 players on Cal’s roster this season bring a depth and breadth of experience on the world stage, representing six different international federations. Miranda Nild recently helped the Thailand Women’s National Team qualify for the 2019 FIFA Women’s World Cup in France while Daisy Cleverley has represented New Zealand at both the 2015 FIFA Women’s World Cup in Canada and the 2016 Summer Olympics in Rio. Abi Kim, Emily Smith, Luca Deza, and Sydney Collins have all recently spent time with the United States’ Youth National Teams during the 2017 FIFA Women’s Under-20 World Cup in Canada and the 2016 Summer Olympics in Rio. Abi Kim, Emily Smith, Luca Deza, and Sydney Collins have all recently spent time with the United States’ Youth National Teams while Emma Westin (Sweden), Avery Lakeman (Canada), and Abena Aidoo (Ghana) have earned time for their respective youth federations.

THE ATTACK IS BACK

Plenty of familiar faces are back on the pitch for the Bears on offense this season, with all but three players who scored in 2017 returning for the Bears. Senior Miranda Nild - who was voted the team’s Offensive MVP for 2017 - returns for her final year in Berkeley coming off a career-best seven goals last season. Junior Abi Kim - a Second Team All-Pac-12 Selection - also finished with seven goals last season, while adding three game-winners for the Bears. Midfielders Luca Deza and Mia Corbin both found the back of the net twice last season while Deza also added a team-high four assists on the year. Overall, Cal returns 88% of its total scoring from 2017.

YOUTH IS SERVED

Last year’s 11-member freshman class – ranked No. 3 in the nation by TopDrawerSoccer – gained valuable experience during the 2017 campaign, with eight rookies seeing significant action. Center back Emily Smith started all 20 matches for the Golden Bears and finished third on the team in total minutes played while Daisy Cleverley, Emma Westin, Luca Deza, and Caroline Clark also earned spots in the starting line up. Overall, Cal’s freshmen accounted for 21 of the Bears’ 76 total points last season with six goals and nine assists. Overall, 22 of the 31 players on the Bears’ roster this season are in their first or second year of eligibility, with nine different freshmen seeing playing time for the Bears already this season.

PRO BEARS

Cal women’s soccer continues to be well-represented on the professional stage, with numerous graduates competing in the professional ranks - both domestically and abroad. Six Golden Bears were named to rosters for the 2018 NWSL season, with Celeste Boureille and Ifeomace Onumounu playing this Saturday for Portland Thorns in the NWSL title match. Boureille helped the Thorns to the 2017 title and looks to lead Portland this Saturday against the North Carolina Courage.

GAME 1: California 3, Utah Valley 0
August 17, 2018 - Berkeley, CA

The Cal women’s soccer team started the 2018 campaign in thrilling fashion, defeating Utah Valley, 3-0, at Goldman Field at Edwards Stadium. Playing their first competitive match in nine month, the Golden Bears put together an impressive performance in the first half, scoring all of the game’s goals in the opening 45 minutes. Junior striker Abi Kim got the Bears on the board in the 11th minute while Caroline Clark and Jordyn Elliott followed suit shortly thereafter, scoring the first goals of their college careers.

GAME 2: No. 19 Santa Clara 4, California 1
August 20, 2018 - Santa Clara, CA

The latest chapter in the Cal-Santa Clara rivalry went to the hosts, as the 19th-ranked Broncos toppled Cal, 4-1, on Monday night at Stevens Stadium. Santa Clara used a pair of goals in each half to hand Cal its first loss of the season. Kayla Fong tallied her first goal of the season, finding the back of the net in the 79th minute off an assist from Mía Corbin. The hard-fought match saw a total of 28 fouls between the teams, with seven cards handed out.

GAME 3: California 2, Harvard 0
August 24, 2018 - Berkeley, CA

Coming off its first defeat of the season, the Cal women’s soccer team responded in convincing fashion on Friday afternoon, beating Harvard 2-0 at Edwards Stadium. The Golden Bears continued their streak of success in Berkeley, improving to 2-0 at home on the season. Miranda Nild and Emma Westin scored for the Golden Bears in the win while goalkeeper Olivia Sekany recorded her second shutout of the season.
GAME 5: UC Santa Barbara 3, California 2 (OT)
September 2, 2018 - Berkeley, CA

Cal's home winning streak came to an end on Sunday afternoon, as the Golden Bears dropped a 3-2 decision to UC Santa Barbara in overtime. Gauchos’ midfielder Madeline Gibson ended the match in 96th minute with a strike from just outside the box, handing Cal its first home defeat of the season.

Emma Westin and Abi Kim both scored for the Bears in the loss.

GAME 6: Oklahoma State 3, California 1
September 7, 2018 - Stillwater, OK

Despite a 13-11 advantage in shots and Kayla Fong's third goal of the season, the Cal women’s soccer team came up short on the road, dropping a 3-1 decision to No. 21 Oklahoma State at Neal Patterson Stadium. The Cowgirls scored the first three goals of the match to hand the Golden Bears their second road loss of the season and second consecutive defeat overall.

Freshman goalkeeper Amanda Zodikoff made her collegiate debut for the Bears, finishing with four saves.

GAME 7: California 2, Oklahoma 1
September 9, 2018 - Norman, OK

Senior Miranda Nild provided the deciding goal midway through the second half as Cal came back to beat Oklahoma, 2-1, at Cain Field. The Sooners took the lead midway through the first half but the Bears leveled the score in the final seconds of the half on Emma Treasure’s first career goal, converting off a corner kick by Mia Corbin. Nild gave the Bears the lead for good in the 61st minute, finishing off a pass from Emma Westin.

GAME 8: California 1 (2OT), UC Davis 1
September 4, 2018 - Berkeley, CA

The Bears closed the non-conference campaign on a two-game unbeaten streak, playing UC Davis to a 1-1 double-overtime draw at Edwards Stadium. Freshman Paige Metayer gave the Bears the lead in the first half, heading home a cross from senior Miranda Nild. The Aggies leveled the game midway through the second half, scoring directly off a free kick right outside the box.
