CHAMPION U.S.A. DIVISION III FOOTBALL
SENIOR STUDENT-ATHLETE OF THE YEAR ANNOUNCED

ITHACA, NY -- Senior fullback Frank Baker (Bloomfield Hills, MI) from the University of Chicago has been voted the 1993 recipient of the Champion U.S.A. Division III Football Senior Student-Athlete of the Year Award.

Champion Products will present the University of Chicago with a $3,000 check in Baker's name for the institution's general scholarship fund in recognition of the award.

A 1993 Champion U.S.A. Division III First Team All-American and a two-time GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-American, Baker also earned a 1993 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. He is an economics major and owned a 3.56 cumulative grade point average entering the spring semester.

This past fall Baker rushed for a school-record 1,606 yards on 281 carries and posted 100-yard ground outings in each of 10 contests. He finished sixth among Division III performers in rushing yards per game. Baker's 4,283 career rushing yards is another school record.

"We're thrilled and honored to support intercollegiate athletics," noted Lewis Hardy, Champion Vice President of Athletics & Sales, "and it's always most gratifying to be able to recognize the achievements of our nation's finest student-athletes."

Nominees for the Champion U.S.A. Division III Football Senior Student-Athlete of the Year Award must have completed their college football eligibility in the fall, have been a starter or specialist and played in 75 percent of his team's contests, and owned at least a 3.5 cumulative grade point average (4.00 scale) through the fall 1992 semester or quarter.

The inaugural award was presented in 1992 to Illinois Wesleyan University wide receiver Chris Bisailon.
