WEST END ZONE
The recently completed construction project has created a number of fan amenities to this area of the stadium. While the Georgia football team will enjoy a new locker room and recruiting lounge for prospective student-athletes, spectators will find new restrooms, concession stands and First Aid room. Additionally, stadium landmarks — the Olympic wall, Olympic torch and granite bulldog — will be prominently displayed in this remodeled location.

GATE 1
Directly under the new, larger scoreboard you will find Gate 1. Moved from its old position under the newly-renovated Gillis Bridge, UGA students will now enter their West Endzone seating sections directly from the bridge roadway.

DISABLED SEATING
The new plaza and seating sections in this location provided the opportunity to upgrade the disabled seating options in the West Endzone. The total capacity of available seats increased by more than 50 percent, with seats at both field level and the top of the sections.

SOUND SYSTEM
Behind the new Sanford Stadium logo atop the new videoboard is the new 260,000 watt Danley Sound Labs audio system. The system was designed, engineered, and installed by Technical Services Audio Visual, a global leader in technology systems and construction management. This system will feature improved speech intelligibility and low frequency response.

SILVERDAWGS
The SilverDawgs are a hospitality group made up of retired individuals that are dedicated to making the Georgia Football experience exceptional for everyone in attendance. The SilverDawgs will be tasked with being a smiling face and helping hand to those who visit our campus on game days. The goal of this group is to increase the overall mentality of customer service and hospitality so that the University of Georgia and Sanford Stadium meet no strangers. SilverDawgs will be located at gates 1-10 at Sanford Stadium, as well as hotels and other popular locations on campus and throughout Athens.

HAPPY OR NOT
The Athletic Association is looking for your feedback. Fans are encouraged to give feedback on the concessions stands and restrooms around the 100 level. A terminal with happy or sad face buttons will be available as you exit to record your experience. Let your voice be heard!

CONCESSIONS
Fans are reminded all points of sale accept MasterCard, Visa, Discover and Amex in addition to cash. Also, menu listings continue to be streamlined and all prices have been rounded off to the dollar in an effort to minimize time in line and help get you back to your seat to cheer on the Bulldogs!

The West End renovation will be completed in time for the 2018 season and will include several new amenities designed to improve the fan experience. Two (2) new full-service stands on field level will add a total of 18 points of sale and will allow us to again offer items like fountain drinks, hot dogs, popcorn, pretzels, nachos and a few other items that were not available during last year’s renovation. In addition to the two (2) new full-service stands, we will bring back the popular “Grab-n-Go” tents that were in operation last year. These “Grab-n-Go” concessions areas will offer quick serve items like bottle drinks, Chick-fil-A sandwiches, Papa John’s Pizza and an assortment of packaged snacks including peanuts, candy and frozen lemonade.

Also as part of the West End renovation, we will be adding a portable concessions location as part of the new Sanford Drive Bridge Plaza located below the videoboard.

On the Gate 7 Plaza, we will continue to operate the “Grab-n-Go” tent that has been very popular and well received by our fans over the last two seasons.

In the Gate 6 Plaza, the “food court” area will continue to include popular partners Chick-fil-A, Dreamland BBQ and Papa John’s, in addition to fan favorite novelty items like frozen lemonade, Dippin’ Dots and Loop n’ Kernel at portable locations.

On the 100 level south side, we’ve converted the full-service stand near Sections 127-128 to a “Grab-n-Go” stand. This concept has worked well in the West End and Gate 7 concessions areas and our hope is it will shorten time in lines and improve the fan experience in this area like it has others. Fans will be able to serve themselves by grabbing what they want and proceeding to the first available register to check out.

A complete listing of all concessions updates will be announced closer to the season opener vs. Austin Peay.

MAMAVA NURSING SUITES
Another new addition to enhance the fan experience at Sanford Stadium are two portable, private nursing suites. The stand alone, prefabricated Mamava suites offer a clean, comfortable lactation space to either pump or breastfeed. The suite offers a mechanical SmartLock that syncs via Bluetooth with Mamava’s mobile app and contains seating and power for guests. One suite will be located near Gate 2 and the other will be located outside Section 222.

STADIUM GRAPHICS
Paying homage to the rich tradition of Georgia Bulldog football, the Sanford Stadium 100 level concourse will come alive this fall — reconnecting the Bulldog Nation with the greatest eras, players, and moments of the program’s history. Memorable battle cries, Larry Munson game-calls and Bulldog All-Americans are just some of the images our guests will be able to re-live or experience for the first time. These graphics encompassing the 100 level concourse from concession and bathroom locations to Reed Plaza will be a Bulldog point of pride.

Winners at Notre Dame. Southeastern Conference champions. Rose Bowl champions. Individual national and SEC awards. A berth in the College Football Playoff National Championship ... and literally one play away from the title.

That is the Reader’s Digest version of the 2017 Georgia Bulldogs, who accomplished all of that and more. And the spoils for such a memorable run? Within days of the title game, the coaches put the finishing touches on the nation’s top recruiting class, and the players were back at work in the meeting rooms, the weight room and on the field, fueled by a desire to prove that 2017 was not happenstance, but rather the start of something special.

“I think everybody can see Georgia is a force to be reckoned with,” coach Kirby Smart said at season’s end. “We’re not going anywhere ... With hard work, good recruiting, good coaches and good players, you give yourself a chance at success.”

These preseason drills will be as important as any the Bulldogs will have. As always, there are players to replace and holes to fill. Nick Chubb and Sony Michel completed their careers as two of the most successful tailbacks in both UGA and SEC history as they ran behind a line bolstered by All-America left tackle Isaiah Wynn. Linebackers Roquan Smith, Davin Bellamy and Lorenzo Carter, defensive backs Dominick Sanders and Aaron Davis, and lineman Trenton Thompson paced a unit that ranked sixth nationally in both total defense and scoring defense.

