MICHAEL NEWBURGER, KIM JACOB HEADLINE CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® DIVISION I AT-LARGE TEAMS

YOUNG HARRIS, Ga. – Senior gymnasts Michael Newburger of The Ohio State University and Kim Jacob of the University of Alabama lead the 2014 Capital One Academic All-America® Division I Men's and Women's At-Large teams, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Newburger and Jacob have been chosen as the winners of the Capital One All-America® of the Year award for Division I Men's and Women's At-Large programs, respectively.

The at-large team for the Capital One Academic All-America® program includes the sports of fencing, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, lacrosse rifle, skiing, swimming and diving, tennis, water polo for both men and women; and bowling, rowing and field hockey for women; and volleyball and wrestling for men.

A physics and mathematics major with a 3.96 G.P.A., Newburger makes his second-consecutive appearance on the Capital One All-America® Division I Men's At-Large first team, after earning a spot last season. He is a four-time Distinguished Merit Scholar, National Buckeye Scholar and three-time Big Ten Distinguished Scholar. A native of Austin, Texas, he was a finalist for the Big Ten Medal of Honor and was a four-time Academic All-Big Ten. A two-time All-American and 2013 NCAA champion on the pommel horse, he set a new NCAA and Ohio State record on the apparatus scoring a 16.25 at the Windy City Invitational. The No. 1-ranked gymnast on the pommel horse, he was also a finalist for the prestigious Nissen-Emery Award, presented annually to the top-collegiate gymnast. Newburger won NCAA and Big Ten Postgraduate Scholarships and will pursue a Ph.D. in physics at Ohio State.

Earning a 4.00 G.P.A. in exercise science, Jacob is the 2014 NCAA All-Around Champion and Honda Award winner for gymnastics, earning four first-team All-America honors this season. A native of Raleigh, North Carolina, she is the first-ever student-athlete to win the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year three times, was the winner of the SEC Postgraduate Scholarship award, and was the NCAA Elite 89 Award winner in 2013. During her career in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, she has helped the Crimson Tide win NCAA titles in 2011 and 2012. It is also Jacob's second-career appearance on the Capital One Academic All-America® Division I Women's At-Large first team.

The Capital One Academic All-America® Division I Men's At-Large first team is comprised of four swimmers, three golfers, three skiers, three wrestlers, a fencer and Newburger is the only gymnast.

In additional to Newburger, Alabama golfer Cory Whitsett are the only two-time repeat first-team selection on the Capital One Academic All-America® Division I Men's At-Large team. Joining the duo on the first team are swimmers Nick Caldwell of the University of Wisconsin, Brad deBorde of the University of Florida, Connor Jaeger of the University of Michigan and Ivan Nechunaev of Grand Canyon University. Wrestlers Tyler Caldwell of Oklahoma State University, Kendric Maple of the University of Oklahoma and David Taylor of Penn State University all earned their first-career first-team honor, while skiers Andreas Haug of the University of Colorado, and teammates Mats Resaland and Armin Triendl of the University of New Mexico are, as well. Fellow golfers Brandon Hagy of the University of California and Bobby Wyatt of Alabama are also on the Capital One Academic All-America® Division I Men's At-Large first team, with fencer Gerek Meinhardt of the University of Notre Dame rounds out the 15-member squad.

Haug and Jaeger were second-team selections on the Capital One Academic All-America® Division I men's at-large team last year, with Haug also earning a spot on the second team in 2012. Hagy and DeBorde were named to the third team in 2013, while deBorde landed a spot on the second team in 2012, as well.

Alabama and New Mexico are the only schools with two first-team representatives. All the first-team honorees are also seniors or graduate students.

A Sarasota, Florida, native with a perfect 4.00 G.P.A. in chemistry, Caldwell is a member of the U.S. Men's Swimming team. After transferring from Florida, the senior set three Big Ten records this year in the 200-, 1,000- and 1650-yard freestyle events this season. A second team All-Big Ten honoree, he swam the second-fastest time in school history at the Big Ten Championships in the 500 freestyle (4:15.81). Caldwell also earned a spot on the Academic All-Big Ten team.

Caldwell is a four-time All-American at Oklahoma and Oklahoma State, spending his last two seasons in Stillwater, Oklahoma, competing for the Cowboys. The senior finished third at 165 pounds at the NCAA Championship, helping OSU to a second-place finish in the team competition, just three points out of first place. Caldwell has traveled internationally to compete, taking the year off during the 2011-12 campaign in hopes of making a trip to the London Olympics and placed third at the 2011 Freestyle Olympic Trials Qualifier. A native of Wichita, Kansas, he is an education major with a 3.54 G.P.A.

