Chinanu Onuaku was drafted in the NBA second round by the Houston Rockets with the 37th overall pick. Lee and Lewis were both graduate transfers who played one season at Louisville, finishing as the top two scorers on the team in 2015-16. Lee started the year as a candidate to make the roster for the NBA Boston Celtics. Lewis signed to play professional basketball in Germany. A walk-on, Avare earned his bachelor’s degree after two seasons and a redshirt year, and transferred to play at Eastern Kentucky University.

*Usually asleep by midnight would mean almost always.
Louisville is one of four Division I schools in the nation which has won 20 or more games in each of the past 14 seasons.

UofL’s Coach Rick Pitino enters the 2016-17 season needing five victories to top 750 for his career. Pitino is one of five people to win 750 or more games as a head coach.

Twenty-four of Pitino’s 14 Division I teams have won 20 or more games (fifth among active coaches) with eight winning 30 or more (fifth all-time). UofL’s 2012-13 unit set a school record with 25 wins.

Pitino’s incoming freshman class scored an average 25.8 on the ACT test in 2014, more than five points higher than the national average and the most dramatic jump in Kentucky over the past decade.

Traditionally, UofL’s national ranking in attendance last season was impressive. The Cardinals have been the top five nationally in average home attendance for the last 3 straight years, including a 3,200 average in its 31st season in the KFC Yum! Center. Louisville’s home attendance has been among the top 10 nationally in both regular season and tournament play, with a 90% average in 2013.

Louisville is one of four Division I schools in the nation which has won 20 or more games in each of the past 14 seasons. Coach Rick Pitino enters the 2016-17 season needing five victories to reach 750 for his collegiate career. Pitino is one of five active collegiate head coaches with 300 or more (fifth among active coaches) with eight winning 300 or more (fifth all-time). UofL’s unit set school record with 21-13. UofL’s incoming freshmen class scored an average of 25 on the ACT test in 2014, more than five percent higher than the national average and the highest average in Kentucky over the past decade.

The 2015-16 season marks the 45th Fifth Friday as the most dramatic jump in Kentucky's history. With 35th anniversary of the Cardinals' NCAA recognition as Elite 8 Two Final Four appearance first year that all teams in 1972 (26-5 record) and then be required to win at least three of their last five games. Louisville is one of three schools in the country to win the three of the last five seasons.

Louisville is one of the nation's top basketball programs, having won 5 national championships and having produced a number of NBA players. Under the guidance of head coach Rick Pitino, the Cardinals have become a perennial powerhouse in college basketball. In recent years, the team has produced several All-Americans and has consistently been ranked among the top teams in the country. With a strong foundation of skilled players and a supportive coaching staff, the Cardinals are well-positioned to continue their success in the years to come.
Freshman Year:

- Started at small forward in the first two games before an injury sidelined him for a month.
- Started the last five games, averaging 7.2 points and 3.2 rebounds per game while providing a valuable defensive presence for the Cardinals.
- Topped season highs with 13 points, seven rebounds, four assists and 34 minutes against Boston College on Feb. 6, starting in place of injured Damion Lee.
- Scored 12 points against Virginia on Jan. 30 while pulling down five rebounds and connecting on 2-of-4 from behind the arc, his first three-pointers of the season.
- Missed eight games with a sprained left knee suffered in practice on Nov. 20. He returned to practice on Dec. 20.
- Scored eight points against Utah Valley in 15 minutes of action in his second game back from a knee injury.
- Earned his second start since returning from injury against Duke on Feb. 20 and finished the game with 12 points, five rebounds and two assists while playing well on the defensive end of the floor. It was one of six games in which he scored eight or more points as a freshman.
- Averaged 11.8 points and 5.8 rebounds while being named by DraftExpress.com as the top college player at the Adidas Nations camp in late July 2016.
- Totaled 35 points, nine rebounds and six assists in a pre-season public intra-squad scrimmage.
- Has a 7-0 wingspan.
- One of four players on the Cardinals’ roster with international ties.
- Was born in Sudan, Africa and moved to Australia as a child, following a similar path as current UofL forward/center Mangok Mathiang.