But college football is a transitory sport and the coaches concern themselves only with the ones remaining in the fold. The 2018 offense figures to be spearheaded by Jake Fromm, D’Andre Swift, Terry Godwin, Isaac Nauta, among others, and an experienced offensive line. Defensively, veterans Jonathan Ledbetter, Tyler Clark, J.R. Reed and Deandre Baker will be the nucleus, with several younger players seemingly poised to make the necessary rise.

“The standard was set by the (2017) seniors,” Smart said. “If we have that kind of leadership, the sky’s the limit. I just hope the younger class doesn’t take it for granted that it just happens.”

QUARTERBACKS

Jake Fromm was pressed into duty after an injury to Jacob Eason during the first game and went on to put together a memorable season. After going 181-of-291 for 2,615 yards and 24 touchdowns and successfully managing the Bulldogs’ offense, Fromm was chosen as a Freshman All-American and as the SEC’s Freshman of the Year.

Justin Fields, one of the nation’s most highly rated dual-threat quarterbacks, enrolled early to go through spring drills. Fields garnered five-star status from all recruiting services after rolling up more than 6,200 total yards and 70 touchdowns in two years as a prep starter. His performance at the annual G-Day intrasquad game last spring — 18-of-33 for 207 yards and a TD — hinted of his capability to guide an offense on the collegiate level. Walk-on John Seter will also compete for playing time in fall camp.

RUNNING BACKS

Nick Chubb and Sony Michel finished their illustrious careers ranked Nos. 2 and 3 on Georgia’s all-time rushing list. A year ago, they combined for more than 2,500 yards and 31 touchdowns. Fortunately, the Bulldogs used a rotation at tailback last season, meaning there are experienced players ready to fill the void left by Chubb and Michel.

D’Andre Swift followed the seniors with 618 yards and three touchdowns with a healthy 7.6-yards-per-carry average to earn Freshman All-SEC honors. Elijah Holyfield and Brian Herrien added 293 and 265 yards, respectively, and a combined three touchdowns.

Zamir White, the nation’s No. 1-rated prep prospect at tailback, rushed for 7,169 yards in his high school...
OUTLOOK FOR 2018
GEORGIA BULLDOGS

Career before enrolling at UGA in January. Those numbers include 2,086 yards and 34 touchdowns in a senior season cut short by a knee injury, which sidelined him during spring drills. Fellow freshman James Cook will join the competition this fall.

The Bulldogs also return special teams ace Prather Hudson, Lofton Tidwell and Ian Donald-McIntyre. The top fullback candidates are Nick Moore and Christian Dufrene.

WIDE RECEIVERS
Despite the loss of leading receiver Javon Wims, the Bulldogs return a wealth of talent and experience. Terry Godwin, whose highlight-reel touchdown catch at Notre Dame helped ignite Georgia’s season, hauled in 38 balls for 639 yards and six scores a year ago. Mecole Hardman made the transition from defensive back and became a reliable receiver with 25 grabs for 418 yards and four touchdowns. Riley Ridley was quiet much of the season but had a strong final game to lift him to 14 catches for 218 yards and two scores.

The Bulldogs return additional veterans in Jayson Stanley, Jeremiah Holloman, Tyler Simmons, Ahkil Crumpton and Trey Blount, all of whom have seen action on both offense and special teams. Kearis Jackson, who had more than 1,500 yards and 18 touchdowns receiving his last two years of high school, enrolled early to go through spring workouts.

Georgia also has Matt Landers, Tommy Bush, Josh Moran, Willie Erdman, Steven Van Tifflin, Patrick Burke, Ed Ferguson, J.T. Dooley, Wyatt Payne, Reid Tulowitzky and Patrick Bond at the position.

TIGHT ENDS
The Bulldogs said goodbye to stalwart Jeb Blazevich, but the position remains both deep and seasoned. Isaac Nauta and Charlie Woerner each had nine receptions last year, the former for 114 yards and two touchdowns and the latter for 100 yards. Jackson Harris added a pair of receptions last year as well. Freshmen John FitzPatrick and Luke Ford will join the rotation, while Wix Patton and Mitchell Werntz will provide more depth.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN
There is a void left behind by the departure of All-American and first-round draft pick Isaiah Wynn, but there are plenty of options for an offensive line that paved the way for 258 yards rushing, 177 yards passing and 35 points per game a season ago.

Lamont Gaillard returns as the line’s anchor at center. Andrew Thomas earned Freshman All-America and All-SEC accolades as a 15-game starter at tackle. By season’s end, Ben Cleveland and Kendall Baker were the starters at guard, with Solomon Kindley additionally boasting starting experience.

Georgia also returns Justin Shaffer, Sean Fogarty and Daniel Gothard with experience on the field and in the system. Isaiah Wilson, D’Marcus Hayes and Netori Johnson all redshirted last season and will be in the mix this fall. Highly touted prospects Warren Erisson, Trey Hill and Cade Mays enrolled early to be a part of spring camp. Fellow freshmen Owen Condon and Jamaree Salyer will also join the competition for playing time this fall.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN
Even with the early departure of Trenton Thompson to the NFL, the Bulldogs have veterans up front. At tackle, Tyler Clark was a late-season standout who finished with 41 stops, including six for loss and 2.5 sacks. Jonathan Ledbetter had 38 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss, from his end position a year ago, while end David Marshall recorded 26 with 2.5 behind the line. Tackle Julian Rochester had 22 stops, with 2.5 for loss, a year ago.

