WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

Cardinals (8-5-5)

Wesleyan Team Notes

Wesleyan will be making its second straight trip to the NCAA Tournament, looking to make a repeat of last season's magical run to the Final Four in what was the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance. The Cardinals earned an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament following a trip to the NESCAC Championship match. Senior forward Grace Devanny is a three-time All-NESCAC selection and was the program's first-ever All-American, named first team in 2021. Graduate goalkeeper Sarah Hammond is a two-time All-NESCAC second team pick and she comes into the national postseason tournament as the Cardinals' all-time wins leader with 34 while also posting program records in shutouts (15) and save percentage (.832).

MESSIAH UNIVERSITY

Falcons (17-1-2 ranked 5th in Div. III)

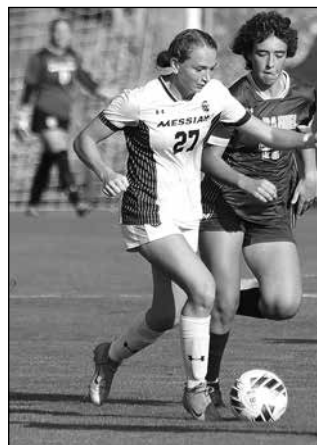

Messiah Team Notes

Messiah earned its spot in the NCAA Tournament by way of a 2-0 victory over the York Spartans in the MAC Commonwealth Championship on Saturday. With the win, the Falcons claimed their 19th conference championship and punched their ticket to their 22nd-straight NCAA Tournament. Messiah owns a 71-10-10 record in the NCAA Tournament while claiming six national championships and advancing to a total of 13 Final Fours. The Falcons are riding a seven-match winning streak. Messiah's lone setback of the regular season came against York on Oct. 12, a 1-0 loss that ended a streak of 150 regular-season conference games without a loss. Rachael Tirjan's 11 goals and six assists lead a balanced Messiah attack that features six different players with at least five goals on the season. The Falcons have allowed seven goals on the year, but only two in their last 15 matches.

PENN STATE BERKS

Nittany Lions (13-5-2)

Penn State Berks Team Notes

Penn State Berks women's soccer makes its eighth trip to the NCAA Div. III Tournament, first since 2019. The Nittany Lions were crowned regular-season champions of the United East after finishing 7-0-1. They defeated St. Mary's College, 3-1, in the semifinal round.

For the third straight season, Penn State Berks and Penn State Harrisburg met in the conference tournament finals. The teams played through a scoreless draw over the first 90 minutes of regulation. Berks scored two goals in the first overtime period and tacked on another for a 3-0 victory. Emily Clapper, who was the United East Offensive Player of the Year, was named the Tournament MVP after scoring two goals in the title game and adding another one in the semifinals.
