STANFORD UNIVERSITY SWIMMER BROOKE FORDE, UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE SWIMMER NICK ALBIERO LEAD 2021 COSIDA ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® DIVISION I AT-LARGE TEAMS

AUSTIN, Texas – Stanford University senior swimmer and Olympic silver medalist Brooke Forde and University of Louisville senior swimmer Nick Albiero headline the 2020-21 Academic All-America® Division I At-Large Teams, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

A human biology major with a 3.96 grade-point average from Louisville, Kentucky, Forde was named the Academic All-America® Women's At-Large Team Member of the Year. She is the fourth Stanford University student-athlete to earn Academic All-America® At-Large Team Member of the Year honors joining Makenzie Fischer (2019, water polo), former teammate and 10-time Olympic medalist Katie Ledecky (2018) and Sandra Birch (1991, tennis).

The Academic All-America® Men's At-Large Team Member of the Year, Albiero is a health & human performance in exercise science major with a 3.95 GPA from Louisville, Kentucky. Both Albiero and Forde are two-time Academic All-America® first-team selections.

Forde won the first Olympic medal of her career at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics as part of the Team USA swimming relay pool. She anchored the United States to the second-fastest time in the 4x200m free relay prelims (7:47.57). A member of two NCAA championship teams, Forde is a four-time NCAA national champion including the 2021 400 individual medley title and 15-time NCAA All-American overall. She is a four-time Pac-12 champion and has been a member of three Pac-12 championship teams. Forde is a three-time CSCAA Scholar All-American and three-time Pac-12 All-Academic pick including the Pac-12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year. She was the 2018 Pac-12 Women's Swimming Newcomer of the Year.

Albiero became just the third Louisville men's swimmer to earn an NCAA individual championship in 2021 by winning the 200 butterfly and was a seven-time NCAA All-American overall. He was also part of four Cardinal relays at the NCAA championships including a 20.07 split on the butterfly leg of the 200 medley relay – the program's first-ever NCAA relay title this year. Albiero was named the ACC Swimmer of the Year after winning his fourth 200 butterfly championship and leading the Cardinals to the program's first-ever ACC swimming championship. He was an Olympic Trials finalist and member of the US National Team. Albiero was the ACC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and was a four-time All-ACC Academic Team selection.

Among the 92 student-athletes selected to the Academic All-America® Division I At-Large teams, 21 women and 21 men carry a 4.0 grade-point average. The 17 members of the women's at-large first team carry an average G.P.A. of 3.926, while the 15 members of the men's at-large team carry a 3.912 average G.P.A.

Ten men and nine women are repeat Academic All-America® selections, including four-time men's honoree lacrosse player Conor Gaffney of Lehigh University, second-team in 2020 and 2021, and third-team in 2018 and 2019. Three-time picks include first-team Phil Goss of Brown University (first, 2019, 2020, 2021), Brigham Young's Miki Jauhiainen (first, 2020, 2021, third 2019), North Carolina State's Eric Knowles (first 2020, 2021, third, 2019), and Jannik Opitz (first, 2020, 2021 / second 2019). Micah Oh of the U.S. Naval Academy and Albiero were first team in 2020 and 2021, Carl Söderlund of the University of Virginia was second team in 2020, while second-teamers Christian Daniel of the U.S. Naval Academy was third team in 2020, and Indiana University's Andrew Capobianco was third team in 2019.

Stanford's Forde, Louisville's Albiero Lead 2021 CoSIDA Academic All-America® Division I At-Large Teams

Other women's student-athletes to repeat as Academic All-America® honorees include: three-time honorees Emily Arbuthnott of Stanford University (first, 2019, 2020, 2021) and University of South Carolina's Lois Kaye Go (first, 2019, 2020, 2021). Two-time selections include first-teamers University of Michigan's Annika Hoffman (second, 2020), Pepperdine University's Ashley Lahey (first, 2020), University of Virginia's Paige Madden (third, 2020) and Forde, along with second-teamers Faith Anderson of James Madison University (second, 2020), Robin Neumann of the University of California (third, 2020) and Christina Rosca of Vanderbilt (first, 2020).