Georgia also returns seasoned linemen in DaQuan Hawkins-Muckle, Malik Herring, Michail Carter, Justin Young and Michael Barnett. Other candidates for playing time include DeVonte Wyatt, who spent last season at Hutchinson Community College and went through spring drills, Antonio Poole, signee Jordan Davis and Jay Hayes, a 13-game starter at tackle for Notre Dame last season who will join the Bulldogs as a graduate transfer.

Koby Pyrz and Kolby Wyatt provide additional depth for Georgia.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Lorenzo Carter and Davin Bellamy left huge shoes to fill, and D’Andre Walker and Walter Grant will lead the candidates attempting to do so. Walker was not a starter a year ago, yet still accounted for 40 tackles, including 13.5 for loss and 5.5 sacks. Grant had nine tackles, but 2.5 of those were behind the line of scrimmage. Keyon Richardson and Jaden Hunter lend a veteran presence as well. Robert Beal showed improvement during his redshirt campaign. Brenton Cox, a five-star prospect who as a senior had 42 tackles (with 9.5 for loss and five sacks), enrolled early to participate in spring practice. Fellow freshmen Adam Anderson and Azeez Ojulari will arrive for preseason workouts.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Roquan Smith had one of the most significant seasons for a Bulldog a year ago when he won the Butkus Award, earned consensus All-America honors and led Georgia with 137 tackles before heading to the NFL. His departure has created an opportunity for other Bulldogs to step up. Natrez Patrick followed Smith with 35 tackles last season. Juwan Taylor, Monty Rice, Tae Crowder and Nate McBride logged most of their snaps on special teams but still combined for 49 stops. Freshmen Channing Tindall and Quay Walker will also throw their hats in the ring this fall.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Bulldogs return lots of depth in the secondary, which will offset the departure of three longtime starters. J.R. Reed and Deandre Baker are Georgia’s leading returners on tackles and interceptions, respectively. Reed picked up 79 tackles while intercepting two passes, while Baker notched three picks to go along with 44 tackles. Tyrique McGhee added 25 stops and an interception a year ago.

The Bulldogs also return Richard LeCounte, Jarvis Wilson, Ameer Speed, Deangelo Gibbs, William Poole and converted receiver Mark Webb in the secondary. Tray Bishop, Latavious Brini and Eric Stokes are coming off redshirt campaigns. Freshman Divaad Wilson enrolled early, only to miss spring drills with an injury. He will be joined by fellow freshmen Tyson Campbell, Otis Reese and Christopher Smith in fall camp.

Georgia has additional options with Jordan McKinney, KJ Smith, Jake Skole, Isaac Mize, Hugh Nelson and Cameron Moore.

SPECIALISTS

Rodrigo Blankenship became a real weapon for the Bulldogs in 2017. He connected on 20-of-23 field-goal attempts, including two that covered more than 50 yards during the postseason, and scored 123 total points. He also boomed 67 of his 94 kickoffs for touchbacks to set the school record. Brooks Buce proved himself worthy of consideration during spring drills.

Marshall Long redshirted last season and will look to regain the form he had in 2016 when he averaged 38.7 yards per punt before being sidelined with an injury. Bill Rubright is another spring option at punter. Landon Stratton, a three-year starter for Murray State, will join the specialists as a graduate transfer and could contend for the No. 1 job this fall. Highly-rated freshman Jake Camarda could also emerge as a candidate at punter. Fullback Nick Moore is likely the leading candidate at snapper.

In 2017, Hardman established himself as Georgia’s top returner, ranking among national leaders in both punt and kickoff returns.

When Georgia searched for the new head football coach after the 2015 season, all arrows pointed towards longtime University of Alabama defensive coordinator and former Bulldog captain and assistant coach Kirby Smart. Just two years into his tenure in Athens, Smart has not disappointed.

In 2017, his impact — along with that of a stellar group of seniors — made his second season a special one, proven by a level of success that included an 11-1 regular-season record, a 2017 Southeastern Conference championship, the defeat of Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl (College Football Playoff semifinal) and the program’s first appearance in the College Football Playoff National Championship game.

In the SEC championship contest, the Bulldogs avenged their only regular season loss with a 28-7 victory against Auburn. It was the first conference title since 2005 for the program. With the win, Smart became the youngest coach to win a title in an SEC championship game. The accomplishments bred recognition, as the Bulldog head coach was named 2017 George Munger National Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club, SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and SEC Coaches and the Regional Coach of the Year by the AFCA.

In Smart’s first season at the helm, Georgia extended its school record to 20 straight bowl appearances and posted four fourth-quarter comebacks, including wins over No. 8 Auburn and No. 22 North Carolina. He led the Bulldogs to an 8-5 final record, which included a victory over TCU in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Smart has also made an immediate impact in recruiting circles, posting the nation’s third-ranked class in 2017, followed by a 2018 class of signees that ranked first nationally by every ranking outlet. In addition to his coaching duties, Smart oversees the Kirby Smart Family Foundation, which is focused on being champions in the community by supporting and giving back to needy children and families facing adversity.

Smart officially came home to Georgia on Dec. 6, 2015. But he had unfinished business at Alabama, which was still chasing a national title. He juggled two jobs for a month until Jan. 11, 2016, when the Crimson Tide won its fourth national championship in a 7-year span. Twelve hours later, he was at work in Athens, where he remains one of nine head coaches at schools from Power 5 conferences that are coaching at their alma mater.

Smart had served on the Alabama staff the previous nine years, the last seven of those as defensive coordinator. During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won three BCS National Championships, one College Football Playoff national title, three SEC crowns, six SEC Western Division titles, and was ranked in the nation’s final top 10 rankings the final eight years in a row. A former standout defensive back and scholar-athlete at Georgia, Smart was one of the nation’s most respected defensive coordinators. During his time at Alabama, he coached players at three different positions, in addition to his coordinating duties. He was recognized as the 2012 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year and the 2009 Broyles Award winner as college football’s top assistant coach. He was also a finalist for the 2015 Broyles Award.