High School:

- Averaged 19.1 points, 8.2 rebounds and 4.0 assists at Victory Rock Prep in Bradenton, Fla. in 2014-15 as his team posted a 27-9 record.
- An all-state selection by the Florida Association of Basketball Coaches (FABC) as a senior.
- Ranked No. 23 nationally in the 2015 recruiting class by Scout.com (No. 5 small forward), No. 32 in the ESPN 100, No. 37 by 247Sports.com and No. 47 by Rivals.com.
- Also played soccer (forward) and competed in track (200M, 400M, 800M, 1500M, long jump) while in Australia, where he moved from Africa in 2004 before coming to the United States in 2013.
- Also considered offers from Connecticut, Florida, Mississippi and Virginia Tech before choosing to sign with the Cardinals.
- Participated with the Asia Pacific team at the 2014 adidas Nations event in Garden Grove, Ca.
- Averaged 7.5 points, 3.7 rebounds and made 14-of-16 behind the arc, his first three-pointers of the season.

#11 Jay Henderson
Redshirted the 2015-16 season as a member of the UofL squad.

Averaged 26.4 points, 3.3 assists, 3.0 rebounds and 2.5 steals as a senior in 2014-15 in leading Cardinal Mooney to a 26-4 record and the state final four for the first time in school history. He made 51 percent of his three-pointers (127 of 249) and 83 percent at the free throw line.

Honored as the 2015 Florida Class 3A Player of the Year.

Finished third in the 2015 voting for Florida Mr. Basketball and was named to the Class 3A all-tournament team after scoring 16 points as his team fell in the state semifinals.

In Cardinal Mooney’s double-overtime victory in the 2015 regional championship game, McMahon scored a team-high 30 points, including burying three free throws in the closing seconds.

As a junior at Cardinal Mooney, McMahon averaged 16.2 points, 3.6 steals and 3.5 assists.

Has been compared to Mark Price who played 12 years in the NBA, was a four-time all-star and was of a similar physical stature to McMahon.

Participated in the 2015 Kentucky Derby Festival Classic all-star game played in Louisville’s Freedom Hall, setting a record in the three-point competition semifinals with 26 points (17-of-25 shooting) before finishing third in the finals. He also played on the U.S. All-Stars squad in the Capital Classic.

Also played lacrosse as a midfielder in high school.

Scored nine points against the Puerto Rico Junior Team in August 2015 in the Cardinals’ opening game.

His father Dave played basketball at Valparaiso, his mother Kim played volleyball and his sister played volleyball at Jacksonville.

His former Cardinal Mooney teammate Antonio Blakeney is a sophomore at LSU, a fellow participant this year in the Battle 4 Atlantis.

Personal:
BORN Sept. 22, 1996 ... Son of Kim and Dave McMahon ... Has three siblings (Hanna, Keri, MJ) ... Major is finance.

Personal goal at UofL is to “become a true point guard.”

Best moment of his athletic career to date was running out of the tunnel at the KFC Yum! Center for the first time.

Enjoys playing golf, spending time with friends and binge watching TV shows in his spare time.

Chose to attend UofL because “I felt it was the best fit for my athletic and academic career.”

Best basketball advice given to him was “let it fly!”

Few people know that he is very claustrophobic.

His father has had the greatest influence on his athletic career.

When he played basketball as a kid, he pretended he was Steve Nash.

Chose to wear number 30 because Stephen Curry wears it and his No. 14 high school number was taken.

Feels Matt Damon would be the best actor to play him in a movie.

Among reality shows, he feels he would fare best on Survivor.

If you walked into his dorm room, the first thing you would notice is the posters on his wall.

Most proud of “my siblings and all of their successes.”

Best thing about being a Cardinal is the fan support.

What impresses him the most about Coach Pitino: how he sees every little detail on the floor at all times.

Would most like to meet Muhammad Ali.

DONOVAN MITCHELL

Guard | 6-3 | 200 | So.-1L | Greenwich, Conn. (Brewster Academy)
Freshman Year:
- Played at least 10 minutes in every game as a freshman and was a starter on five occasions.
- A double-figure scorer in 13 games, including five of the last 10 and seven of the last 14.
- Led the Cardinals with 17 points at Duke – one below his career high – while hitting 7-of-11 field goals (2-3 three-pointers).
- Started his first collegiate game against Wake Forest, scoring a career-high 18 points and pulling down a career-best eight rebounds while contributing two steals.
- His 10 points and seven rebounds against Kennesaw State included a one-handed dunk that was the No. 8 play of the day on ESPN. He also had the No. 3 play of the day with his dunk against Florida State and had the top play of the day with one of his dunks against Syracuse.
- Knocked down a season-high three three-pointers against Utah Valley.
- One of just 10 players in Louisville history to score as many as 14 points in a freshman debut, tying for eighth on that list with 14 off the bench, hitting all four of his field goals, his lone three-pointer and 5-of-6 free throws. He added three steals, three rebounds, and an assist without a turnover – all in just 17 minutes.

