THE RUNDOWN

Eastern Oregon Women's Basketball enters the 2026-27 season looking to build on the momentum of a successful 2025-26 campaign. Under 26th-year Head Coach Anji Weissenfluh, the Mountaineers shared the CCC Regular-Season Championship, advanced to the semifinals of the conference tournament, and earned an automatic bid to the NAIA National Tournament Opening Round.

EQU will look to carry that success forward while navigating the loss of four starters, including CCC Defensive Player of the Year Kelsie Siegner and Honorable Mention selection Maggie Smith. Returning to help lead the Mountaineers are Avery Peterson, Haylee Johnson, and Honorable Mention selection Kali Kast. EQU also adds fresh talent, including first-team Central WA Athletic Conference freshman Ellie Markus, 3A Western Idaho Conference Player of the Year freshman Aarey Harris, and transfers Katelyn Hamilton, Hadley Fraas, and Britany Phillips.

With a mix of experienced returners and newcomers, EQU looks to build a new identity while competing at the top of the Cascade Collegiate Conference and making another push toward the NAIA National Tournament.