Boasting a 3.64 G.P.A. in industrial and systems engineering, deBorde is a 20-time All-American and 18-time All-SEC selection, while holding the school record in the 50 and 100 freestyle events. The SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year this year, the Longwood, Florida, native is a two-time conference champion in the 50 freestyle. As a senior, deBorde has earned a NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and was president of the school's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

A native of Westlake Village, California, Hagy has a 3.72 G.P.A. in business. The senior was recently named Golfweek's Byron Nelson Award winner, presented to a graduating senior that has shown excellence in golf and academics, as well as their character, community service and integrity, including good citizenship. The sixth-ranked golfer in the country, he was a semifinalist for The Ben Hogan Award, given annually to the top-college and amateur player. A first-team All-American and All-Pac-12 pick, he has been ranked as high as the No. 4 amateur in the world this season. Scheduled to represent the U.S. at the Palmer Cup this year, he was also named the Pac-12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

A senior from Blommenholm, Norway, Haug carries a 3.98 G.P.A. in accounting and finance and was a three-time All-District 7 honoree, as well as a three time Capital One Academic All-America® at-large honoree. He was named Colorado's Senior Male Scholar Athlete for having the highest G.P.A. among all senior male athletes, and was also given the CU Sports Performer of the Year award for athletic achievement, becoming the first Buffs student-athlete to earn both awards. He is a six-time member of the Dean's List, earning a 4.0 four times and the NCAA Elite 89 Award winner in 2012. Athletically, he became the third CU men's alpine skier in the past 20 years to participate in four NCAA Championships, helping the Buffs win the NCAA title in 2012 and 2013.

A senior and native of Fair Haven, New Jersey, Jaeger is a mechanical engineering major with a 3.42 G.P.A. He helped the Wolverines to a top-five finish this year after winning the individual title in the 1650 freestyle. Last year, he took home a pair of individual crowns, while helping the program capture its first NCAA title since 1995. Jaeger is a member of the U.S. National Team and is a two-time Big Ten Swimmer of the Year. He is a 10-time All-American winning three individual national titles in his career. He also placed sixth at the 2012 London Olympics in the 1,500 freestyle.

Maple hails from Wichita, Kansas, and is a graduate student with a 3.42 G.P.A. earning his master's in adult and higher education. He is a three-time All-American and four-time NCAA qualifier, winning the individual title at 141 pounds in 2013. Maple was a three-time Big 12 Champion, as well as a two-time Academic All-Big 12 honoree. He also earned All-Academic nods three times from the National Wrestling Coaches of America.

A graduate student from San Francisco, California, Meinhardt has a 3.83 G.P.A. while pursuing his master's degree in business administration. He was ranked No. 1 in the world to start the season and went on to win the NCAA Men's Foil title. Graduating cum laude with an undergraduate degree in information technology management, he was named to the Dean's list three times while also earning two NCAA crowns and four All-America honors. He also helped the U.S. men's foil squad to a fourth-place finish at the London Olympics Games in 2012, his second-career Olympics appearance.

Boasting a near-perfect G.P.A., carrying a 3.98 G.P.A. while pursuing a master's of science in accounting, Nechunaev claimed a pair of school records in his final season at Grand Canyon, notching the fastest times in the 200 butterfly and 100 individual medley. He also posted the second-fastest time in Western Athletic Conference history in the 100 butterfly. The Tomsk, Russia, native is a six-time All-American and was part of the 400-medley team that claimed a Division II title last year. He was also the 2013 NCAA Division II Elite 89 Award winner.

A native of Kongsberg, Norway, Resaland has a 4.04 G.P.A. and is majoring in business administration. He finished third at the NCAA Championships in the Nordic freestyle, earning the third All-America honor of his career, while helping the Lobos to a third-place team finish this year.

A graduate student with a 3.54 G.P.A. in education administration, Taylor was named the Dan Hodge Trophy winner for the second time (2012, 2014), wrestling's Heisman Trophy. He finished the 2014 campaign unbeaten and with two NCAA individual titles, while helping the Nittany Lions to a fourth-consecutive NCAA team title. He is a four-time All-American and was named the Most Outstanding Wrestler at the national meet this season. A native of St. Paris, Ohio, wraps up his career undefeated in Big Ten play.

Hailing from Oberperfuss, Austria, Triendl is a senior with a 4.10 G.P.A. in finance. He bounced back from a knee injury that forced him to sit out the 2012-13 season to place second at the NCAA Championships in 2014 in the slalom. The second-place finish earned him first team All-America honors. He also helped the Lobos place third in at the nationals competition this season.

Whitsett has maintained a perfect 4.00 G.P.A. in his career in business. A native of Houston, Texas, he helped the Crimson Tide capture a second-straight NCAA title. An All-American, he won his match-play matchup in the finals to help Alabama claim its title, 4-1. After competing for a NCAA title, he also earned a U.S. Open berth after advancing through sectional qualifying. He also helped Alabama claim the SEC title in 2014 for a third-consecutive year.

Whitsett's teammate also had a stellar year, helping the Crimson Tide claim a second-straight NCAA men's golf crown and third-consecutive SEC title. He became the fourth Alabama player to claim the SEC individual title. A native of Mobile, Alabama, he also helped the Alabama squad a No. 1 national ranking this season and was named a Golfweek/PING Division I first team All-American.

The 15 members of the 2014 Capital One Academic All-America® Division I Men's At-Large first team have an average G.P.A. of 3.80.

Nine different sports are represented on the Capital One Academic All-America® Division I Women's At-Large first team, with swimming being the most represented with four. Three gymnasts also earned spots on the squad, and a pair of ice hockey and tennis players, as well. The other sports represented with one each are: bowling, field hockey, golf, lacrosse and skiing.
