HEAD COACH - AUSTIN SHICK

Shick, originally from Nevada, played collegiately at Southwest Oregon Community College and Linn-Benton Community College from 2008-2010. He then went on to Oregon State University where he obtained his Bachelor's degree in Fisheries Wildlife Management, and recently received his master's degree in Exercise Science from the University of Chicago - Concordia. Shick spent several years playing semi-professional indoor soccer before joining the ranks as a soccer coach. Most recently, Shick served one season as an assistant coach at Southern Oregon. Prior to SOU, Shick spent one season as the Head Coach at Sierra Nevada University. In one year under Shick's leadership, the Eagles finished with the highest finish in program history. His team set program records for goals scored (31) and goal scorers (12). His 2021 team reduced goal differential by 23 from the previous year. Sierra Nevada made the decision to drop athletics programming later that year, bringing his tenure to an untimely end. Shick started his coaching career in 2016 as the Head Coach at Blue Mountain Community College. Under his direction, BMCC went from being statistically the worst program in the nation to a conference title in just four years. His 2021 team broke every program record; goals scored, goals against, assists, overall record, assists, team GPA, and fewest goals allowed.

LAST SEASON: The Fighting Saints enjoyed continued success under the direction of third year Head Coach Austin Shick. Carroll spent the vast majority of the season in the receiving votes portion of the NAIA weekly coaches' poll, and battled for the top spot in the CCC table all season long. The Saints finished second in the CCC standings, prior to advancing to the CCC Championship match for the second-straight season. The regular season runners-up fell in a tight overtime loss in the championship match, but were selected as an at-large berth to the NAIA Men's Soccer Championship. The Saints won their opening round contest over Wiley, the second tournament win in program history, before falling to Cumberland in the second round. Defenders Alan Gutierrez and Justus Herrmann were named First Team All-CCC, while four others were given Second Team league honors.
