STEPHANIE VERDOIA OF SEATTLE, ANDY BEVIN OF WEST VIRGINIA HEADLINE CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® DIVISION I SOCCER TEAMS

AUSTIN, Texas—Senior forwards Stephanie Verdoia of Seattle University and Andy Bevin of West Virginia headline the 2014 Capital One Academic All-America® Division I soccer teams as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Verdoia has been selected as the 2014 Capital One Academic All-America® of the Year for Division I Women's Soccer while Bevin has been named the 2014 Capital One Academic All-America® of the Year for Division I Men's Soccer.

A political science major with a 3.96 G.P.A., Verdoia was a third team Capital One Academic All-America® last year. The Salt Lake City, Utah native earned her second consecutive Western Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year honor after leading the conference in nearly every offensive category including goals, points, shots, assists, and game-winning goals. Verdoia became Seattle U's all-time leader in goals and points when she netted a hat trick on Senior Day. Verdoia was a top 10 finalist for Senior CLASS Award and the Disney Soccer/NSCAA Women's Soccer DI Player of the Week (Sep. 29-Oct. 5).

Verdoia was the WAC Tournament MVP after leading the Redhawks to the championship with an aggregate 12-0 score. Her goal in the WAC title game set a new school single-season record. She has led Seattle to a 15-4-2 record and also scored a goal in their opening round NCAA tournament win over Washington State. Verdoia has 22 goals and 13 assists heading into their NCAA second round match against South Carolina.

As a junior, Verdoia had 15 goals, 12 assists and five game-winning goals. She won the WAC's Joe Kearney Award, annually awarded to the top male and female student-athletes, and was also named to the NSCAA All-West Region second team. Verdoia has tallied 51 goals and 30 assists in her career.

Bevin, a management information systems major with a 3.93 G.P.A., is a two-time first team Capital One Academic All-America® selection. The Napier, New Zealand native was named the 2014 Mid-American Conference Player of the Year after leading the MAC with 34 points on 13 goals and eight assists. Bevin has led the Mountaineers to an 11-7-1 record and will finish his career ranked in WVU's top-10 in goals, assists and points. He recently scored his first career hat-trick and is one of 10 finalists for the Senior CLASS Award.

Bevin earned All-MAC first team honors in 2013 and second team honors in 2012 while nabbed NSCAA All-Great Lakes Region second team honors last year. In each case, he was on the Academic All-MAC first team. In 2011, he was the Big East Rookie of the Year, All-Big East third team, NSCAA All-Northeast Region second team, ECAC Rookie of the Year and a member of the CollegeSoccerNews All-Freshman Team. Bevin has 31 goals and 19 assists in his career, and ranks third all-time in assists, fifth in points and seventh in goals at WVU.

Capital One Academic All-America® Women's Soccer Division I Team

Sixteen of the 33 members of the 2014 Capital One Academic All-America® NCAA Division I women's soccer teams have at least a 3.90 G.P.A., with six student-athletes sporting a perfect 4.00 G.P.A. The 11 members of the first team have an average G.P.A. of 3.75.

LaSalle University senior forward Kelsey Haycook was a second team choice last season and moved up to the first team in 2014. She led the Explorers to a 14-6-2 record and an NCAA tournament appearance by tallying 20 goals and three assists. A nutrition major with a 3.79 G.P.A., the Point Pleasant, N.J., native has 60 goals and 22 assists in her career.
