DOOLEY FIELD AT SANFORD STADIUM

University of Georgia President Jere W. Morehead and J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Greg McGarity announced a proposal on May 2, 2019, to create Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium, in honor of legendary Bulldogs head football coach and athletics director Vincent J. Dooley.

An official ceremony to dedicate Dooley Field will take place inside Sanford Stadium prior to the Bulldogs’ 2019 home opener on Sept. 7.

STADIUM LIGHTS

The most recent enhancement to Sanford Stadium is the addition of an all-new LED system for the field and seating bowl. The new system is more energy efficient and brighter than its predecessor and will provide the ability to be digitally adjusted, synchronized to music and produce special effects.

CONCESSIONS

Fans are reminded that all points of sale accept MasterCard, Visa, Discover and Amex in addition to cash. Also, menu listings continue to be streamlined and all prices have been rounded off to the dollar in an effort to minimize time in line and help get you back to your seat to cheer on the Bulldogs!

The West End renovation was extremely well received by all fans who utilized this area. In addition to the two (2) new full-service stands that added 18 points of sale and allowed us to offer items like fountain drinks, hot dogs, popcorn, pretzels, nachos and a few other items, we will also bring back the popular “Grab-n-Go” tents that have been in operation over the last two (2) seasons. These “Grab-n-Go” concessions areas will continue to offer quick serve items like bottle drinks, Chick-fil-A sandwiches, Papa John’s Pizza and assortment of packaged snacks including peanuts, candy and frozen lemonade.

The Gate 7 Plaza will continue to operate the “Grab-n-Go” tent that has been very popular and well received by our fans over the last three (3) seasons.

The Gate 6 Plaza “Food Court” will continue to include popular partners Chick-fil-A, Dreamland BBQ and Papa John’s in addition to fan favorite novelty items like frozen lemonade and Dippin’ Dots at portable locations.

On the 100 level south side, we will continue the quick-service “Grab-n-Go” operations that improved the fan experience with and alleviated congestion on the concourse. The “Grab-n-Go” stand near Sections 127-128 will offer a variety of food, beverage and snack options and stand near Sections 130-131 will continue operating as a quick-serve option for bottled drinks and packaged snacks.

On the 100 level north side, stands by Sections 103-104, 108 and Gate 4 will be converted to “Grab-n-Go” concepts offering a variety of food, beverage and snack options. Like we’ve seen in other areas of Sanford Stadium, we feel this will enhance speed of service and get you back to your seat quicker to cheer on the Bulldogs!

A complete listing of all concessions updates will be announced closer to the season home opener vs. Murray State.

PARKING LOT CHANGES

Recent construction on the University of Georgia campus has eliminated Lot #29, the Physical Plant lot. To accommodate donors previously parking in this lot, the Athletic Association will now offer the Printing Lot (190 River Road) and a portion of the South Campus Parking Deck for donor parking. These locations can be found on the UGA Football Parking Lots Guide located in this publication.

The transitory nature of college football means that programs must create new identities each year. Players and coaches come and go. So even though Georgia has a 24-5 record, an SEC Championship, and berths in the College Football Playoff and a New Year’s Six bowl over the past two seasons, Coach Kirby Smart has a new message as he enters his fourth season in Athens.

“We need to keep improving,” Smart said. “We want our players to have good fundamentals and to focus on the task at hand. We want to get better at being us. We want our players to come into the meeting room and hear us say, ‘Here is the plan. Here is what we’re doing today to get better.’ Getting better every day is how you get the most out of your team. That’s how we manage our practices. You will see a lot of good on good in practice.”

The Bulldogs have a strong nucleus in place as they charge toward the 2019 season with championship aspirations. Georgia returns its leading passer and rusher in quarterback Jake Fromm and tailback D’Andre Swift, respectively, and they will be ably supported by a veteran and deep offensive line.

The Bulldogs have four of their top five tacklers from a year ago back in the fold in defensive backs Richard LeCounte and J.R. Reed, and inside linebackers Monty Rice and Tae Crowder. Rodrigo Blankenship gives the Bulldogs a weapon both on placement kicks and on kickoffs.

The off season overhaul was not limited to the players on the roster. James Coley was promoted to Offensive Coordinator and Dan Lanning will transition to the Fain and Billy Slaughter Defensive Coordinator. Inside linebackers coach Glenn Schumann added the title of Co-Defensive Coordinator. Newcomers Todd Hartley and Charlton Warren will oversee the tight ends and defensive backs, respectively.

Georgia saw an infusion of young talent with an increasing number of early enrollees and junior college transfers who participated in spring practice. The Bulldogs look forward to gaining additional help in preseason fall camp and the 2019 season.

QUARTERBACKS
Jake Fromm will return for his third season at the helm of the offense after completing 206-of-306 passes for 2,749 yards and 30 touchdowns (including a career-best four in the regular-season finale against Georgia Tech) a year ago. In 29 career games, including 28 straight starts, he fired for more than 5,300 yards and 54 touchdowns.

Stetson Bennett has rejoined the Bulldogs after spending 2018 at Jones County (Miss.) Junior College and throwing for 1,840 yards and 16 touchdowns. Bennett was Georgia’s scout team quarterback in 2017 and earned the Offensive Scout Team Player of the Year.

JAKE FROMM returns for his third season at the helm of the offense at quarterback.