High School:
- Averaged 14.3 points, 5.7 rebounds, 2.4 assists and 1.8 steals in 2014-15, helping Brewster Academy to a 34-1 record and its second straight National Prep Championship in 2015.
- All-New England AAA first team selection by NEPSAC.
- Was ranked No. 17 nationally by Scout.com (#2 shooting guard), No. 31 by Rivals.com, No. 34 by 247Sports.com and No. 43 in the ESPN 100.
- Scored a season-high 29 points with eight rebounds and five assists against St. Thomas More.
- MVP of two high school all-star games. He was the White Team MVP in the 2015 Kentucky Derby Festival Classic with 21 points, six steals, two rebounds and two assists while winning the dunk contest. He totaled 30 points, nine steals, three rebounds and three assists (12-of-19 FG) as the MVP of the 2015 Jordan Brand Classic Regional Game.
- Averaged 11.8 points, 4.6 rebounds and 2.1 assists as a junior in helping Brewster Academy to a 33-2 record, the New England Preparatory School Athletic Council AAA Championship and the National Prep Championship. No other program has ever won both titles, which Brewster also accomplished in 2010.
- Participated in the 2015 Elite 24 game at Pier 2 of the Brooklyn Bridge Park and video of a spectacular dunk of his from that event flooded social media.
- Chose to attend Louisville after narrowing his list of collegiate opportunities to also include Villanova, Florida State, Providence and Boston College.
- Also played baseball (pitcher, shortstop) and soccer (goalie) in high school.
- His father Donovan Sr. is the Manager of Player Operations and Community Outreach with the New York Mets. He played seven years in professional baseball as an outfielder, second baseman and shortstop after being drafted by the Houston Astros from UNC Charlotte.
- Prep school teammate of Virginia sophomore forward Jay Huff.
- MVP of two high school all-star games. He has one younger sister (Jordan). Among reality shows, he feels he would fare best on Real Husbands of Hollywood.
- Knocked down a season-high three three-pointers).
- Chose to attend Louisville because “I love the school, the fans, the coaches, my teammates and UofL is the best university in the country.”
- Best basketball advice given to him was “you’re at your best when it counts the most.”
- Most proud of his mom.
- His parents, Coach Pitino and his former coach Array Pernick have had the greatest influence on his athletic career.
- Feels Kevin Hart would be the best actor to play him in a movie.
- Real Husbands of Hollywood.

Louisville is one of four Division I schools in the nation, which has won 20 or more games in each of the past 14 seasons.

UofL Coach Rick Pitino enters the 2016-17 season needing five victories to reach 750 for his collegiate career. Pitino is one of five active coaches entering the 2016-17 season with at least 740 career victories, a group that includes Arizona’s Sean Miller, Arizona State’s Bruce Miller, Kansas’s Bill Self, and Kansas State’s Bruce Weber. UofL’s winningest coach is at the forefront of a national trend of continuity as 12 of the country’s top-25 teams bring back all five starters for the 2016-17 campaign.

UofL’s incoming freshman class scored an average 25.5 on the ACT test in 2014, more than four points higher than the national average and the most dramatic jump in Kentucky over the past decade.

2012-13 Final Four appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

Participated in the prestigious McDonald’s All-America game at the United Center in Chicago and the Jordan Brand Classic at the Barclays Center in New York, totaling 15 points, four rebounds and three assists in 24 minutes in the latter event.

Averaged 18.5 points, 12.3 rebounds and 4.2 assists as a junior in helping Paul VI to a 20-15 record while earning first-team all-state, all-area and all-conference honors.

Originally from North Carolina, King moved to Akron, Ohio, where he played at St. Vincent-St. Mary — the alma mater of LeBron James — through his sophomore season before transferring. He averaged 16.2 points as a sophomore in helping SVSM to a 19-10 record and the 2013 Ohio Division II State Tournament semifinals.

As a freshman, he averaged 16.3 points, 6.0 rebounds and four blocked shots as SVSM advanced to the 2013 Ohio Division II State Tournament finals and posted a 20-12 record.

