THIS IS COLLEGE HOCKEY AMERICA

College Hockey America (CHA) formed in the fall of 2002 with four teams – Findlay (Ohio), Mercyhurst and Wayne State (Mich.) from the Great Lakes Women's Hockey Association and Niagara from the ECAC.

In the league's first year of competition, 2002-03, each member played two games against each of the other conference schools. Mercyhurst won the regular-season title with a 6-0 record. The Lakers continued on to win the first-ever CHA postseason tournament, held at the City Sports Center Arena in Detroit, with victories over Wayne State and Findlay.

Membership

The league has seen several changes in membership since 2002. Mercyhurst is the lone remaining original member. Findlay dropped women's ice hockey after the 2003-04 season and was replaced in the CHA by Quinnipiac, which played the previous season as a Division I independent. The Bobcats played one year in CHA before joining their men's team in the ECAC. Robert Morris replaced Quinnipiac prior to the 2005-06 season to keep membership at four.

Syracuse was added as a fifth member for the 2008-09 season, and the league schedule increased to 16 games, four head-to-head games against each of the other members.

In that season the conference tournament also expanded to a three-day event for the first time in league history. The league dropped back to four members when Wayne State dropped women's hockey prior to the 2010-11 season.

Commissioner Robert DeGregorio oversaw another period of transition, ushering in three new members, Lindenwood, Penn State and RIT, for the start of the 2012-13 season. Niagara dropped women's ice hockey during the same offseason, leaving the league with six members.

Robert Morris, winners of three CHA regular season crowns, saw its program eliminated by the university following the 2020-21 campaign, dropping league membership to five institutions for the 2021-22 campaign.

Regular Season and Postseason Titles

Mercyhurst has been the CHA's top regular season program, winning 14 regular season outright titles and one shared regular season crown (Wayne State, 2007-08) from 2002-03 through 2015-16 and adding a 15th crown in 2019-20. Robert Morris won three-consecutive titles from 2016-17 through 2018-19 while Penn State will enter the 2021-22 season as the league's defend regular season champion after capturing its first CHA title a season ago.

Mercyhurst has also won 13-of-19 post-season tournaments (2003-2011, 2016, 2018, 2020). While Robert Morris captured three tournament titles during its time in the league (2012, 2017, 2021). Other postseason winners include RIT (2014, 2015) and Syracuse (2019).

National Stage

Mercyhurst earned the league's first NCAA tournament bid in 2005, the first of 10-consecutive bids for the Lakers (2005-2014). MU reached four Frozen Fours in that span (2009, 2010, 2013, 2014) and played for the national championship in 2009. The 10-straight appearances marked the first time a team reached the women's tournament in 10 consecutive seasons.

Mercyhurst also appeared in the 2016 and 2018 NCAA tournaments and earned the league's automatic berth in 2020 before that tournament was cancelled due to the CoVID-19 shutdown. Robert Morris (2017, 2021) and Syracuse (2019) have also represented the CHA in the NCAAs.

Player Recognition

The conference's prominence on a national stage has been cemented by the accomplishments and accolades accumulated by College Hockey America players.

MERCYHURST'S VICKI BENDUS BECAME THE CHA'S FIRST PATTY KAZMAIER AWARD WINNER IN 2009-10. BENDUS RECORDED 65 POINTS ON 28 GOALS AND 37 ASSISTS AS THE LAKERS REACHED THE FROZEN FOUR THAT SEASON.

THIS IS COLLEGE HOCKEY AMERICA

In 2005, Mercyhurst goaltender Desi Clark became the first CHA player to earn Patty Kazmaier Award Top-10 finalist status after backstopping the Lakers to their first NCAA Tournament appearance.

Two years later, in 2007, Mercyhurst's Meghan Agosta became the first CHA player to be named a Top-3 finalist for the Patty Kaz. Agosta go on to finish in the top three in voting in all four of her collegiate seasons. The four-straight top-three finishes put Agosta in an exclusive club with Minnesota's Hannah Brandt, Minnesota Duluth's Maria Rooth and Harvard's Angela Ruggiero as the only four-time Top-10 finalists in Patty Kaz history.

In 2008, Wayne State's Melissa Boal was also a Top-10 finalist for the Patty Kaz along with Agosta. The same season, College Hockey America claimed the top four scorers in the nation in terms of points per game in Boal (2.16), Agosta (1.97), and Wayne State's Sam Poyton (1.94) and Lindsay DiPietro (1.88). Agosta led the nation with 40 goals and seven shorthanded markers, while DiPietro had an NCAA-best 48 assists.

In 2009, Agosta led the NCAA in points per game (2.44/78 in 32 games), goals per game (1.28/41 in 32 games), assists per game (1.16/37 in 32 games) and game-winning goals (10), while finishing second nationally with 14 power-play goals.

In 2009-10, Mercyhurst's Vicki Bendus became the first CHA player to win the Patty Kazmaier Award, tallying 65 points on 28 goals and 37 assists in 36 games as the Lakers reached their second-consecutive Frozen Four. Teammate Jesse Scanzano was also a Top-10 finalist that season.

College Hockey America again claimed two of the top-10 finalists for the 2011 Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award in Bendus and Agosta, who became a top-three finalist for the fourth time in her collegiate career.

Agosta had returned to Mercyhurst for her senior campaign that season after taking a year off to train and compete for Canada in the 2010 Vancouver Olympics, where she won her second gold medal. Agosta led the nation in points per game (2.53) and total assists (48) and was third in total goals (38) in 34 games for the Lakers.

That same season, Robert Morris senior Whitney Pappas was a finalist for the Hockey Humanitarian Award. The Hockey Humanitarian Award is awarded annually to college hockey's finest citizen and seeks to recognize college hockey players at all levels who give back to their communities in the true humanitarian spirit.

Mercyhurst forward Bailey Bram was a top-10 finalist for the 2012 Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award. Bram finished second in the nation in points per game (2.12) and first in power play goals with 12 in 32 games. Mercyhurst had a top 10 finalist for the award every season from 2007-12.

Mercyhurst's Christine Bestland was named a finalist for the 2014 Patty Kazmaier Award. The Lakers' senior captain recorded 20 goals and 30 assists in the regular season, leading the Lakers to the regular season title.

Robert Morris forward Brittany Howard became RMU's first Patty Kazmaier Award Top-10 finalist in 2018 as she led the Colonials to the second of three-consecutive CHA regular season titles.

Penn State forward Kiara Zanon became the latest CHA player to earn Patty Kaz recognition when she was tabbed a Top-10 finalist in 2021 as the Nittany Lions went on to capture their first CHA regular season crown.

CHA Alumni in the Olympics

Four-time CHA Player of the Year Meghan Agosta earned her third Olympic gold medal for Canada at the 2014 Sochi Olympics. Former Robert Morris player and assistant coach Brianne McLaughlin earned her second silver medal as one of three goaltenders for Team USA in Sochi, and Stefanie Marty, a member of the inaugural Division I team at Syracuse, and the program's first captain, helping her native Switzerland bring home the country's first Olympic hockey medal since World War II in 2014 as the Swiss skated off with the bronze medal.

In 2018, Lindenwood's Nicole Hensley took home a gold medal with Team USA at the Games in Pyeongchang, South Korea.

COMMISSIONER ROBERT M. DeGREGORIO JR.

Robert M. DeGregorio, Jr., was introduced as College Hockey America's commissioner on September 9, 2010. He currently oversees a five-team league that includes Lindenwood University, Mercyhurst University, Pennsylvania State, Rochester Institute of Technology and Syracuse University.

DeGregorio is no stranger to guiding a major Division I ice hockey league, having served as commissioner of Hockey East from 1993-96, as he replaced Stuart P. Haskell, who resigned to devote full-time energies to his position as Commissioner of the North Atlantic Conference. DeGregorio then became the commissioner for Atlantic Hockey's in June 30, 2003 and has made the league grow stronger through-out the years since he started.