D’Wan Mathis signed with Georgia in December and enrolled early to participate in spring drills. The Michigan native passed for more than 4,500 yards and rushed for more than 1,000 yards during his final two seasons of high school.

John Seter has two years of experience in the program and will return for additional depth.

RUNNING BACKS
D’Andre Swift led the Bulldogs in carries (163), yards (1,049) and touchdowns (10) a year ago, despite starting just five games. He also returns in 2019 as Georgia’s leading receiver as he pulled in 32 passes for 297 yards and three scores.

Brian Herrien has been a solid contributor on offense and special teams during his career, and he pitched in 295 rushing yards and four total scores in 2018. James Cook added 284 yards on the ground and two touchdowns. Zamir White redshirted in 2018 following a knee injury in preseason camp, but he arrived as the nation’s top-ranked running back with more than 7,000 yards rushing.

The Bulldogs also return Prather Hudson (a special teams ace), Ian Donald-McIntyre, Darius Jackson and Garrett Jones for more looks.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Tyler Simmons had a 71-yard scoring catch and a 56-yard touchdown run among his four combined trips to the end zone last season. Trey Blount hauled in three passes, and while he did not have a catch, Demetris Robertson took an end-around rush 72 yards for a touchdown.

Georgia has additional emerging pass catchers in Matt Landers, Kearis Jackson and Tommy Bush.

The Bulldogs also welcome graduate transfer Lawrence Cager, who caught 45 passes and scored 10 touchdowns in three seasons at Miami (Fla.). The Bulldogs return reserves Willie Erdman, Patrick Burke, Josh Moran, Reid Tulowitzky, Jaylen Johnson and Patrick Bond.

TIGHT ENDS

First-year tight ends coach Todd Hartley inherits a group led by Charlie Woerner, who pulled in 11 passes a year ago. John FitzPatrick gained valuable experience in two games, and because he played in four-or-fewer games, FitzPatrick still has a full-season redshirt remaining if needed. Ryland Goede enrolled early after setting Kennesaw Mountain’s school records for catches and receiving yards and touchdowns. Mitchell Werntz and Peyton Mercer went through the 2018 practices and scrimmages. The Bulldogs also have added former Georgia baseball signee Jarrett Freeland, who has been a minor leaguer the past few years. The Bulldogs also have graduate transfer Eli Wolf, who started seven games last season and caught nine career passes at Tennessee.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

Four-fifths of the starting lineup, not to mention additional players with starting experience, return to pave the way for the Bulldogs’ explosive offense. A year ago, the offensive line triggered more than 6,000 total yards.

Georgia returns both tackles and both guards from a year ago. Andrew Thomas was an All-America and All-SEC performer in 2018 as the left tackle, while Isaiah Wilson held down the right side and picked up Freshman All-America honors. Solomon Kindley started each game at left guard, while Cade Mays (another Freshman All-American), Ben Cleveland and Trey Hill each started games at right guard. Jamaree Salyer, Justin Shaffer, D’Marcus Hayes, Owen Condon and Warren Ericson all gained experience, while early enrollees Warren McClendon and Clay Webb will compete for time.

Spring practice helped the Bulldogs identify the 2019 starter at center. Hill had a baptism by fire at Kentucky when he entered at center after an injury to starter Lamont Gaillard, and Georgia’s offense chugged along. Salyer saw action in 13 games at center and tackle, while Shaffer played in 12, and Ericson appeared in three, and they figure to battle for playing time at center. Webb is an additional option at center.

The Bulldogs also return Daniel Gothard and Blake Watson on the offensive line.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

The Bulldogs are blessed with both experience and depth on the defensive front. Stalwart Julian Rochester returns for his final season at nose, and he will be complemented by Michael Barnett and Antonio Poole there. Rochester picked up 31 tackles a year ago, while Barnett registered 14.

At tackle, the Bulldogs will be bringing back Tyler Clark, Jordan Davis and Devonte Wyatt. Clark had 31 stops a year ago, followed by Davis — a 2018 Freshman All-American — with 25, and Wyatt with 19.

The top candidates at end concluding spring practice were David Marshall, Malik Herring, Justin Young and junior college transfer Tramel Walthour. Herring tallied 23 stops a year ago to pace this group. Michail Carter and outside linebacker Brenton Cox also could see reps here.
Converted offensive lineman Netori Johnson, Koby Pyrz and Kolby Wyatt give Georgia additional options on the interior.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

The Bulldogs had the ability to assemble several viable rotations throughout spring practice with the return of experienced players and the influx of new participants.

Walter Grant led this returning group with 21 tackles, followed by Cox with 20, Adam Anderson with 16, and Robert Beal with 15. Azeez Ojulari saw action in three games, meaning he still has a full-season redshirt remaining if needed.

Junior college transfer Jermaine Johnson and early enrollee Nolan Smith went through spring camp as well. Smith arrived as the Maxwell Football Club Defensive National High School Player of the Year and the Anthony Muñoz Lineman of the Year.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Despite missing the latter stages of the 2018 season due to injury, Monty Rice ranked third on the squad with 59 tackles. Tae Crowder, a one-time tailback for the Bulldogs, showed that his transition has been a successful one with his 53 stops, including six for loss, and a team-best-tying two interceptions.

Nate McBride, Channing Tindall and Quay Walker saw most of their action on special teams and continue to vie for playing time.