The 2015 Alabama defense ranked first nationally in rushing defense, third in total defense, and third in scoring defense. His 2014 Alabama defense ranked fourth nationally against the run. The Crimson Tide ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense, while ranking 12th nationally in total defense. He helped junior safety Landon Collins earn unanimous first-team All-American honors while being selected as a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy, Thorpe Award and Lott Trophy.

Smart crafted another elite Alabama defense in 2013 after losing six more players to the NFL. The Crimson Tide ranked fourth nationally in scoring defense while ranking fifth in total defense, seventh in rushing defense and 11th in pass defense. Alabama was fourth nationally in red zone defense and fourth in fewest first downs allowed. He helped mold C.J.
HEAD COACH KIRBY SMART
THIRD SEASON

KIRBY SMART was a four-year letterman as a defensive back during his days as a Georgia player. He was a First-Team All-SEC selection as a senior.

Mosley into the nation’s best linebacker and winner of the Butkus Award.

Smart retooled the Alabama defense in 2012, molding a unit that lost six starters to the NFL after the 2011 season. The Tide led the nation in total defense, scoring defense and rush defense while ranking seventh in pass defense and pass efficiency defense. The Tide defense featured two first-team All-Americans in cornerback Dee Milliner and linebacker Mosley.

Smart’s rebuilding job in 2010 was impressive, as the Tide remained one of the nation’s elite defensive units while replacing nine starters. Alabama led the SEC and ranked third nationally in scoring defense and fifth in total defense. In the 2010 BCS National Championship game against Texas, the Tide recorded four interceptions and scored a defensive touchdown. Three players on Smart’s defense earned first-team All-American honors — linebacker Rolando McClain, cornerback Javier Arenas and nose guard Terrence Cody.

The 2009 season was a special one for Smart, as he not only helped lead Alabama to the national championship but also took home the Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country. The UA defense again was regarded as one of the nation’s top units, leading the SEC and ranking second nationally in scoring defense, pass efficiency defense, rush defense and total defense.

Prior to joining the Alabama staff in 2007, Smart spent the 2006 season as safeties coach with the NFL’s Miami Dolphins. He served six years on the collegiate level as the running backs coach at Georgia (2005), defensive backs coach at LSU (2004), graduate assistant at Florida State (2002-03), defensive coordinator/linebackers coach (2001) and defensive backs coach (2000) at Valdosta State, and administrative assistant at UGA (1999).

Smart was the running backs coach on Georgia’s 2005 SEC Championship team. His unit averaged 162.2 rushing yards per game, third in the SEC. He coached Thomas Brown, Danny Ware, and Kregg Lumpkin — all future NFL players. In 2004 at LSU, he tutored two NFL draft picks: Corey Webster (2nd round, N.Y. Giants) and Travis Daniels (4th round, Miami).

As a player, Smart was a four-year letterman at defensive back for Georgia, where he was a first-team All-SEC pick as a senior. He finished his career with 13 interceptions, a mark that still ranks fifth in UGA annals, and led the Bulldogs with six interceptions in 1997 and five in 1998. He led the SEC in interceptions during his final season. Smart also scored two points as a collegian. He was the first player in UGA history — and one of just two Bulldogs since the rule was introduced in 1988 — to return a blocked PAT kick for two points, having brought one back 88 yards against New Mexico State in his freshman year of 1995.

A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart received his BBA degree in Finance from UGA in 1998 and his M.S. in Physical Education from Florida State in 2003. The Bainbridge, Georgia, native is married to the former Mary Beth Lycett of McDonough, Georgia, a four-year letterwinner, and two-year starter, on the Georgia women’s basketball team from 2000-03. The couple met long after their undergraduate days at UGA, when Lycett — then working in the UGAAA business office — helped arrange Smart’s trip to interview for the Bulldogs’ running backs coaching job in 2005. They are now the proud parents of twins Weston and Julia (Feb. 8, 2008) and son Andrew (May 25, 2012).

SIX BULLDOGS GO IN 2018 NFL DRAFT

Senior wide receiver Javon Wims heard his name called on the last day to bring a total of six Georgia Bulldogs drafted in the annual player draft to cap off a wildly successful 2018 NFL Draft for the Bulldogs.

The Chicago Bears selected Wims with the 224th overall pick and sixth pick of the seventh round.

Georgia made program history with three first round picks. In addition, the two picks on day two tied a school record for the most in the first three rounds. Georgia’s streak of having one player drafted each year extended to 26 years; a total of 321 Georgia players have been taken all-time in the NFL Draft.

The Bulldogs have had 35 players selected all-time in the first round since Frank Sinkwich was chosen by the Detroit Lions with the first pick of the 1943 draft.

Roquan Smith was selected by the Chicago Bears with the eighth overall pick — Smith becomes the highest drafted Bulldog since All-Pro receiver A.J. Green was selected fourth by the Cincinnati Bengals in 2011.

Senior offensive lineman Isaiah Wynn was picked by the New England Patriots with the 23rd overall pick; senior running back Sony Michel was also selected by the Patriots with the 31st overall pick.

Senior running back Nick Chubb was selected by the Cleveland Browns with the 35th overall pick. In the third round, the New York Giants selected senior outside linebacker Lorenzo Carter with the 66th overall pick.

SEC DIVISIONAL TIE-BREAKER
In the event of a tie for the division championship, the following procedures will be used to break all ties to determine the SEC Football Championship Game representative.

