CCC Cross Country - 2013

Around The Cascade Conference

College of Idaho - Both C of I teams ran extremely well at the Inland Empire Classic - Lady Yotes winning title, Coyote men taking third...Hillary Holt led the women with an outstanding performance, as C of I runners took six of the Top-15 positions among non-Division I runners and improved their 1-5 gap...men's team had a minimal gap between 1-4 (with normal #4 runner not in action).

Concordia - None Provided

Corban - After competing in the Lewis & Clark Invitational over the weekend at McIver State Park in Portland, Corban will be idle for the next two weeks in preparation for the Cascade Collegiate Conference Championships at Brothers Park in Caldwell, Idaho.

Eastern Oregon - Men's Cross Country took second at the LCSC Inland Empire Championships, finishing behind LCSC by five points. Isaac Updike was selected as the Red Lion Men's Cross Country Runner of the Week. He finished third at the event with a time of 24:10, which is the third fastest time in school history. The Women's team finished 8th in the LCSC Inland Empire Championships.

Evergreen - The Geoducks concluded the 2013 cross country season last weekend at the Lewis & Clark Invitational as Evergreen will not compete in the CCC Championships this season.

Northwest - The Eagle XC teams are now done with the regular season schedule and will continue to train for the CCC Championships in November.

Northwest Christian - None Provided

Oregon Tech - No. 19 Oregon Tech Men are at the NAIA West Jamboree against; #9 Cal St. San Marcos, # 17 The Masters, #23 Biola, RV Vanguard, RV Westmont, RV Arizona Christian. Women will run against #3 Cal St. San Marcos, #4 Biola, #7 The Masters, #13 Westmont, RV Concordia (CA)

Southern Oregon - The second-ranked Raider men picked up a team win at the Lewis & Clark Invitational on Saturday. Eric Avila paced Southern Oregon, clearing the rest of the field by an entire 30 seconds for first place, and even Raiders were in the top 14. The 23rd-ranked Raider women took fourth overall behind Summer Cano's third-place effort. Both teams will compete this weekend in Corvallis at the Beaver Classic.

Warner Pacific - None Provided