Early enrollees Rian Davis, Nakobe Dean and Trezmen Marshall got a jump on 2019 as they were able to participate in spring drills. Dean capped his prep career with the high school Butkus Award and the Bobby Dodd National Lineman of the Year Award.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

First-year defensive backs coach Charlton Warren takes over a group that is both experienced and deep.

Safeties Richard LeCounte and J.R. Reed ranked 1-2 for the Bulldogs a year ago with 74 and 66 tackles, respectively. Reed also tied for the team lead with two interceptions, while LeCounte added a Georgia-best two fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles along with one pick.

At cornerback, Tyson Campbell registered 45 tackles and also had two fumble recoveries, including one for a touchdown against Missouri. Eric Stokes added 20 tackles and a blocked punt for a touchdown, while Mark Webb pitched in 14 stops.

The Bulldogs figure to have several options and rotations with the likes of Tyrique McGhee (23 tackles, 1 INT), Otis Reese, Christopher Smith, Ameer Speed, Divaad Wilson, Latavious Brini and William Poole. Speed and Wilson played in two games and one game in respective redshirt seasons in 2018.

DJ Daniel, Lewis Cine, and Tyrique Stevenson are early enrollees who gained valuable experience this spring.

Georgia also has Jordon McKinney, Jake Skole, Hugh Nelson and Cameron Moore in the fold.

SPECIALISTS

Georgia will have experience both at kicker and punter heading into the 2019 campaign.

Kicker Rodrigo Blankenship was 19-of-23 on field goals, perfect on 65 PAT kicks (extending his streak to 154 in a row) and scored a team-best 122 points last year. He also set the school record with 82 touchbacks.

Bill Rubright returns to add punting support.

Georgia’s top candidates at snapper are Koby Pyrz, Payne Walker and Steven Nixon. Herrien is the only Bulldog to date with extensive return experience, with those coming on kickoffs.

When Georgia searched for the new head football coach after the 2015 season, all arrows pointed towards longtime University of Alabama defensive coordinator and former Bulldog captain and assistant coach Kirby Smart. Just three years into his tenure in Athens, Smart has not disappointed.

In 2018, Smart and the Bulldogs continued domination of the SEC East, posting another perfect 6-0 record in the East as well as a second-straight 11-1 regular-season record. For the second year in a row, Georgia made an appearance in the SEC Championship. In postseason play, the Bulldogs earned a spot in the 2018 Sugar Bowl against the Texas Longhorns, extending the school record to 22 straight bowl appearances. Smart led Georgia to an 11-3 final record.

In 2017, his impact — along with that of a stellar group of seniors — made his second season a special one, proven by a level of success that included an 11-1 regular-season record, a 2017 Southeastern Conference championship, the defeat of Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl (College Football Playoff semi-final) and the program’s first appearance in the College Football Playoff National Championship game.

In the SEC championship contest, the Bulldogs avenged their only regular season loss with a 28-7 victory against Auburn. It was the first conference title since 2005 for the program. With the win, Smart became the youngest coach to win a title in an SEC championship game. The accomplishments bred recognition, as the Bulldog head coach was named 2017 George Munger National Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club, SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and SEC Coaches and the Regional Coach of the Year by the AFCA.

In Smart’s first season at the helm, Georgia extended its school record to 20 straight bowl appearances and posted four fourth-quarter comebacks, including wins over No. 8 Auburn and No. 22 North Carolina. He led the Bulldogs to an 8-5 final record, which included a victory over TCU in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Smart has also made an immediate impact in recruiting circles, posting the nation’s third-ranked class in 2017, followed by a 2018 class of signees that ranked first nationally by every ranking outlet. The 2019 recruiting class received consensus top two rankings, with a number one ranking from Rivals. In addition to his coaching duties, Smart oversees the Kirby Smart Family Foundation, which is focused on being champions in the community by supporting and giving back to needy children and families facing adversity.

Smart officially came home to Georgia on Dec.
6, 2015, but he had unfinished business at Alabama, which was still chasing a national title. He juggled two jobs for a month until Jan. 11, 2016, when the Crimson Tide won its fourth national championship in a seven-year span. Twelve hours later, he was at work in Athens where he remains one of nine head coaches at schools from Power 5 conferences that are coaching at their alma mater.

Smart had served on the Alabama staff the previous nine years, the last seven of those as defensive coordinator. During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won three BCS National Championships, one College Football Playoff national title, three SEC crowns, six SEC Western Division titles, and was ranked in the nation’s final top 10 rankings the final eight years in a row. A former standout defensive back and scholar-athlete at Georgia, Smart was one of the nation’s most respected defensive coordinators. During his time at Alabama, he coached players at three different positions, in addition to his coordinating duties. He was recognized as the 2012 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year, the 2009 Broyles Award winner, and a finalist for the 2015 Broyles Award.

The 2015 Alabama defense ranked first nationally in rushing defense, third in total defense, and third in scoring defense. His 2014 Alabama defense ranked fourth nationally against the run. The Crimson Tide ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense, while ranking 12th nationally in total defense. He helped junior safety Landon Collins earn unanimous first-team All-American honors while being selected as a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy, Thorpe Award and Lott Trophy.

Smart crafted another elite Alabama defense in 2013 after losing six more players to the NFL. The Crimson Tide ranked fourth nationally in scoring defense while ranking fifth in total defense, seventh in rushing defense and 11th in pass defense. Alabama was fourth nationally in red zone defense and fourth in fewest first downs allowed. He helped mold C.J. Mosley into the nation’s best linebacker and winner of the Butkus Award.

Smart retooled the Alabama defense in 2012, molding a unit that lost six starters to the NFL after the 2011 season. The Tide led the nation in total defense, scoring defense and rush defense while... ranking seventh in pass defense and pass efficiency defense. The Tide defense featured two first-team All-Americans in cornerback Dee Milliner and linebacker Mosley.

Smart’s rebuilding job in 2010 was impressive, as the Tide remained one of the nation’s elite defensive units while replacing nine starters. Alabama led the SEC and ranked third nationally in scoring defense and fifth in total defense. In the 2010 BCS National Championship game against Texas, the Tide recorded four interceptions and scored a defensive touchdown. Three players on Smart’s defense earned first-team All-American honors — linebacker Rolando McClain, cornerback Javier Arenas and nose guard Terrence Cody.

The 2009 season was a special one for Smart, as he not only helped lead Alabama to the national championship but also took home the Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country. The UA defense again was regarded as one of the nation’s top units, leading the SEC and ranking second nationally in scoring defense, pass efficiency defense, rush defense and total defense.

Prior to joining the Alabama staff in 2007, Smart spent the 2006 season as safeties coach with the NFL’s Miami Dolphins. He served six years on the collegiate level as the running backs coach at Georgia (2005), defensive backs coach at LSU (2004), graduate assistant at Florida State (2002-03), defensive coordinator/linebackers coach (2001) and defensive backs coach (2000) at Valdosta State, and administrative assistant at UGA (1999).

Smart was the running backs coach on Georgia’s 2005 SEC Championship team. His unit averaged 162.2 rushing yards per game, third in the SEC. He coached Thomas Brown, Danny Ware, and Kregg Lumpkin — all future NFL players. In 2004 at LSU, he tutored two NFL draft picks: Corey Webster (2nd round, N.Y. Giants) and Travis Daniels (4th round, Miami).

As a player, Smart was a four-year letterman at defensive back for Georgia, where he was a first-team All-SEC pick as a senior. He finished his career with 13 interceptions, a mark that still ranks fifth in UGA annals, and led the Bulldogs with six interceptions in 1997 and five in 1998. He led the SEC in interceptions during his final season. Smart also scored two points as a collegian. He was the first player in UGA history — and one of just two Bulldogs since the rule was introduced in 1988 — to return a blocked PAT kick for two points, having brought one back 88 yards against New Mexico State in his freshman year of 1995.

A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart received his BBA degree in Finance from UGA in 1998 and his M.S. in Physical Education from Florida State in 2003. The Bainbridge, Georgia, native is married to the former Mary Beth Lycett of McDonough, Georgia, a four-year letter winner, and two-year starter, on the Georgia women’s basketball team from 2000-03.

The couple met long after their undergraduate days at UGA, when Lycett — then working in the UGAAA business office — helped arrange Smart’s trip to interview for the Bulldogs’ running backs coaching job in 2005. They are now the proud parents of twins Weston and Julia (Feb. 8, 2008) and son Andrew (May 25, 2012).

For the 27th consecutive year, Georgia football players saw success in the NFL Draft. Seven Bulldogs were selected, upping Georgia’s all-time draft count to 328. Senior defensive back Deandre Baker was taken in the first round, going as the 30th pick by the New York Giants. The All-American Bulldog and 2018 Thorpe Award winner became the 36th Georgia player to go in the first round, with Frank Sinkwich being the first in 1943.

The next Bulldog to hear his name called was junior wide receiver Mecole Hardman, who was selected by Kansas City with the 56th overall selection. Hardman, a former five-star prospect, is the fifth Georgia receiver to go in the NFL Draft in the past five seasons. Riley Ridley was selected in the fourth round by the Chicago Bears as the 126th overall pick, while D’Andre Walker followed with his selection by the Tennessee Titans as the No. 168 pick in the fifth round.

Senior center Lamont Gaillard was chosen by the Arizona Cardinals in the sixth round, the No. 179 pick overall. Two Bulldogs capped a successful 2019 NFL Draft for Georgia, with junior tight end Isaac Nauta going as the 224th overall pick to Detroit and senior wide receiver Terry Godwin getting the No. 237 selection to the Carolina Panthers.

SEC DIVISIONAL TIE-BREAKER
In the event of a tie for the division championship, the following procedures will be used to break all ties to determine the SEC Football Championship Game representative.

1. TWO-TEAM TIE
(If two teams are tied for a division title, the following procedures will be used in order.)
A. Head-to-head competition between the two tied teams;
B. Records of the tied teams within the division;
C. Head-to-head competition against the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference record, and proceeding through the division (multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last and a tie for first place will be broken before a tie for fourth place);
D. Overall Conference record against non-divisional teams;
E. Combined record against all common non-divisional teams;
F. Record against the common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference record (divisional or non-divisional) and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division; and
G. Best cumulative Conference winning percentage of non-divisional opponents;
H. Coin flip of the tied teams.