1. TWO-TEAM TIE
(If two teams are tied for a division title, the following procedures will be used in order.)
A. Head-to-head competition between the two tied teams;
B. Records of the tied teams within the division;
C. Head-to-head competition against the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference record, and proceeding through the division (multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last and a tie for first place will be broken before a tie for fourth place);
D. Overall Conference record against non-divisional teams;
E. Combined record against all common non-divisional teams;
F. Record against the common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference record (divisional or non-divisional) and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division;
G. Best cumulative Conference winning percentage of non-divisional opponents;
H. Coin flip of the tied teams.

2. THREE-TEAM [OR MORE] TIE
(If three teams or more are tied for a division title, the following procedures will be used in order. If one of the procedures results in one team being eliminated and two remaining, the two-team tiebreaker as stated above will be used.)
A. Combined head to head record among the tied teams;
B. Record of the tied teams within the division;
C. Head to head competition against the team within the division with the best overall Conference record (divisional and non-divisional) and proceeding through the division (multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last and a tie for first place will be broken before a tie for fourth place);
D. Overall Conference record against non-divisional teams;
E. Combined record against all common non-divisional teams;
F. Record against the common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference record (divisional and non-divisional) and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division; and
G. Best cumulative Conference winning percentage of non-divisional opponents (Note: If two teams’ non-divisional opponents have the same cumulative record, then the two-team tiebreaker procedures apply. If four teams are tied, and three teams’ non-divisional opponents have the same cumulative record, the three-team tiebreaker procedures will be used beginning with 2.A.);
H. Coin flip of the tied teams with the team with the odd result being the representative (Example: If there are two teams with tails and one team with heads, the team with heads is the representative).

In an effort to provide season ticket holders a flexible priority request period for postseason planning, the University of Georgia Athletic Association will continue the practice of offering an early request opportunity for SEC Championship and Bowl Game tickets.

Once the Bulldogs become bowl eligible for the postseason, season ticket holders will be notified via email about the ticket request process for the SEC Championship and Bowl Games. All season ticket holders should confirm that their current email address is registered to their ticket account. Postseason request instructions, ticket applications, and in some cases the actual game tickets, will be distributed via email.

Please pay special attention to postings on www.georgiadogs.com and email announcements beginning late October for postseason ticket updates.

Season ticket holders may request postseason tickets at www.georgiadogs.com, where requests will be filled on priority according to availability before the potential general public sale begins.

1021 DOWDY ROAD • ATHENS, GA
With a $25 million expansion completed in 2003 and another $8 million in 2004, Sanford Stadium added a second upper deck on the north side and 27 new north side SkySuites bringing the new stadium capacity to 92,746 — the ninth largest on-campus stadium in the country.

Named for the late Dr. S. V. Sanford, former president of the University and Chancellor of the University system, Georgia’s Sanford Stadium celebrated its 75th anniversary in 2004. An overflow crowd of 30,000 saw the stadium’s first game on Oct. 12, 1929, when Yale University made its only trip South. Georgia won the now famous game when a young sophomore end from Macon, Vernon “Catfish” Smith, scored all 15 of the Bulldogs’ points. Final score, Georgia 15, Yale 0.

Through the years, the stadium has experienced various expansion projects. In 1940, lights were added to the field level paving the way to the first Sanford Stadium night game, a 7-7 tie between Georgia and Kentucky on Oct. 26, 1940.

Eventually, the East end of the stadium was enclosed, more lights added, and the capacity increased to 82,122. The 1991 project cost the University Athletic Association $3.7 million and enclosed the West end. The price tag was rather hefty, considering that the original price to build the stadium was a mere $360,000.

Legendary Sanford Stadium added yet another chapter to its history by hosting the medal round of the 1996 Olympic men’s and women’s soccer competition, watched via television by more than 3 billion people around the world.
DR. STEADMAN V. SANFORD

Born Aug. 20, 1871, Dr. Steadman Vincent Sanford joined the Georgia faculty in 1903 and instantly became one of the University’s most popular people.

He founded the Henry W. Grady School of Journalism in 1921, served as University Dean from 1927-32, and held the post of University president and chancellor until 1935 when he was named chancellor of the entire University System of Georgia.

He also held the position of faculty chairman of athletics while on the UGA faculty. He was the force behind the construction of Sanford Stadium in 1929 and was termed many times as “the best friend of athletics.”

He was largely responsible for persuading the Bulldogs of Yale to make their first trip south of the Mason-Dixon line to play the dedication game of Sanford Stadium in 1929. He died Sept. 15, 1945.

Established in 2015, the Magill Society recognizes those that make commitments of $25,000 and above, separate from their Hartman Fund donations, to the University of Georgia Athletics Association. In recognition of their generous support, members of the Magill Society gain access to exclusive stewardship opportunities.

Commitments to the Magill Society will be used to fund new athletic facility construction, as well as existing facility enhancement/renovation. Through their generosity and support, Magill Society members will help advance Georgia athletic facilities exponentially.

The Magill Society is named in honor of legendary tennis coach and sports information director Dan Magill. One of the most recognized names in the history of Georgia Athletics, Dan Magill is considered by many “the greatest Bulldog of all-time.”

No one likes to sit in traffic, but when more than 100,000 people descend upon the smallest county in Georgia on a Saturday, crowded roadways are inevitable. To ease the congestion, extra police and gameday staff work before and after games to assist the flow of traffic.

PREGAME TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT

On gameday, some roads surrounding Athens — most notably SR 316 — become overcrowded because of the large number of vehicles headed to the game from the Atlanta-area. We want to remind you that there are many other ways to enter Athens, including US 129, US 29, US 441, SR 15 and US 78. While these routes may seem a few miles out of your way, they may save you significant time and less traffic congestion.

