ABOUT THE RAGIN’ CAJUNS

Louisiana is 3-11 overall and 1-2 in the Sun Belt Conference after the Ragin’ Cajuns knocked off Georgia State, 57-54, on Thursday evening at the Cajundome. Ty’Reona Doucet led the way with 23 points, while Jomyra Mathis chipped in 10 points led ULM.

The Eagles led by as many as 10 points in the third quarter, but ULM fought back and took the lead late, 56-55, on a pair of free throws by Jamie Means with just over a minute left. The Eagles got a layup from Alisha Owens with 24 seconds left to retake the lead, 57-56, and then got a defensive stop on the other end. Amira Atwater rebounded the missed shot but was fouled, and with 4.6 seconds left, the Eagles could not inbound the basketball successfully, the ball deflecting off of a GS player to give it back to ULM for the game-winning possession.

Owens led a trio of Eagles in double figures on the night with 16 points, while Alexis Brown added 12 points and Amira Atwater had 10. Hailey Dias-Allen had a career-high 10 rebounds on the evening. Tiara Malone’s game-high 24 points led ULM.

LAST TIME OUT (L 58-57 at UL Monroe, Jan. 10)

Arsula Clark had a driving layup at the buzzer to give host UL Monroe a 58-57 Sun Belt Conference women’s basketball victory over visiting Georgia Southern on Thursday evening at the Fant-Ewing Coliseum in Monroe, La.

The Warhawks improved to 7-7 overall and 1-2 in the Sun Belt with the win, while Georgia Southern fell to 5-9 overall and 0-3 in the league with the loss.

About the Ragin’ Cajuns

Louisiana is 3-11 overall and 1-2 in the Sun Belt Conference after the Ragin’ Cajuns knocked off Georgia State, 57-54, on Thursday evening at the Cajundome. Ty’Reona Doucet led the way with 23 points, while Jomyra Mathis chipped in 14 points. The win snapped a nine-game losing streak for Louisiana.

Doucet leads the team offensively this season, averaging 14.4 points per game, which ranks eighth in the Sun Belt. Brandi Williams is also in double figures for the season, averaging 10.6 points per game.

The Ragin’ Cajuns lead the overall series between the two teams, 7-1, and Louisiana won both meetings last season.

The regular season matchup was a 58-48 win in Statesboro for UL, and the two teams played a triple-overtime thriller in the 2018 Sun Belt Conference Tournament First Round in New Orleans, won by the Ragin’ Cajuns, 88-81.
Junior Hailey Dias-Allen had her career-best game for the Eagles at the most important time - in the triple-overtime loss to Louisiana at the Sun Belt Conference tournament. Dias-Allen made 9-of-13 field goals en route to a career-high 23 points. She also grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds at UL Monroe two nights ago.

TAKING THAT NEXT STEP
Junior point guard Amira Atwater emerged as one of the Sun Belt Conference's best playmakers at the point guard position in 2017-18, ranking third in the Sun Belt Conference in assists per game (4.3) and sixth in assist/turnover ratio (1.3). Her 125 assists were the ninth-most in a single season in GS history and twice last season she surpassed 10 assists in a game. She set a new school single-game record with 13 assists in the Eagles' 73-68 win over UT Arlington on Jan. 27, then she delivered 11 assists in the triple-overtime 88-81 loss to Louisiana in the first round of the 2018 Sun Belt Conference Tournament on March 6. So far in 2018-19, Atwater is averaging a Sun Belt Conference-leading 9.9 assists per game and has a 1.55 assist/turnover ratio (68 assists, 44 turnovers), good for fourth-best in the league.

INJURY UPDATE
Sophomore Sarah Moore is currently out due to a foot injury, but is expected back later in January. Freshman Lola Lovitt, who has only seen action in two games this season, will be out for the remainder of the 2018-19 campaign and will be redshirting the season. Nakol Franks suffered a concussion at the University of Georgia but is expected to return within the next couple of weeks.

ATWATER THE CLEAR LEADER ON THE FLOOR
Junior Hailey Dias-Allen had her career-best game for the Eagles at the most important time - in the triple-overtime loss to Louisiana at the Sun Belt Conference tournament. Dias-Allen made 9-of-13 field goals en route to a career-high 18 points in the game and had a game-tying offensive rebound and bucket that helped push the game into the third overtime. So far Dias-Allen has been able to build upon that breakout game in 2018-19, averaging a career-best 8.8 points per game and scoring in double digits in four of her last eight games, including 17 points in last Thursday's contest against Texas State. She also grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds at UT Monroe two nights ago.