2. THREE-TEAM (OR MORE) TIE
(If three teams or more are tied for a division title, the following procedures will be used in order. If one of the procedures results in one team being eliminated and two remaining, the two-team tiebreaker as stated above will be used.)
A. Combined head to head record among the tied teams;
B. Record of the tied teams within the division;
C. Head to head competition against the team within the division with the best overall Conference record (divisional and non-divisional) and proceeding through the division (multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last and a tie for first place will be broken before a tie for fourth place);
D. Overall Conference record against non-divisional teams;
E. Combined record against all common non-divisional teams;
F. Record against the common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference record (divisional or non-divisional) and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division; and
G. Best cumulative Conference winning percentage of non-divisional opponents (Note: If two teams’ non-divisional opponents have the same cumulative record, then the two-team tiebreaker procedures apply. In an effort to provide season ticket holders a flexible priority request period for postseason planning, the University of Georgia Athletic Association will continue the practice of offering an early request opportunity for SEC Championship and Bowl Game tickets.

Once the Bulldogs become bowl eligible for the postseason, season ticket holders will be notified via email about the ticket request process for the SEC Championship and Bowl Games. All season ticket holders should confirm that their current email address is registered to their ticket account. Postseason request instructions, ticket applications, and in some cases the actual game tickets, will be distributed via email.

Please pay special attention to postings on www.georgiadogs.com and email announcements beginning late October for postseason ticket updates. Season ticket holders may request postseason tickets at www.georgiadogs.com, where requests will be filled on priority according to availability before the potential general public sale begins.

With a $25 million expansion completed in 2003 and another $8 million in 2004, Sanford Stadium added a second upper deck on the north side and 27 new north side SkySuites bringing the new stadium capacity to 92,746 — the ninth largest on-campus stadium in the country.

Named for the late Dr. S. V. Sanford, former president of the University and Chancellor of the University system, Georgia’s Sanford Stadium celebrated its 75th anniversary in 2004. An overflow crowd of 30,000 saw the stadium’s first game on Oct. 12, 1929, when Yale University made its only trip South. Georgia won the now famous game when a young sophomore end from Macon, Vernon “Catfish” Smith, scored all 15 of the Bulldogs’ points. Final score, Georgia 15, Yale 0.

Through the years, the stadium has experienced various expansion projects. In 1940, lights were added to the field level paving the way to the first Sanford Stadium night game, a 7-7 tie between Georgia and Kentucky on Oct. 26, 1940.

Eventually, the East end of the stadium was enclosed, more lights added, and the capacity increased to 82,122. The 1991 project cost the University Athletic Association $3.7 million and enclosed the West end. The price tag was rather hefty, considering that the original price to build the stadium was a mere $360,000.

Legendary Sanford Stadium added yet another chapter to its history by hosting the medal round of the 1996 Olympic men’s and women’s soccer competition, watched via television by more than 3 billion people around the world.

NOTHING LIKE BEING “BETWEEN THE HEDGES”
Born Aug. 20, 1871, Dr. Steadman Vincent Sanford joined the Georgia faculty in 1903 and instantly became one of the University's most popular people.

He founded the Henry W. Grady School of Journalism in 1921, served as University president and chancellor until 1935 when he was named chancellor of the entire University System of Georgia.

He also held the position of faculty chairman of athletics while on the UGA faculty. He was the force behind the construction of Sanford Stadium in 1929 and was termed many times as “the best friend of athletics.”

He was largely responsible for persuading the Bulldogs of Yale to make their first trip south of the Mason-Dixon line to play the dedication game of Sanford Stadium in 1929. He died Sept. 15, 1945.

N o one likes to sit in traffic, but when more than 100,000 people descend upon the smallest county in Georgia on a Saturday, crowded roadways are inevitable. To ease the congestion, extra police and gameday staff work before and after games to assist the flow of traffic.

PREGAME TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT

On gameday, some roads surrounding Athens — most notably SR 316 — become overcrowded because of the large number of vehicles headed to the game from the Atlanta-area. We want to remind you that there are many other ways to enter Athens, including US 129, US 29, US 441, SR 15 and US 78. While these routes may seem a few miles out of your way, they may save you significant time and less traffic congestion.

Once in Athens, we recommend you head toward East Campus, unless you have passes for other lots. The highest concentration of public parking on gameday is available on East Campus, surrounding the Ramsey Center off College Station Road. In addition, there are more than 1,500 overflow spaces at the intramural fields to help accommodate cars and make the postgame exit as simple and expedient as possible.

GAMEDAY PARKING

Public access parking lots open at 7 a.m. on gameday. There are shuttles available in the East Campus District (Ramsey Center and Intramural Fields) to transport you to and from the stadium. If you need to park on the intramural fields, we ask that you be extra conscientious about not leaving any litter, glass or sharp objects on the ground.

All public access parking on campus is first come, first served, which means no saving places for friends coming later. When parking on campus, we ask fans to follow two simple guidelines:

• Do not park on sidewalks, grass or landscaped areas unless directed by UGA personnel.
• One vehicle, one space — this will allow for the maximum number of cars in a lot and will facilitate free flow of traffic through the lot.

NOTE: For safety reasons and to free parking spaces for fans, golf carts and ATVs are not allowed on campus on gameday.

For information on gameday, please call our helpline at 706-425-3052.

COMPLIMENTARY SHUTTLE SERVICE

Complimentary shuttle from Ramsey Center/Rec Sports Complex to Gate 6 before and after games is available. UGA Campus Transit will again offer free shuttle service to fans on gameday from the East Campus Parking Deck/Ramsey Center bus area. If overflow parking is needed at the Intramural Fields, then shuttles also will pick up fans at the Intramural Fields parking area off College Station Road. Due to postgame traffic patterns, shuttles returning to the intramural fields after the game will unload at the intersection of East Campus Road and College Station Road.

