The Cascade Collegiate Conference Championships

Concordia secured both the men's and women's CCC Golf Championships presented by U.S. Bank early this week. For the women (338-328-325—991), it was CU's eighth straight conference title. Concordia's Kelsey Whiles earned the individual medal for the tournament and was named Player of the Year.

On the men's side, it was the second consecutive title for Concordia who finished the tournament in record fashion setting an all-time low of 870 strokes. Concordia's Ryan Melnychuk received the individual medal for the tournament while Corban's Kade Crossland held out for the Player of the Year honors.

Both Concordia teams will now turn their attention to the NAIA tournament after earning the automatic bids,

Notes From Around the Cascade Conference

College of Idaho – None submitted

Concordia – Men’s Golf: Concordia will be making its second ever trip to nationals after winning the CCC Tournament last week. The Cavaliers placed eighth at the NAIA National Championships last season after entering the event ranked No. 19 in the NAIA Coaches’ Poll.

Women’s Golf: Concordia will be returning to the NAIA National Championships after a one-year absence from the event. The Cavaliers competed at nationals nine straight seasons (2005-2014) with an all-time best fifth-place result in 2010.

Corban – Kade Crossland still holds out hope of being selected to the NAIA men’s golf National Championships following being named the CCC Player of the Year. Currently, Crossland is ranked ninth overall in the country with a scoring average of 71.91. For the Warrior women, Brooke Spencer reset her own program record with a season-long average of 82.32, finishing as Corban’s top golfer for the 2014-15 campaign.
