

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® TEAM

SELECTED BY COLLEGE SPORTS COMMUNICATORS

For Release:

Wednesday, June 21 – 12 noon ET

FIVE TALENTED STUDENT-ATHLETES HIGHLIGHT 2022-23 ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® MEN'S AT-LARGE TEAMS

AUSTIN, Texas – Five standouts headline a group of outstanding student-athletes named to the 2022-23 Academic All-America® Men's At-Large teams as selected by College Sports Communicators (CSC).

Ford Clegg from Mississippi State University, Dylan Checketts of Colorado Mesa University, Tyler Shilson from Augsburg University, Korey Reichard of Concordia University Ann Arbor, and Chase Kaiser from Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College are the All-America® of the Year honorees for NCAA Division I, Division II, Division III, NAIA, and the College Division, respectively.

Division I

Clegg, a member of the Mississippi State golf team, is a graduate student from Birmingham, Alabama, who is now a three-time first team member of the Academic All-America® Men's At-Large team. He is working on his MBA after previously earning his bachelor's degree in finance in May 2022. He received summa cum laude honors and has maintained a cumulative 4.0 grade-point average throughout his entire academic career.

Clegg was recently the recipient of the Elite 90 award for the 2023 NCAA Division I Men's Golf Championship. He has been awarded the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year for three-straight years and made the SEC Academic Honor Roll five times.

On the course Clegg had the second-lowest stroke average (71.58) this season for the Bulldogs, helping them finish 25th at the NCAA Division I Golf Championships. He had the third-most rounds of par or better (20) while becoming the program leader in career rounds of par or better (80).

As a senior in 2021-22 he started all 11 tournaments and finished the season with a 72.22 stroke average. Clegg had seven top-20 finishes, including one individual title at the Steelwood Collegiate tournament.

Clegg was named to the 2021 PING All-Region Team and was a 2021 First Team All-SEC selection after leading the team with a 71.17 stroke average and five top-10 finishes. He ranked eighth in the SEC in stroke average.

Eight members of this year's Academic All-America® Division I at-large team are repeat performers from last year's team. In addition to Clegg as a three-time first team selection, Jared Franek of North Dakota State University and Jacob Thelle from the University of Hawai'i also repeated as first team selections. The University of Wyoming's Jacob Wright moved up from the second team to a spot on the first team, while first-team members Nathan Burke of Bowling Green State University and Peter Hillen of the U.S. Naval Academy were on the third team a year ago. Shane Griffith of Stanford University was named to the second team for the third straight year, with Sean Westley of St. Bonaventure University moving up to the second this year.

A total of 47 individuals were recognized, with the 11 members of the first team showing a 3.98 cumulative GPA. A total of 23 honorees had perfect 4.00 GPAs, including 11 on the first team.

Division II

Checketts was a standout in lacrosse at Colorado Mesa. A junior from Herriman, Utah, he is a business administration/economics major with a 4.00 GPA.

The Mavericks face-off specialist, Checketts had an especially decorated year, becoming CMU men's lacrosse's only two-time consensus All-American while also winning the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference Summit Award and RMAC Academic Player of the Year honors for the second consecutive season.

He was accorded USILA honorable mention All-American honors for the second straight year along with USILA All-South Region honors for the second year in a row and was also named a USA Lacrosse Magazine All-American for the second time, one of only three Mavericks in school history to earn the honor.

Checketts ranked fifth in Division II with a .660 winning percentage in faceoffs and sixth nationally with 229 total draws won. He led the RMAC in both categories. Checketts also set a career high with five goals and tied a career high with six points. He led Colorado Mesa to a 16-2 record with a perfect 6-0 mark in RMAC play and a win in the RMAC Tournament. The Mavericks then won the RMAC Tournament and finished the season on a nine-game winning streak.

Checketts was a first team All-RMAC selection in 2022 and was named the RMAC Freshman of the Year in 2021. He finished second in Division II in face-off winning percentage (.724) in 2022 while also leading the RMAC and ranking 15th nationally in ground balls (124).

Five student-athletes were repeat selections from the 2021-22 Academic All-America® Division II at-large team. Myles Moffat of Lenoir-Rhyne University repeated as a first team selection and is now a three-time Academic All-America® honoree, also earning third team honors in 2020-21. Gannon University's Joel Leise landed on the second team after being named to the first team last year, Cole Laya of West Liberty University is now a two-time second team selection, and Simen Strand of Saint Michael's College landed on the first team after being a third-team honoree last year.