King has won two gold medals with USA Basketball in the 2013 FIBA Americas U16 Championship in Maldonado, Uruguay, averaging 8.2 points and 5.2 rebounds; and the 2014 FIBA U17 World Championship in Dubai, United Arab Emirates where he averaged 6.7 points and 2.9 rebounds. He participated in the 2015 USA Basketball Junior National Team minicamp in October.

In AAU competition for Team Takover, King was the semifinals MVP at the 2015 Peach Jam in Savannah, Ga. when he totaled 26 points and six rebounds.

His father Vincent King played professional basketball in foreign countries for 10 years after scoring 1,037 points in his collegiate career at Indiana University of Pennsylvania from 1988-92.

Chose to sign with the Cardinals after narrowing a host of opportunities to UofL, Arizona, Connecticut, Kentucky and Virginia.

Personal:
Born Jan. 22, 1997 ... Son of Vincent and Lo King ... Has one younger brother, Jalen ... Major is sport administration.
Personal goal at UofL is to win a national championship.
Enjoys playing video games and “chillin” in his spare time.

His father Vincent has had the greatest influence on his athletic career.
When he played basketball as a kid, he pretended he was Dwyane Wade.
If you walked into his dorm room, the first thing you would notice are his shoes.
Chose to wear No. 0 because former Cardinals Damion Lee and Terry Rozier wore it, and his first choice of 13 was already taken.
What impresses him the most about Coach Pitino: his knowledge of the game.
Among reality shows, he feels he would fare best on Love and Hip Hop.
Best thing about being a Cardinal is being a part of the family.
Would most like to meet Beyonce.

Will redshirt the 2016-17 season as a walk-on after transferring to Louisville following his freshman year at UNC Asheville.

Was the Bulldogs’ second-leading scorer and top rebounder in a balanced lineup that featured five double-figure scorers, averaging 12.0 points and 7.7 rebounds as a freshman in 2015-16.

Collected 53 steals and shot 47 percent from the field as UNC Asheville posted a 22-12 record, won the Big South Tournament and reached the NCAA Tournament for the fourth occasion in school history and first since 2012. The Bulldogs fell to eventual champion Villanova in the NCAA First Round as Sutton contributed 11 points.

Earned Big South Tournament MVP when he produced season highs of 25 points and 18 rebounds against Winthrop in the championship game of the Big South Tournament.

Scored in double digits on 21 occasions, grabbed eight or more rebounds in 16 games and had three or more steals in six games. A starter in all 34 games, he had eight double-doubles and was fourth in the Big South in rebounding.

First team all-state selection at Manual High School in 2015 when he ranked eighth in the state in scoring (24.4 points per game) and sixth in rebounding (12.1).

The Seventh Region Player of the Year in 2014-15, Sutton led Manual High School to a 25-6 record and their first regional final appearance in 15 years. The Kentucky Mr. Basketball finalist totaled 20 points and 12 rebounds in the regional title game against Ballard.

One of four hometown Louisville products on the Cardinals’ roster.

Personal:

Born Feb. 26, 1997 ... Son of Dwayne and Janice Sutton ... Has an older sister (Shannon) ... Major is undecided.

Personal goal at UofL is to “be the best player I can be and win a national championship.”

Best moment of his athletic career to date was earning MVP honors at the Big South Conference Tournament as a freshman.

Enjoys playing video games and watching Netflix movies in his spare time.

Chose to attend UofL because of “the opportunity to play at UofL in my hometown.”

Best basketball advice given to him was “work hard now, play later.”

Few people know that he loves to eat sushi.

His parents have had the greatest influence on his athletic career.

When he played basketball as a kid, he pretended he was Dwyane Wade.

Feels Will Smith would be the best actor to play him in a movie.

Among reality shows, he feels he would fare best on Keeping up with the Kardashians.

What impresses him the most about Coach Pitino: his will to win and knowledge of the game.

Best thing about being a Cardinal is this is his hometown.

Origin of the Cardinal Nickname

The University of Louisville’s athletic symbol, chosen sometime after 1913, is a Cardinal. The Cardinal bird was chosen to give UofL statewide identification, since the Cardinal is the state bird of Kentucky. The school colors — cardinal red and black — were adopted at the suggestion of Mrs. John L. Patterson. In printing terms, the UofL color for red is PMS 200. All of the University of Louisville’s present logos are trade marked.
