NAIA West Baseball Notes

LA GRANDE, Ore. - Mother Nature was not kind to the baseball teams of the NAIA West as a number of games were cancelled because of severe winter weather across the Pacific Northwest.

The teams will make up for the lack of action last weekend with a full slate of games this week. Many teams will be in California as they hope for some sunny weather to get the season started.

Concordia hosts a number of games, including tilts with College of Idaho and George Fox. No. 2 Lewis-Clark State will finally open its season on Saturday against Montana State-Billings.