The Division II at-large teams honored 47 student-athletes, with the 15 members of the first team compiling a 3.96 cumulative GPA. That included three with 4.0 GPA's among a total of six on the three teams.

The Division II Academic All-America® program is being financially supported by the NCAA Division II national governance structure to assist CSC with handling the awards fulfillment aspects for the 2022-23 Division II Academic All-America® program.

Division III

Shilson hails from Maple Grove, Minnesota, and was a standout on the Augsburg wrestling team. The senior maintains a 4.00 GPA as a finance major. He is a repeat selection on the Academic All-America® At-Large Team after earning second team honors a year ago.

Shilson earned the third All-America honor of his career in 2022-23, finishing second at 157 pounds at the 2023 NCAA Division III National Championships following a 6-5 loss in sudden victory in the finals. He went 29-5 in his senior season, with six pins, 13 technical falls and five major decisions, helping Augsburg to its 14th NCAA Division III national championship.

Shilson earned NWCA Division III All-America honors with a third-place finish at 157 lbs. in 2021 and finished third at 157 lbs. at the 2022 NCAA Division III National Championships.

A two-time NWCA Scholar All-American who competed at Wisconsin in 2017-18 and Tennessee-Chattanooga in 2019-20 before transferring to Augsburg, Shilson finished his three-season Augsburg career at 72-10, with 12 pins, 36 technical falls and 11 major decisions. In his full college career, Shilson was 100-34, with 17 pins, 44 technical falls and 17 major decisions.

Including Shilson, six student-athletes earned Academic All-America® Division III at-large team honors for the second straight year, including three first-team members. Ryan Gebhardt of MIT and Jarrett Anderson of Springfield College are now three-time honorees. Gebhardt has been named to the first team the last three years, while Anderson repeated as a first team selection and being named to the second team in 2020-21. Clarkson University's Evan Wetzel was also named to the first team for the second straight year. Zeke Smith of Loras was named to the second team after his selection to the first team in 2020-21 and the third team in 2021-22. Jordan Fader of UW-Stevens Point moved up from the third team to the second this year.

Of the 47 student-athletes on the Division III at-large teams, 21 finished with a 4.00 cumulative GPA. The 16 first team members had a cumulative 3.96 GPA.

The Division III Academic All-America® program is being financially supported by the NCAA Division III national governance structure to assist CSC with handling the awards fulfillment aspects for the 2022-23 Division III Academic All-America® program.

NAIA

Reichard is a senior and a sport & entertainment business major with a 3.89 GPA. The native of Jackson, Michigan, was a standout on the Concordia University Ann Arbor bowling team.

Reichard earned NAIA All-American honorable mention honors for the second time this past season following another strong campaign for the Cardinals. Over 69 games he averaged 205.35. He was named WHAC Player of the Week four times this season. Reichard became the program's first NAIA All-American in 2021 thanks to a 200.43 average over 74 games.

Throughout his four seasons, Reichard bowled in 236 games accumulating an average of 203.46. That is the second-highest average in the program's history. He ends his Cardinal career after earning Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference (WHAC) First Team honors in 2019-20 and a Second Team All-Conference honors in 2020-21 and 2022-23. He was named the WHAC Newcomer of the Year in 2020.

Clayton Boerigter of Aquinas College was the lone repeat performer from last year's Academic All-America® NAIA at-large team, once again earning a spot on the first team.

A total of 34 student-athletes were named to the NAIA team, with the 15 members of the first team owning a 3.86 cumulative GPA. A total of five individuals, three on the first team, had 4.00 GPA's.

The NAIA Academic All-America® program is being financially supported by the NAIA national governance structure to assist CSC with handling the awards fulfillment aspects for the 2022-23 NAIA Academic All-America® program.

College Division

Kaiser is a member of the golf team at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College. He is a senior with a 3.90 GPA as a civil engineering major.

The native of Natchez, Mississippi, recently signed a letter of intent to continue his academic and golf careers at the University of North Alabama after finishing tied for seventh at the NJCAA National Championships to earn a spot on the all-tournament team. He was tied for the individual lead entering the final 18 holes.

Kaiser tied the school record for wins in a season with five in 2022-23. He was named to the PING NJCAA All-America first team after previously being named to the All-MACCC and All-Gulf District teams earlier in the season. Kaiser ended the year with a 71.50 average over 32 rounds, taking over four strokes off his 75.80 scoring average in 2021-22.

The college division Academic All-America® At-Large Team featured a cumulative GPA of 3.91 for its 10 honorees. That included four team members with 4.00 GPAs.