Shuttles will run continuously for five and a half hours before the scheduled game time and will drop fans off at Gate 6 of Sanford Stadium until 15 minutes after kickoff. Keep in mind that the gates to Sanford Stadium do not open until two hours prior to the scheduled game time. Return service will run continuously for two hours after the game ends.

POSTGAME TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT

When planning your departure, keep in mind that vehicles that arrived on campus over the course of several hours will be trying to leave in a much shorter time. The large influx of vehicles on the roadway can quickly lead to traffic gridlock.

To alleviate this, the University of Georgia Police Department, the Athens-Clarke County Police Department and other local law enforcement agencies have produced a traffic plan that is implemented on gameday. The plan allows a large number of vehicles to move as efficiently as possible.

Please work with officers directing traffic to ensure that this plan runs smoothly.

Once the game ends, staff will direct cars to the Georgia 10 Loop, which circles Athens and provides the easiest access to all routes out of town. Staff may send you in a direction you are not used to going, but please don’t turn around in the median. Remember, the Loop is a circle. Instead, follow the signs, and you will eventually get to your desired destination — probably faster than you think. When in doubt, stay patient, find the Loop and drive safely — we want to see you at the next home game!

Visit www.gameday.uga.edu for interactive maps and alternate routes to your destination.
Saturdays in Athens are an exciting time. More than 100,000 fans pour into Athens on gamedays, and it takes each of us doing our part to make the day successful.

To preserve the unique settings that make gamedays in Athens one of a kind, the University and the Athletic Association ask that fans adhere to the following guidelines to better preserve our campus and make gamedays a great day for everyone.

It is our hope that everyone will continue to enjoy an incredible gameday experience and a safe, family-friendly environment.

Your first stop as you plan for gamedays should be www.gameday.uga.edu. This site includes parking maps and all the details you need to plan for another exciting season of Georgia football. On these pages, you will find some key information to make your gameday safe and enjoyable.

SET UP AFTER 7 A.M.

The campus is a “neighborhood” for UGA students. No one wants to wake up at the crack of dawn on a Saturday to a party at his or her front door. For this reason, fans are allowed to arrive early on campus and park in open parking lots in advance of games as long as they do not begin creating noise or setting up tailgate equipment prior to 7 a.m. Gameday begins no earlier than 7 a.m. Saturday morning. Prior to that, a quiet environment must be preserved for students who call campus home.

PARK IN AN APPROVED SPACE

We’ve all seen it — one car, surrounded by a grill, seven chairs and three coolers, filling four parking spaces while you drive in circles. This type of parking forces others farther away from the stadium. Additional parking hazards are created when cars are parked on sidewalks or landscaped areas, pushing fans into the street and creating safety issues and traffic jams.
Rest assured, there are enough spaces for everyone on campus for gameday. All public access parking on campus is first come, first served, which means no saving places for friends.

Please visit www.gameday.uga.edu for campus parking maps.

BRING TRASH BAGS

Following games, students and local residents are left to face the aftermath of the previous day’s festivities. On an average gameday, more than 39 tons of garbage are collected from the campus. That number can swell to more than 100 tons after a night game! Many fans leave town after the game unaware of the effort involved in restoring the campus and community to its picturesque state.

To help control this, there are hundreds of trash receptacles placed in heavy-traffic areas around the campus. We ask that you please bag your trash and either take it with you or leave it at your tailgating area. The UGA clean-up crew will gladly remove it for you. Placing trash in bags makes the postgame cleanup faster and more effective.

DON’T FORGET A POWER SOURCE

Pregame festivities have become increasingly high-tech in recent years. Televisions, satellite dishes and sound systems are now common sights in the midst of parked cars, lounge chairs and grills.

Fans who want to watch television or use any other entertainment devices must provide their own power and video sources.

ENJOY THE GAMEDAY ATMOSPHERE

A UGA football Saturday should be safe and fun, even for fans who never set foot in Sanford Stadium. Portable toilets are placed all around campus, alleviating long lines and making the day more comfortable for all.
In addition, permanent restrooms are available at multiple buildings on campus — Tate Center, Student Learning Center, Georgia Center and East Village Commons. We have also added a designated area for corporate tailgates, allowing more space in traditional areas for regular fans.

Rest assured, legal and responsible consumption of alcohol will not be affected by these regulations, so be smart and enjoy the day.

NOTE: For safety reasons, certain items are not allowed on campus during gamedays, including:

• Propane tanks or cylinder containing compressed gas are not allowed for any purpose (turkey fryers, low country boils, grills, or portable heaters). This regulation does not apply to grills using disposable propane canisters of 17 ounces or less.
• Grills inside of or on top of parking decks.
• Golf carts and ATVs.

Additional restrictions for North Campus are in place to reduce physical damage to grounds and mitigate behavioral concerns. North Campus is defined as the area bounded by Broad Street, Lumpkin Street, Baldwin Street and Jackson Street (including, but not limited to, the quadrangle between Broad Street and Old College, the quadrangle between Old College and the Main Library, and Herty Field).