Once in Athens, we recommend you head toward East Campus, unless you have passes for other lots. The highest concentration of public parking on gameday is available on East Campus, surrounding the Ramsey Center off College Station Road. In addition, there are more than 1,500 overflow spaces at the intramural fields to help accommodate cars and make the postgame exit as simple and expedient as possible.

GAMEDAY PARKING

Public access parking lots open at 7 a.m. on gameday. There are shuttles available in the East Campus District (Ramsey Center and Intramural Fields) to transport you to and from the stadium. If you need to park on the intramural fields, we ask that you be extra conscientious about not leaving any litter, glass or sharp objects on the ground.

All public access parking on campus is first come, first served, which means no saving places for friends coming later. When parking on campus, we ask fans to follow two simple guidelines:

- Do not park on sidewalks, grass or landscaped areas unless directed by UGA personnel.
- One vehicle, one space — this will allow for the maximum number of cars in a lot and will facilitate free flow of traffic through the lot.

NOTE: For safety reasons and to free parking spaces for fans, golf carts and ATVs are not allowed on campus on gameday.

For information on gameday, please call our helpline at 706-425-3052.

COMPLIMENTARY SHUTTLE SERVICE

Complimentary shuttle from Ramsey Center/Rec Sports Complex to Gate 6 before and after games is available. UGA Campus Transit will again offer free shuttle service to fans on gameday from the East Campus Parking Deck/Ramsey Center bus area. If overflow parking is needed at the Intramural Fields, then shuttles also will pick up fans at the Intramural Fields parking area off College Station Road. Due to postgame traffic patterns, shuttles returning to the intramural fields after the game will unload at the intersection of East Campus Road and College Station Road.

Shuttles will run continuously for five and a half hours before the scheduled game time and will drop fans off at Gate 6 of Sanford Stadium until 15 minutes after kickoff. Keep in mind that the gates to Sanford Stadium do not open until two hours prior to the scheduled game time. Return service will run continuously for two hours after the game ends.

POSTGAME TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT

When planning your departure, keep in mind that vehicles that arrived on campus over the course of several hours will be trying to leave in a much shorter time. The large influx of vehicles on the roadway can quickly lead to traffic gridlock.

To alleviate this, the University of Georgia Police Department, the Athens-Clarke County Police Department and other local law enforcement agencies have produced a traffic plan that is implemented on gameday. The plan allows a large number of vehicles to move as efficiently as possible.

Please work with officers directing traffic to ensure that this plan runs smoothly.

Once the game ends, staff will direct cars to the Georgia 10 Loop, which circles Athens and provides the easiest access to all routes out of town. Staff may send you in a direction you are not used to going, but please don’t turn around in the median. Remember, the Loop is a circle. Instead, follow the signs, and you will eventually get to your desired destination — probably faster than you think. When in doubt, stay patient, find the Loop and drive safely — we want to see you at the next home game!

Saturdays in Athens are an exciting time. More than 100,000 fans pour into Athens on gamedays, and it takes each of us doing our part to make the day successful.

To preserve the unique settings that make gamedays in Athens one of a kind, the University and the Athletic Association ask that fans adhere to the following guidelines to better preserve our campus and make gamedays a great day for everyone.

It is our hope that everyone will continue to enjoy an incredible gameday experience and a safe, family-friendly environment.

Your first stop as you plan for gamedays should be www.gameday.uga.edu. This site includes parking maps and all the details you need to plan for another exciting season of Georgia football. On these pages, you will find some key information to make your gameday safe and enjoyable.

SET UP AFTER 7 A.M.

The campus is a “neighborhood” for UGA students. No one wants to wake up at the crack of dawn on a Saturday to a party at his or her front door. For this reason, fans are allowed to arrive early on campus and park in legal spaces in advance of games as long as they do not begin creating noise or setting up tailgate equipment prior to 7 a.m. Gameday begins no earlier than 7 a.m. Saturday morning. Prior to that, a quiet environment must be preserved for students who call campus home.

GAMEDAY GAMEPLAN GOALS

- Enhancing the gameday experience
- Making sure gamedays are safe for everyone
- Preserving the beauty of the University of Georgia campus
PARK IN AN APPROVED SPACE

We’ve all seen it — one car, surrounded by a grill, seven chairs and three coolers, filling four parking spaces while you drive in circles. This type of parking forces others farther away from the stadium. Additional parking hazards are created when cars are parked on sidewalks or landscaped areas, pushing fans into the street and creating safety issues and traffic jams.

Rest assured, there are enough spaces for everyone on campus for gameday. All public access parking on campus is first come, first served, which means no saving places for friends.

Please visit www.gameday.uga.edu for campus parking maps.

BRING TRASH BAGS

Following games, students and local residents are left to face the aftermath of the previous day’s festivities. On an average gameday, more than 39 tons of garbage are collected from the campus. That number can swell to more than 100 tons after a night game! Many fans leave town after the game unaware of the effort involved in restoring the campus and community to its picturesque state.

To help control this, there are hundreds of trash receptacles placed in heavy-traffic areas around the campus. We ask that you please bag your trash and either take it with you or leave it at your tailgating area. The UGA clean-up crew will gladly remove it for you. Placing trash in bags makes the postgame cleanup faster and more effective.

DON’T FORGET A POWER SOURCE

Pregame festivities have become increasingly high-tech in recent years. Televisions, satellite dishes and sound systems are now common sights in the midst of parked cars, lounge chairs and grills.

Fans who want to watch television or use any other entertainment devices must provide their own power and video sources.
ENJOY THE GAME DAY ATMOSPHERE

A UGA football Saturday should be safe and fun, even for fans who never set foot in Sanford Stadium. Portable toilets are placed all around campus, alleviating long lines and making the day more comfortable for all.

In addition, permanent restrooms are available at multiple buildings on campus — Tate Center, Student Learning Center, Georgia Center and East Village Commons. We have also added a designated area for corporate tailgates, allowing more space in traditional areas for regular fans.

