THE RUNDOWN

Mountaineer Men's Basketball enters the 2026-27 season looking to build on the momentum of a successful 2025-26 campaign. Last season, Eastern Oregon earned a share of the CCC Regular Season Championship and received an at-large bid to the NAIA National Tournament, where the Mountaineers defeated LSU in overtime to advance to the second round. The team also received votes in the final NAIA poll of the season under fifth-year Head Coach Chris Kemp.

With just one starter departing from last year's squad, Eastern Oregon returns a strong core as it looks to build on last season's accomplishments. The Mountaineers return All-Conference honoree and CCC Newcomer of the Year Eamon Monahan, along with All-Conference selection Keilan Torkornoo and Honorable Mention recipient Logan Orchard. Eastern Oregon also adds several newcomers, including freshman Tye Cornwall, a two-time 5A Southern Idaho Conference Player of the Year, and junior transfer Gabe Britton. Britton was a starter at Treasure Valley Community College and helped lead the Chukars to an East Region championship and an appearance in the NWAC Elite 8.

The Mountaineers will open the 2026-27 season at home against Embry-Riddle (AZ). Eastern Oregon will face a challenging non-conference schedule that includes (RV) Montana Tech and No. 25 Benedictine-Mesa, along with an exhibition matchup against NCAA Division I Gonzaga University, before opening Cascade Collegiate Conference play.

With a veteran core returning and new talent joining the program, the Mountaineers will look to carry last season's success into another competitive campaign.