• Tailgating on North Campus is allowed beginning five (5) hours before kickoff.
• Tables cannot exceed six feet.
• Tents are allowed.

The following items are not allowed on North Campus on gamedays:

• Kegs
• Generators
• Televisions
• Amplified music
• Grills or cookers of any type
• Household furniture (foldings chairs not included)

GRAB A SNACK OR MEAL ON CAMPUS

Don’t feel like preparing a meal on gameday? Whether it is just a snack or a full meal, a host of dining options, convenient to parking areas, are available to fans on campus. UGA Foodservices serves hearty fare at multiple locations on gameday, including East Village Commons, the Georgia Center for Continuing Education, Snelling Dining Commons, Oglethorpe Dining Commons, Bolton Dining Hall and the Tate Student Center.

For more information on gameday tailgating, parking, dining and transportation, please visit www.gameday.uga.edu.

In the last 100 years of intercollegiate football, Georgia’s Uga has established himself as the nation’s most well-known mascot. The line of pure white English bulldogs, which epitomizes everything Georgia, has been owned by the Frank W. “Sonny” Seiler family of Savannah, Georgia, since Uga I first graced the campus in 1956. Through the years, Uga has been defined by his spiked collar, a symbol of the position in which he holds. He was given his name, an abbreviation for the university, by William Young of Columbus, a law school classmate of Seiler. Each of the Uga mascots is awarded a varsity letter in the form of a plaque, identical to those presented to all Bulldog athletes who letter in their respective sports.

As determined and published by the Pittsburgh Press, the University of Georgia is the only major college that actually buries its mascots within the confines of the stadium. Ugas I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII and VIII are buried in marble vaults near the main gate in the embankment of the South stands. Epitaphs to the dogs are inscribed in bronze, and before each home game, flowers are placed on their graves. The memorial plot attracts hundreds of fans and visitors each year. For the past 20 years, Uga’s jerseys have been custom-made at the beginning of each season from the same material used for the players’ jerseys. Old jerseys are destroyed.

Uga’s on-field home is a permanent air conditioned doghouse located next to the cheerleader’s platform, providing comfort in the heat of August and September. The custom-made doghouse is a gift from the Bahamian Bulldog Club of Nassau, Bahamas, through the courtesy of Fred Hazlewood.

UGA I (1956-66)

Record: 53-48-6

The Uga line of solid white English bulldogs began with Uga I, Hood’s Ole Dan, born Dec. 2, 1955, in Columbus, Georgia. Uga I was given to Cecelia Seiler by friend, Frank Heard, and appeared in his first game during the 1956 home opener. As recalled by Sonny Seiler, “... his original red jerseys were made by Cecelia ... There is no telling how many of these jerseys he wore out.”

Epitaph: Damn Good Dog

UGA II (1966-72)

Record: 42-16-3

Uga I was succeeded by his son, Ole Dan’s Uga at a 1966 pregame Homecoming ceremony. With the Redcoat Band lining the field, Uga II was led to its center by Charles Seiler. The student body erupted in a cheer, “Damn Good Dog!” Uga II had an impressive reign as Georgia participated in five bowl games and won two SEC championships.

Epitaph: Not Bad for A Dog

UGA III (1972-80)

Record: 71-32-2

Born Oct. 9, 1972, Seiler’s Uga III was present for Georgia football’s finest moment as Herschel Walker took the Bulldogs to the 1980 national championship. Uga III led Georgia to six bowl games in nine years and closed out his career in ultimate fashion winning the 1980 NCAA championship. He retired on the 105th football game of his career, marking the season-opener of the 1981 season.

He died just weeks later.

Epitaph: How ‘Bout This Dawg

UGA IV (1981-89)

Record: 77-27-4

Uga IV was the most active of all Georgia mascots, standing as the only one to attend a bowl game every year of his service. He took over for Uga III in 1981. The highlight of his career was his appearance at the Heisman Trophy Banquet with Herschel Walker in 1982. He donned his game jersey and added the formal touch of a collar and black tie. Uga IV was the first mascot invited to the Heisman Banquet. Declared “Dog of the Decade” by Vince Dooley, he was posthumously awarded the highest UGA mascot honor, the varsity letter.

Epitaph: The Dog of the Decade

UGA V (1990-99)

Record: 65-39-1

Uga V began his reign after his father’s death in February. Uga V was the last pup sired by Uga IV and was born March 6, 1990. He was named in honor of Dan Magill, former Assistant Athletic Director for Public Relations, longtime tennis coach and SID.

Uga V was known by his appearance on the cover of the April 1997 Sports Illustrated declaring him the “nation’s best college mascot.” He presided over Georgia’s most successful collective sports effort as it claimed four NCAA team titles during 1998-99 (gymnastics, women’s swimming & diving, men’s tennis, men’s golf), placing second in the Directors’ Cup race.

He died just months after his retirement on Nov. 22, 1999.

Epitaph: “Nation’s Best College Mascot” — Sports Illustrated

UGA VI (1999-2008)

Record: 87-27

The pregame passing of the bone ceremony from Uga V to son, Whatchagot Loran, took place at the 1999 South Carolina contest. Only a year old at his coronation, Uga VI stood as the biggest of all Uga mascots weighing 65 pounds, 20 pounds heavier than his father. In 2007, Uga VI passed Uga IV for the most wins of any bulldog in school history. The fall of 2008 would have been his 10th season after reigning over more games than any mascot with 114.