Rest assured, legal and responsible consumption of alcohol will not be affected by these regulations, so be smart and enjoy the day.

NOTE: For safety reasons, certain items are not allowed on campus during gamedays, including:

- Propane tanks or cylinder containing compressed gas are not allowed for any purpose (turkey fryers, low country boils, grills, or portable heaters). This regulation does not apply to grills using disposable propane canisters of 17 ounces or less.
- Grills inside of or on top of parking decks
- Golf carts and ATVs

Additional restrictions for North Campus are in place to reduce physical damage to grounds and mitigate behavioral concerns. North Campus is defined as the area bounded by Broad Street, Lumpkin Street, Baldwin Street and Jackson Street (including, but not limited to, the quadrangle between Broad Street and Old College, the quadrangle between Old College and the Main Library, and Herty Field).

- Tailgating on North Campus is allowed beginning five (5) hours before kickoff.
- Tables cannot exceed six feet.
- Tents are allowed.

The following items are not allowed on North Campus on gamedays:

- Kegs
- Generators
- Televisions
- Amplified music
- Grills or cookers of any type
- Household furniture (foldings chairs not included)

GRAB A SNACK OR MEAL ON CAMPUS

Don’t feel like preparing a meal on gameday? Whether it is just a snack or a full meal, a host of dining options, convenient to parking areas, are available to fans on campus. UGA Foodservices serves hearty fare at multiple locations on gameday, including East Village Commons, the Georgia Center for Continuing Education, Snelling Dining Commons, Oglethrope Dining Commons, Bolton Dining Hall and the Tate Student Center.

For more information on gameday tailgating, parking, dining and transportation, please visit www.gameday.uga.edu.

In the last 100 years of intercollegiate football, Georgia’s Uga has established himself as the nation’s most well-known mascot. The line of pure white English bulldogs, which epitomizes everything Georgia, has been owned by the Frank W. “Sonny” Seiler family of Savannah, Georgia, since Uga I first graced the campus in 1956. Through the years, Uga has been defined by his spiked collar, a symbol of the position in which he holds. He was given his name, an abbreviation for the university, by William Young of Columbus, a law school classmate of Seiler. Each of the Uga mascots is awarded a varsity letter in the form of a plaque, identical to those presented to all Bulldog athletes who letter in their respective sports.

As determined and published by the Pittsburgh Press, the University of Georgia is the only major college that actually buries its mascots within the confines of the stadium. Ugas I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII and VIII are buried in marble vaults near the main gate in the embankment of the South stands. Epitaphs to the dogs are inscribed in bronze, and before each home game, flowers are placed on their graves. The memorial plot attracts hundreds of fans and visitors each year. For the past 20 years, Uga’s jerseys have been custom-made at the beginning of each season from the same material used for the players’ jerseys. Old jerseys are destroyed.

Uga’s on-field home is a permanent air conditioned doghouse located next to the cheerleader’s platform, providing comfort in the heat of August and September. The custom-made doghouse is a gift from the Bahamian Bulldog Club of Nassau, Bahamas, through the courtesy of Fred Hazlewood.

UGA I [1956–55]

Record: 53-48-6

The Uga line of solid white English bulldogs began with Uga I, Hood’s Ole Dan, born Dec. 2, 1955, in Columbus, Georgia. Uga I was given to Cecelia Seiler by friend, Frank Heard, and appeared in his first game during the 1956 home opener. As recalled by Sonny Seiler, “... his original red jerseys were made by Cecelia ... There is no telling how many of these jerseys he wore out.”

UGA II [1966–72]

Record: 42-16-3

Uga I was succeeded by his son, Ole Dan’s Uga at a 1966 pregame Homecoming ceremony. With the Redcoat Band lining the field, Uga II was led to its center by Charles Seiler. The student body erupted in a cheer, “Damn Good Dog!” Uga II had an impressive reign as Georgia participated in five bowl games and won two SEC championships.

UGA III [1972–80]

Record: 71-32-2

Born Oct. 9, 1972, Seiler’s Uga III was present for Georgia football’s finest moment as Herschel Walker took the Bulldogs to the 1980 national championship. Uga III led Georgia to six bowl games in nine years and closed out his career in ultimate fashion winning the 1980 NCAA championship. He retired on the 105th football game of his career, marking the season-opener of the 1981 season. He died just weeks later.

Epitaph: How ‘Bout This Dawg

UGA IV [1981–89]

Record: 77-27-4

Uga IV was the most active of all Georgia mascots, standing as the only one to attend a bowl game every year of his service. He took over for Uga III in 1981. The highlight of his career was his appearance at the Heisman Trophy Banquet with Herschel Walker in 1982. He donned his game jersey and added the formal touch of a collar and black tie. Uga IV was the first mascot invited to the Heisman Banquet. Declared “Dog of the Decade” by Vince Dooley, he was posthumously awarded the highest UGA mascot honor, the varsity letter.

Epitaph: The Dog of the Decade

UGA V [1990–99]

Record: 65-39-1

Uga V began his reign after his father’s death in February. Uga V was the last pup sired by Uga IV and was born March 6, 1990. He was named in honor of Dan Magill, former Assistant Athletic Director for Public Relations, longtime tennis coach and SID.

Uga V was known by his appearance on the cover of the April 1997 *Sports
Illustrated declaring him the “nation’s best college mascot.” He presided over Georgia’s most successful collective sports effort as it claimed four NCAA team titles during 1998-99 (gymnastics, women’s swimming & diving, men’s tennis, men’s golf), placing second in the Directors’ Cup race.

He died just months after his retirement on Nov. 22, 1999.

