HEAD COACH - DAVID THORVILSON

Thorvilson, a native of Helena, started his college career at Gonzaga University in Spokane, Wash. After two seasons, he took a year off before transferring to MSU Billings to complete his collegiate career. He then became the assistant and goalkeeper coach for both the men's and women's teams at MSU Billings. After two seasons, Thorvilson became the assistant at the University of Mary, where he earned a Master of Business Administration degree and helped both programs to national tournament bids (men in 2001 and women in 2002). Under Thorvilson, the Fighting Saints have earned Frontier Conference championships in 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011. His career is highlighted by the 2007 season, when the Saints finished 17-2-2, falling in the NAIA Quarterfinals to the eventual national champions. Thorvilson has guided the Saints to three CCC championships and five Frontier titles. The Saints have qualified for the national tournament three times, with a combined 11 qualifications for regional and national tournaments and he's once been named the NSCAA West Region Coach of the Year.

LAST SEASON: Following early-season injuries to several key veterans, a young group of Fighting Saints made a late-season push to once again qualify for the CCC postseason championship. The eighth-seed Saints battled for 90-plus, pushing No. 1 College of Idaho to the brink in a heartbreaking 1-0 overtime loss. Avery Lambourne was named Second Team All-CCC, her third-straight All-Conference honor, while a trio of Saints (Maria Ackerman, Rachel McAllister, Hayley Smith) were all Honorable Mention selections. Thorvilson reached a significant milestone in the Fall of '25, becoming the first soccer coach in Carroll history to record 200 career wins.
