Notes From Around The Cascade Conference

College of Idaho- Yotes return home Wednesday to host Warner Pacific, looking to end four match losing streak

Concordia- With a win at home against Warner Pacific, Concordia avoided losing consecutive matches for the first time in over two seasons. The Cavaliers last loss in back-to-back contests occurred on Sept. 1, 2012 when it fell 3-0 to the University of British Columbia.

Corban- Corban is currently riding a six-game winning streak and is in first place in the CCC standings. The Warriors travel to face second-place Northwest University on Wednesday in a pivotal conference matchup before then traveling to Oregon Tech on Saturday for a contest with the Owls.

Evergreen- Evergreen, currently in fourth place in the CCC standings, continues its push for the four-team conference postseason tournament when it plays its final two home matches this week. The Geoducks host Northwest Christian on Wednesday and Warner Pacific on Saturday, which is also Senior Day at Geoduck Pitch. Evergreen concludes its 2014 CCC and regular season with four consecutive road contests.

Northwest Christian- On the heels of their first back-to-back wins since 2012, the Beacons are looking to continue to make a charge up the ladder in a bid to qualify for the CCC post-season for the first time. NCU is currently sixth in the conference, six point behind ESC for fourth.

Northwest- After hosting Corban in a key CCC match-up on Wednesday, the Eagles will remain at home for another big test on Saturday when they play Concordia. NU is currently tied with Concordia for second place in the CCC standings with 18 points and both are just one point behind league-leading Corban with 19.

Oregon Tech- The Oregon Tech men's soccer team takes a 1-7-0 conference mark into the first of three-straight home contests when the Owls host Concordia University on Wednesday evening.

Warner Pacific- None Submitted
