HEAD COACH KATIE PALMER

Katie (Hinrichs) Palmer was named the 14th head coach in Lewis-Clark State College Volleyball ahead of the 2023 season. She enters her fourth season at the helm in 2026. The Warrior alum brings 12 years of NCAA Division I coaching experience, which includes coaching at the international level with USA Volleyball.

The Warriors finished with a 18-9 record in Palmer's third season and returned to the NAIA national tournament for the first time since 2011. LC State historic season ended at the final site in Sioux City, Iowa, where the Warriors ended pool play with a 3-2 victory over No. 21 Aquinas (Mich.). LC State went 2-1 in the national tournament after a 3-1 win at (RV) Taylor (Ind.) to punch its ticket back to Sioux City. The Warriors ranked as high as No. 11 in the NAIA during the season and finished the year as the No. 19 team in the country.

Juliauna Forgach Aguilar became Palmer's first NAIA All-American in 2025 and the program's first NAIA All-American since 2022. She earned third-team honors after a standout final season, and was one of a program record four All-Cascade Conference honorees (Forgach Aguilar, Ella Stosich, Teagan Scott, Karissa Lindner). LC State had seven Cascade Conference Players of the Week throughout the season.

Palmer was a standout libero and helped the Warriors to a 112-24 overall record during her career. LC State won four regular-season and postseason Frontier Conference titles and advanced to the NAIA national tournament all four years. Palmer etched her name in the LC State record books in multiple categories including the single-game dig leader (41), single-season dig leader (561), and finished her career second in program history in career digs (1,585).

Most recently in her coaching career, Palmer served as an assistant coach at Gonzaga for three seasons. She was hired by the Zags in 2019 and her primary responsibilities included recruiting coordination, first contact development, and team defense. During her time in Spokane, she trained and developed seven Bulldogs to WCC all-conference honors.