UGA VI (1999–2008)

Record: 87-27

The pregame passing of the bone ceremony from Uga V to son, Whatchagot Loran, took place at the 1999 South Carolina contest. Only a year old at his coronation, Uga VI stood as the biggest of all Uga mascots weighing 65 pounds, 20 pounds heavier than his father. In 2007, Uga VI passed Uga IV for the most wins of any bulldog in school history. The fall of 2008 would have been his 10th season after reigning over more games than any mascot with 114.

He died June 27, 2008.

UGA VII (2008–09)

Record: 16-7

Uga VII was introduced on Aug. 30, 2008. “Loran’s Best” officially became Uga VII, prior to the Georgia Southern game. He was escorted onto the field by members of the Seiler family.

Uga VII passed away unexpectedly Nov. 19 of heart-related causes, before the final home game of 2009. A wreath was placed on his doghouse, and players wore a special UGA VII decal on their helmets to remember him during that final home game. “Russ,” his 5-year-old half brother, served as mascot for the final two games of the season.

Epitaph: Gone Too Soon

UGA VIII (2010)

Record: 4-2

Born Sept. 12, 2009, Uga VIII was the grandson of Uga VI, named in honor of Dr. Bruce Hollett from the UGA School of Veterinary Medicine. Uga VIII was introduced at the Homecoming game against Vanderbilt and served six games before becoming ill. He was diagnosed on Jan. 7, 2011 with lymphoma, passing away in his sleep on Feb. 4, 2011.

Epitaph: He Never Had A Chance

UGA IX (2012–2015)

Record: 30-10

Uga IX, formerly “Russ,” the half-brother of Uga VII, served as an interim Bulldog mascot for a total of 25 games. He worked nine games during the 2009 and 2010 seasons after Uga VII and VIII passed away. He roamed the sidelines at all 14 games during the 2011 season. He then served for two wins at the beginning of the 2012 season before being promoted as Uga IX prior to the Florida Atlantic game on Sept. 15, 2012. His time as mascot has included the 2011 and 2012 SEC Eastern Division championships, three road wins at Georgia Tech and a victory over Texas A&M in the 2009 Independence Bowl in Shreveport, Louisiana. He completed 2012 with a 12-2 record and a win over Nebraska in the Capital One Bowl and finished 2013 with an 8-5 overall record and 2014 at 10-3.

UGA X (2015–PRESENT)

Record: 30-10

Uga IX officially retired as the Bulldogs’ mascot at the end of the 2014 season. After a three-month “audition” in that role, his grandson Que was formally crowned as his successor in a collaring ceremony prior to the Georgia-Georgia Southern game on Nov. 21, 2015. Que assumed the title of Uga X at the age of 2 1/2. During his audition, he made appearances at the Countdown to Kickoff event in July 2015, as well as Picture Day in August, before presiding over the entirety of the 2015 football season. Que capped his inaugural season by leading the team to a 24-17 victory over Penn State at the 2016 Taxslayer Bowl. Que’s second year saw an 8-5 record during Kirby Smart’s first year. Highlights included a victory over South Carolina in Columbia, a home victory over Auburn and a successful postseason appearance in the Liberty Bowl against TCU. In his third year, Que traveled across the country to South Bend, Indiana, and Pasadena, California. In South Bend the Bulldogs edged out the Fighting Irish 20-19, starting off a great road season. Entering the postseason after notching an SEC Championship, Georgia headed to the Rose Bowl. The Bulldogs, along with Que, faced off against the Oklahoma Sooners. In an exciting double-overtime semifinal, Georgia punched its ticket to the National Championship with a 54-48 win.
ALMA MATER
From the hills of Georgia’s northland
Beams thy noble brow,
And the sons of Georgia rising
Pledge with sacred vow.

Beneath the pine tree’s stately shadow
Spread thy riches rare,
And thy sons, dear Alma Mater,
Will thy treasure share.

And thy daughters proudly join thee,
Take their rightful place,
Side by side into the future,
Equal dreams embrace.

Through the ages, Alma Mater,
Men will look to thee;
Thou the fairest of the Southland
Georgia’s Varsity.

Chorus:
Alma Mater, thee we'll honor,
True and loyal be,
Ever crowned with praise and glory,
Georgia, hail to thee.

BULLDOG MARCHING SONG
Georgia! Georgia! Hear the Bulldog growl!
Scrapping, snapping, listen to him howl!
Here he comes a running to the field,
Georgia’s team is never going to yield.
Win or lose, the other fellow knows
Georgia fights until the whistle blows.
Red and Black wave on for Georgia’s Varsity
And Georgia’s victory!

GLORY
Glory, glory to old Georgia!
Glory, glory to old Georgia!
Glory, glory to old Georgia!
G-E-O-R-G-I-A.
Glory, glory to old Georgia!
Glory, glory to old Georgia!
Glory, glory to old Georgia!
G-E-O-R-G-I-A.

HAIL TO GEORGIA
Hail to Georgia, down in Dixie!
A college honor’d fair, and true;
The Red and Black is her standard,
proudly it waves.
Streaming today and the ages through.
She’s the fairest in the Southland
We’ll pledge our love to her for aye;
To that college dear we’ll ring a cheer,
All hail to dear old U-G-A!

Hail, our Varsity of Georgia!
Thy sons will e’er thy glory sing:
To thee we’ll ever be faithful, loyal and true;
Ever and aye will thy praises ring.
Grand old time of ours at Georgia
The happiest days they’ll be always;
Alma mater, fair beyond compare,
All hail to dear old U-G-A!

GOING BACK
Going back, going back
Going back to Athens town.
Going back, going back
To the best old place around.
Going back, going back
To hear that grand old sound
Of a chapel bell and a Georgia yell,
Going back to Athens town.
