

INTERNSHIPS

— LEARN MORE AT — CASCADECONFERENCE.ORG

Internship Title:

Cascade Collegiate Conference Championship Media Intern

Internship Overview:

The CCC Championship Media Interns will work on site at conference championships with the conference office to support promotional and operational efforts. This opportunity is designed for individuals interested in gaining hands-on experience in sports media, communications, event operations, and storytelling.

This is an event-based opportunity, allowing individuals to participate in championship events that are hosted on or near their campus or in their local area. Whether you are looking to explore a career in sports, build your portfolio, gain hands-on experience, or simply have an interest in athletics or media, the CCC welcomes you to get involved.

Opportunities are available throughout the conference championship season. Each experience will incorporate the individual's areas of interest while still including core event responsibilities.

Who We're Looking For:

The CCC welcomes anyone interested in gaining experience in sports media, communications, content creation, photography, videography, graphic design, event operations, athletic administrations, or related areas.

No previous experience is required. We are looking for individuals who are dependable, willing to learn, creative, and excited to contribute to the championship experience.

Preference for each championship will be given to individuals who are located on or near the host campus.

Main Areas:

- Photography
- Videography
- Interviews
- Creative Content
- Assist with championship management and operations

Preferred Skills:

Previous experience is not required. The CCC is looking for individuals who demonstrate...

- Willingness to learn and take initiative
- Creativity and an interest in finding new ways to tell stories through media
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Dependability and strong communication
- Ability to produce deliverables with quick turnaround
- Interest in sports, athletics, media, communications, or event operations

Experience in photography, videography, graphic design, social media, writing, or other media-related areas are a bonus.

Benefits:

- Hands-on experience in sports media and championship operations
- Opportunity to build a resume and professional portfolio
- Networking opportunities throughout the conference
- Opportunity to gain experience working directly within collegiate athletics
- CCC apparel
- Opportunity to explore different areas of sports media and communications
- Additional hours, responsibilities, and opportunities for experience are available if desired
- Accommodations provided as needed

How to Get Involved:

Individuals interested should email the Communications Director, ccccourtneyb@gmail.com with

- Your name and school
- The conference championship event(s) you are interested in
- Your general availability
- A brief note about why you are interested

A resume, portfolio, examples of work, or information about previous experience may be included if desired.

Opportunities are available on a rolling basis as championship dates and host locations are finalized. Individuals may express interest at any time, and selections will be based primarily on event needs, location, interest, availability, and the needs of each championship.