The former treasurer and Executive Council member of Hockey East, DeGregorio also oversaw the elevation of Merrimack's men's hockey program from Division II to Division I status in 1989, where it now competes as a member of Hockey East.

"I think that this is a great opportunity," DeGregorio said. "I look forward to working with all of the athletic directors and head coaches in the league. We hope to make (College Hockey America) one of the strongest Women's leagues in Division I ice hockey in the near future."

DeGregorio, the former Director of Athletics at Merrimack College for 19 years, joined the staff at Merrimack as business manager for the Athletic Department and for the College's S. Peter Volpe Physical Education Center in 1978.

He was promoted to Director of Athletics in May of 1983. Throughout his tenure, many of the Warrior teams become national powers. The 15-sport Division II program reached its pinnacle in 1999-2000 when it captured the Northeast-10 President's Cup, awarded for the top overall performance of all teams. DeGregorio was also

ROBERT M. DeGREGORIO JR.

Merrimack's softball coach from 1982-1992, posting 211 victories in ten seasons and guided the Warriors to four Northeast-10 Conference titles. He was named Northeast-10 Conference Coach of the Year three times (1986, 1989, 1992). The Warriors won the 1994 Division II National Softball Championship and the softball program has a total of five appearances in the national championship tournament.

Although winning is always a goal, DeGregorio has constantly recognized and encouraged success in the classroom as well as community involvement. This was evidenced in July, 2001, when the first USA TODAY/NCAA Foundation Academic Achievement Awards were announced. Out of the 264 Division II schools in the country, Merrimack ranked second with an impressive student-athlete graduation rate of 86 percent.

DeGregorio sat on numerous committees and held many posts while at Merrimack serving his institution nationally on various NCAA committees. He was a member of the NCAA Division I Ice Hockey Committee from 1994-98. DeGregorio served as director on the Northeast-10 Conference (NE-10) Board of Directors, Chairman of the NE-10 Men's Basketball Championship and the NE-10 Finance Committees. He was a member of the NCAA Northeast Region Advisory Committees for both men's basketball and baseball.

DeGregorio also previously served as a director of the Eastern Football Conference and as the conference's treasurer, member of the ECAC Finance Committee and chairman of the ECAC Investment Committee. He was also on the executive council for the ECAC and Vice-President in 1995.

DeGregorio and his wife, Michele, reside in Winthrop, Mass.

2020-21 CHA REVIEW

2020-21 CHA AWARD WINNERS

CHA PLAYER OF THE YEAR

KIARA ZANON, FR., F, PENN STATE (FAIRPORT, N.Y.)

After a spectacular freshman season that saw the Penn State women's hockey program reach new heights, freshman forward Kiara Zanon was named the CHA Player of the Year.

Zanon became the first Nittany Lion to win league Player of the Year honors after a record-breaking individual season that was a key part in Penn State's first-ever CHA regular season championship title.

She completed her 2020-21 season leading College Hockey America with 30 points (10g/20a) which also lead all NCAA first-year players. She was also recognized as CHA Rookie of the Year.

Zanon also earned PSU's first National Rookie of the Year award last season and was named one of the 10 finalists for the Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award, given annually to the best player in women's college hockey. Zanon was the only freshman among this year's finalists and was the first Penn State player to earn that recognition.

A speedy skater with a game-breaking playmaking ability, Zanon posted a program-record six-point game (1g/5a) in Penn State's 7-1 win over RIT Feb. 10, 2021. She either scored or assisted on seven game-winning goals for Penn State this season and sported a team-best +23 rating.

In a shortened 2020-21 season, Zanon still managed to shatter several Penn State season records, including points per games (1.43) and assists per game (0.95). Her nine multi-point games also set a Penn State season best in just 21 games played.

Zanon became the first Nittany Lion to win an individual national award when she was named Hockey Commissioners Association Women's National Rookie of the Month for December. She scored two game-winning goals and had six points (2g/4a) in four games in the month.