He died June 27, 2008.

Epitaph: A Big Dog For A Big Job, And He Handled It Well

UGA VII (2008-09)

Record: 16-7

Uga VII was introduced on Aug. 30, 2008. “Loran’s Best” officially became Uga VII, prior to the Georgia Southern game. He was escorted onto the field by members of the Seiler family.

Uga VII passed away unexpectedly Nov. 19 of heart-related causes, before the final home game of 2009. A wreath was placed on his doghouse, and players wore a special UGA VII decal on their helmets to remember him during that final home game. “Russ,” his 5-year-old half brother, served as mascot for the final two games of the season.

Epitaph: Gone Too Soon

UGA VIII (2010)

Record: 4-2

Born Sept. 12, 2009, Uga VIII was the grandson of Uga VI, named in honor of Dr. Bruce Hollett from the UGA School of Veterinary Medicine. Uga VIII was introduced at the Homecoming game against Vanderbilt and served six games before becoming ill. He was diagnosed on Jan. 7, 2011 with lymphoma, passing away in his sleep on Feb. 4, 2011.

Epitaph: He Never Had A Chance

UGA IX (2012-2015)

Record: 44-19

Uga IX, formerly “Russ,” the half-brother of Uga VII, served as an interim Bulldog mascot for a total of 25 games. He worked nine games during the 2009 and 2010 seasons after Uga VII and VIII passed away. He roamed the sidelines at all 14 games during the 2011 season. He then served for two wins at the beginning of the 2012 season before being promoted as Uga IX prior to the Florida Atlantic game on Sept. 15, 2012. His time as mascot has included the 2011 and 2012 SEC Eastern Division championships, three road wins at Georgia Tech and a victory over Texas A&M in the 2009 Independence Bowl in Shreveport, Louisiana. He completed 2012 with a 12-2 record and a win over Nebraska in the Capital One Bowl and finished 2013 with an 8-5 overall record and 2014 at 10-3.

UGA X (2015-PRESENT)

Record: 30-10

Uga IX officially retired as the Bulldogs’ mascot at the end of the 2014 season. A three-month “audition” in that role, his grandson Que was formally crowned as his successor in a collaring ceremony prior to the Georgia-Georgia Southern game on Nov. 21, 2015. Que assumed the title of Uga X at the age of 2 1/2. During his audition, he made appearances at the Countdown to Kickoff event in July 2015, as well as Picture Day in August, before presiding over the entirety of the 2015 football season. Que capped his inaugural season by leading the team to a 24-17 victory over Penn State at the 2016 Taxslayer Bowl. Que’s second year saw an 8-5 record during Kirby Smart’s first year. Highlights included a victory over South Carolina in Columbia, a home victory over Auburn and a successful postseason appearance in the Liberty Bowl against TCU. In his third year, Que traveled across the country to South Bend, Indiana, and Pasadena, California. In South Bend, the Bulldogs edged out the Fighting Irish 20-19, starting off a great road season. Entering the postseason after notching an SEC Championship, Georgia headed to the Rose Bowl. The Bulldogs, along with Que, faced off against the Oklahoma Sooners. In an exciting double-overtime semifinal, Georgia punched its ticket to the National Championship with a 54-48 win.
ALMA MATER

From the hills of Georgia's northland
Beams thy noble brow,
And the sons of Georgia rising
Pledge with sacred vow.

Beneath the pine tree's stately shadow
Spread thy riches rare,
And thy sons, dear Alma Mater,
Will thy treasure share.

And thy daughters proudly join thee,
Take their rightful place,
Side by side into the future,
Equal dreams embrace.

Through the ages, Alma Mater,
Men will look to thee;
Thou the fairest of the Southland
Georgia's Varsity.

Chorus:
Alma Mater, thee we'll honor,
True and loyal be,
Ever crowned with praise and glory,
Georgia, hail to thee.

GLORY

Glory, glory to old Georgia!
Glory, glory to old Georgia!
Glory, glory to old Georgia!
G-E-O-R-G-I-A.

Glory, glory to old Georgia!
Glory, glory to old Georgia!
Glory, glory to old Georgia!
G-E-O-R-G-I-A.

BULLDOG MARCHING SONG

Georgia! Georgia! Hear the Bulldog growl!
Scraping, snapping, listen to him howl!
Here he comes a running to the field,
Georgia's team is never going to yield.
Win or lose, the other fellow knows
Georgia fights until the whistle blows.
Red and Black wave on for Georgia's Varsity
And Georgia's victory!

HAIL TO GEORGIA

Hail to Georgia, down in Dixie!
A college honor'd fair, and true;
The Red and Black is her standard,
proudly it waves.
Streaming today and the ages through.
She's the fairest in the Southland
We'll pledge our love to her for aye;
To that college dear we'll ring a cheer,
All hail to dear old U-G-A!

Hail, our Varsity of Georgia!
Thy sons will e'er thy glory sing:
To thee we'll ever be faithful, loyal and true;
Ever and aye will thy praises ring.
Grand old time of ours at Georgia
The happiest days they'll be always;
Alma mater, fair beyond compare,
All hail to dear old U-G-A!

GOING BACK

Going back, going back
Going back to Athens town.
Going back, going back
To the best old place around.
Going back, going back
To hear that grand old sound
Of a chapel bell and a Georgia yell,
Going back to Athens town.