SIBLING RIVALRY
The similarities between junior guard Alexis Brown and her brother, Georgia Southern men's basketball senior Tookie Brown, go beyond just sharing the uniform No. 4. Both are having outstanding seasons for the Eagles in 2018-19. In fact, the duo are the top-scoring brother-sister combo currently in NCAA Division I basketball with Tookie averaging 16.2 points per game and Alexis averaging 16.4 points per game. Tookie is the all-time leading scorer at Georgia Southern in the Division I era with 1,977 points and should pass 2,000 points soon. Brown, meanwhile, has scored 656 career points and is on pace to eclipse 1,000 points during her senior season.

PLAYING THE PERCENTAGES
Last year's struggles for the Eagles came offensively, as Georgia Southern was ranked 347th out of 349 teams in offensive field goal percentage. The Eagles hit just 33.2 percent of their shots all season. This year, Georgia Southern has done much better from the field, shooting 37.2 percent from the field and ranking a full 78 spots higher than last year in the NCAA's national stats. This year, it's the defensive field goal percentage that the Eagles are struggling with. Opponents are shooting 44.9 percent from the field, ranking GS 337th out of 349 teams. Last year opponents shot 42 percent from the field against the Eagles.

ALEXIS BROWN NAMED SUN BELT CONFERENCE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Georgia Southern junior guard Alexis Brown was named the Sun Belt Conference Women's Basketball Player of the Week on December 18.

"The average age of the Eagles' roster is also just 19.33 years old, which ranks as one of the 10 youngest teams in DI women's basketball. The Eagles have no seniors, five juniors, two sophomores, one redshirt freshman and four true freshmen. Georgia Southern is one of only eight teams in DI that do not have either a senior or a redshirt junior on the roster. The other teams are: Boston College, Elon, Howard, fellow Sun Belt school and Saturday's opponent Louisiana, UMBC, Saint Peter's (NJ) and Utah Valley."

2018-19 OVERALL STATISTICS
Kip Drown begins his fourth season at the helm of the Georgia Southern women's basketball program. Introduced as the seventh head women's basketball coach in Georgia Southern history on March 31, 2015 by Athletic Director Tom Kleinlein, Drown enters his 31st season as a collegiate head coach, and his fourth for the Eagles, heading into the 2018-19 campaign.

The Eagles were 5-25 overall and 2-16 in the Sun Belt Conference in 2017-18, but improved greatly over the second half of the Sun Belt season. The Eagles went 5-10 in conference and averaged 13 points per game and five percent better shooting from the floor over the final nine games of the league slate. GS won its first Sun Belt Tournament game since 1999 and went 9-8 overall and 5-1 in the Sun Belt Tournament. Seniors Patrice Butler and Angel McGowan each earned All-Conference honors on the year and the team enjoyed the friendly confines of Hanner Fieldhouse, going 8-6 on the season at home.

In his first season in Statesboro in 2015-16, Drown's team doubled its Sun Belt Conference win total from the previous year, going 7-22 overall and 4-16 in league action including wins over rivals Georgia State and Appalachian State. Drown's Eagles went 1-1 in overtime games and had eight of their conference losses decide by 10 or fewer points, including five by five or fewer points.

Prior to Georgia Southern, Drown was one of the most successful coaches in the history of the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC) as well as NCAA Division II. He departed the Division II ranks 15th amongst active coaches at that level for wins and is currently 38th all-time in NCAA Division II for wins.

During the 2011-12 season, Drown recorded his 400th career win as a collegiate head coach with a 91-73 road conference win over New Mexico Highlands on January 27, 2012, just one season after becoming the T-Wolves' all-time winningest coach. Under Drown's direction, his 2011-12 squad went on to tie the program record for most wins during the regular-season (21) as well as secured the school's first-ever at-large bid to the NCAA Division II tournament. His 2013-14 squad followed that up by tying the school record for overall wins in a season (22) and earned the program's second at-large berth into the post season.

During the 2009-10 season, Drown and the Pack finally broke through the glass ceiling and claimed their first-ever national tournament win with a victory over the region's two-seed, Wayne State. The previous year (2008-09), the ThunderWolves had their best season ever, going 22-9, which broke the school record for most wins in a season for the second consecutive year. The ThunderWolves also earned its third NCAA Division II Central Regional Tournament berth in four seasons following its 62-42 RMAC Championship win over Colorado School of Mines, earning a six-seed in the 2009 tournament.

The 2007-08 ThunderWolves went 21-10, breaking the previous school record for most wins in a season. In claiming the RMAC Championship, they swept through two fellow NCAA Tournament teams, Fort Lewis and Nebraska-Kearney, avenging easier during the regular season.

Prior to his successful run in Pueblo, Colo., Drown coached for four seasons at NCAA Division II institution Grand Canyon University where he went 40-69 (.367). While at the helm of the Antelopes' program, Drown led the program back to a winning record (16-12) during his third season (2003-04) as well as a bid into the NCAA Division II Tournament. In just four years, he took the team from only four wins in the year before he arrived to a 16-12 record in 2003-04, earning California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) Coach of the Year Honors for his efforts.
