2018 NORTH DAKOTA STATE SOFTBALL ROSTER

- MORE -

Eight NDSU Players Easton/NFCA Scholar Athletes

Eight North Dakota State softball players were recognized as National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Scholar Athletes for the 2016-17 academic year: first baseman Vanessa Anderson, shortstop Montana DeCamp, pitcher/outfielder Courtney Johnson, pitchers KK Leddy and Jacquelyn Sertic, pitcher/outfielder Morgan Olson, second baseman Lauren Reimers and catcher Alyssa Reina. Collectively, NDSU compiled a 3.476 grade point average and ranked No. 32 on the Easton/NFCA Division I All-Academic Team list.

The Mueller File

The North Dakota State head coach is Darren Mueller (17th season, 24th overall). Mueller has compiled a 601-332 record (.644) including 189-45 (.608) vs. Summit League competition (including tournament). Mueller reached career win No. 600 against Western Illinois (G2 5-5-18). The Bison had 10 straight 30-plus win seasons from 2007-16, and have won at least 30 victories in 11 of past 12 seasons. Mueller became the program’s all-time winningest coach with the 4-1 victory at Western Illinois (4-16-11). North Dakota State has won eight Summit League tournament championships (2009-10-11-12, 2014-15-16-17) to advance to NCAA regional play. The Bison won the NCAA Norman Regional in 2009 and advanced to the NCAA Super Regional at Arizona State. NDSU has won seven Summit League regular season crowns (2008, 2012-13-14-15-16-17) and rounded out the Bison staff are assistant coaches Gerice Olson and Beth Spoehr. The NDSU coaching staff earned the 2008, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015 Summit League Coaching Staff of the Year honors. The NDSU staff earned 2009, 2015 and 2016 National Fastpitch Coaches Association Midwest Coaching Staff of the Year award. Mueller was the 2006 and 2007 Division I Independent Coach of the Year.
Phase I of NDSU Softball Renovation Completed

Phase I of the $800,000 renovation of the North Dakota State softball facility that includes a new grandstand, press box, sound system and scoreboard has been completed according to NDSU deputy director of athletics Todd Phelps. The new 552-seat grandstand features all chair-back seating. There is a new center backstop with a new protective netting system that stretches from dugout to dugout. Located just beyond the centerfield fence is the new LED Daktronics scoreboard with an inning-by-inning and runs-hits-errors recap for both teams. There is also a new Daktronics stadium sound system. The new press box, located behind and above the grandstand offers an unobstructed view of home plate and playing field. The heated press box can seat 8-10 people including separate space for television and radio. A filming deck is located on top. Designed by ICON Architectural Group of Grand Forks/West Fargo, the project was constructed by Key Contracting Inc. of West Fargo. Electrical work was completed by Grotberg Electric Inc. of West Fargo. The new dugout project was prior to last season by Masters Construction of Fargo. Electrical work was completed by Grotberg Electric Inc. of West Fargo. The new dugout project was prior to last season by Masters Construction of Fargo. Phase II of the renovation will commence at the end of the 2018 season.

Bison Announce 2018 Recruiting Class

North Dakota State head softball coach Darren Mueller announced that pitcher Paige Vargas (Mission Viejo, Calif. / Santa Margarita Catholic H.S.), catcher-outfielder Avery Wysong (Beaver Creek, Minn./Hills-Beaver Creek H.S.), middle infielder Nicole Licea (Corona, Calif./ Hillcrest H.S.) and shortstop Cameryn Maykut (Winnipeg, Manitoba / Shaftesbury H.S.) have all been admitted to NDSU and will join the softball softball program beginning in the fall of 2018.

Against the Nationally-Ranked

North Dakota State has won eight of the last 34 meetings with nationally-ranked opponents including a 1-0 win in nine-innings at No. 10 LSU (3-24-18). NDSU has beaten at least one nationally-ranked team in each of the last seven seasons. The Bison are 1-8 in 2018. With the dramatic 1-0 win in 11 innings over 9th/10th-ranked Oklahoma at the 2009 NCAA Norman Regional, North Dakota State softball recorded its first win over a nationally-ranked team as a Division I program. NDSU is currently 12-77 overall. By year:
