DAN VANHOOREN
Men's Basketball
Head Coach
17th SEASON

Dan Vanhooren joined the Dinos in May 2000 and is the seventh head coach of the men's basketball program at the University of Calgary.

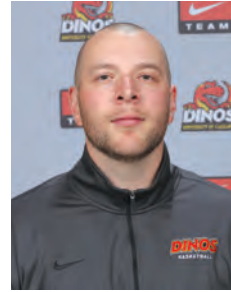

Since he took over the program, Vanhooren's Dinos have made a steady climb into elite status in CIS basketball. In just four years, he took a program that had not enjoyed a winning season in nearly a decade all the way to the conference title and within two points of the national final in 2004. It was Calgary's first Canada West championship since 1993, and their first-round victory at the Final 8 in Halifax was the Dinos' first national quarterfinal win in 38 years. The two-point semifinal loss came at the hands of the Carleton Ravens, who went on to win the CIS title.

In 2008 he coached the Dinos to their best conference record since 1976 (18-4) and played host to the Canada West Final Four in front of a sold-out Jack Simpson Gym. Eight years later, the Dinos won their sixth Canada West Championship and went on to compete in the national finals for the first time since 1966 against the Carleton Ravens. The Dinos finished with a silver medal.

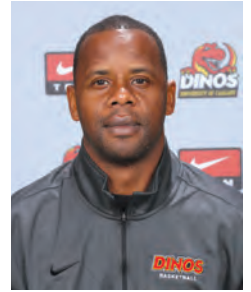

Vanhooren moved to Calgary following a four-year stint as head coach of Medicine Hat College. In 2000, he coached the Rattlers to a bronze medal finish and was named the ACAC south coach of the year.

He played varsity basketball at the University of Alberta under the legendary Don Horwood. After three seasons with the Golden Bears, Vanhooren graduated with a Bachelor of Physical Education in 1993 and moved to graduate studies at the University of British Columbia. While attending UBC he worked for the NBA's Vancouver Grizzlies in their inaugural season, and he received his Master's of Human Kinetics in 1996.

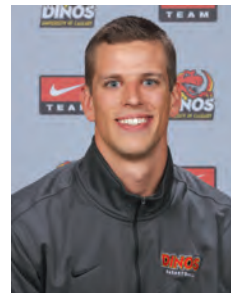

Vanhooren is a certified NCCP Level III coach.

2016/17 MEN'S ROSTER

David Kapinga

G | 5-11 | 173lbs

Arts 3 | Lubumbashi, KY, USA

One of the top defensive point guards in the conference, Kapinga will look to build on a successful first year running the offense. Kapinga took his game to another level in the playoffs, going from 7.8 points per game in the regular season to 15.8 in postseason.

Mambi Diawara

G | 6-4 | 180lbs

Arts 3 | Montreal, Que.

A transfer from Lamar State CC where he played for two years, the Montreal native Diawara adds another scoring option off the bench. The 6'4" guard has already shown flashes of his offensive ability, scoring 17 points in his preseason debut against Regina.

Thomas Cooper

G | 6-5 | 200lbs

Arts 5 | Chattanooga, TN, USA

The reigning Canada West MVP enters his final year with the Dinos after taking the conference by storm in 2016, averaging a league best 25 points per game. Following an intense training summer, the All-Canadian is aiming to lead his team back to the national final.

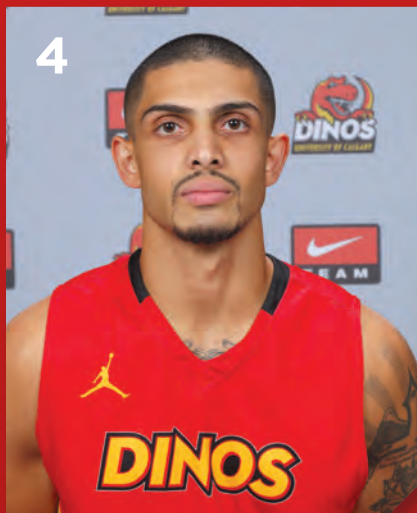

Jake Nielson

G | 6-3 | 180lbs

Science 1 | Cochrane, Alta.

Another high-scoring recruit, the rookie Nielson joins the Dinos after wrapping up his high school career for the Cochrane Cobras. He averaged 33 points per game in his senior year.

Aloysius Callaghan

G | 5-11 | 200lbs

Arts 1 | Calgary, Alta.

A Calgary native who spent time with the Mount Royal Cougars a few years ago, Callaghan is back in the city after playing in the Middle East. In 2013, he averaged 6.8 points per game for MRU.

Jasdeep Gill

G | 6-5 | 200lbs

Business 5 | Chestermere, Alta.

Another local fifth-year player, the Chestermere native Gill will once again be looked at as one of Calgary's key pieces off the bench. A player who seems to always play big in critical moments, Gill had 11 points and three steals in last year's CW championship game and 23 points in the CIS semi-final win over Ryerson.

2016/17 MEN'S ROSTER

Dallas Karch

F | 6-6 | 205lbs

Business 5 | Calgary, Alta.

The hometown forward enters his final season with the Dinos hoping to end his career with Calgary's first ever-national championship. Karch's steady improvement since his rookie year has made him one of the most efficient players in the conference.

Max Eisele

G | 6-4 | 185lbs

Kinesiology 1 | Ulm, GER

One of Calgary's key recruits this season, Eisele joins countryman and close friend Lars Schlueter after playing extensively in the German ProB league. The athletic guard will be a key defensive player on the wing, while also running the point and getting into the paint.

Jhony Verrone

G | 6-0 | 195lbs

Arts 4 | Montreal, Que.

Along with Kapinga, the fourth-year Verrone will serve as another defensive terror, while also providing an offensive punch. The Montreal native played a big role in Calgary's 72-69 CIS quarterfinal win against McGill last year, scoring 12 points off the bench, including three 3s.

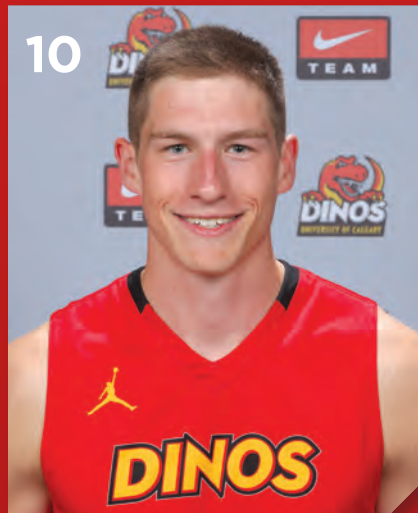

Ethan Scott

G | 6-4 | 185lbs

Arts 1 | Vancouver, B.C.

After a season in which he helped Athlete Prep win the OSBA Prep Championship, the Vancouver native begins his university career with the Dinos. Scott is a dynamic guard with a three-point guard that isn't afraid to rebound among the bigs.

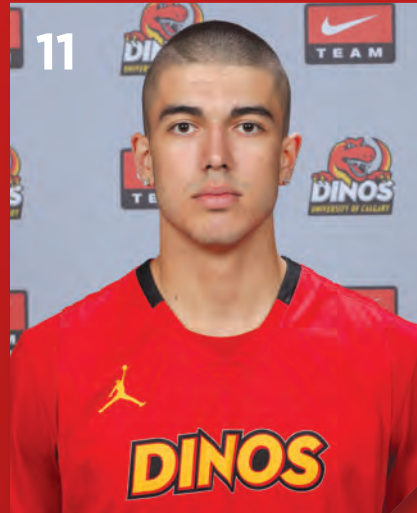

Lars Schlueter

F | 6-8 | 210lbs

Business 3 | Ulm, GER

After a CW Rookie of the Year performance in 2015, Schlueter was named a third team all-star last season and will take on more of a leadership role in his junior year. The sharpshooting forward averaged 12 points per game last season and was third in the conference in both three-point field goals and percentage.

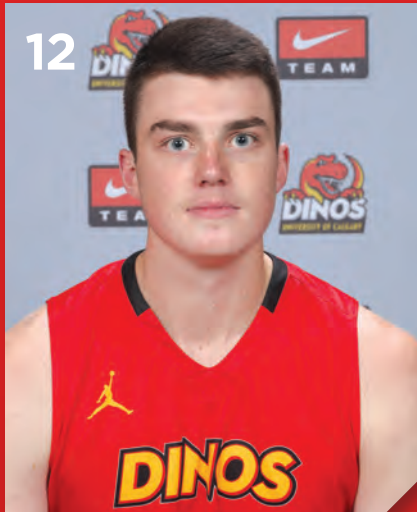

Sasha Pojuzina

F | 6-6 | 190lbs

Arts 1 | Regina, Sask.

The large influx of recruits continues with Regina product and guard-forward Pojuzina. A former member of Saskatchewan's provincial team, he also played for AAU program, the Euro Lions.

Mitch Ligertwood

F | 6-7 | 215lbs

Kinesiology 4 | Port Moody, B.C.

Another veteran inside, the forward Ligertwood brings intensity with some an offensive touch. In last year's conference championship, Ligertwood was huge off the bench in 22 minutes, scoring 12 points and grabbing six rebounds.

Matt Ellis

F | 6-7 | 185lbs

Arts 3 | Calgary, Alta.

Another Calgary native, Ellis took a big leap last season, which included some games as a starter and he'll have the opportunity to do even more this year. Entering his third year, the forward will be responsible for defense and rebounding inside.

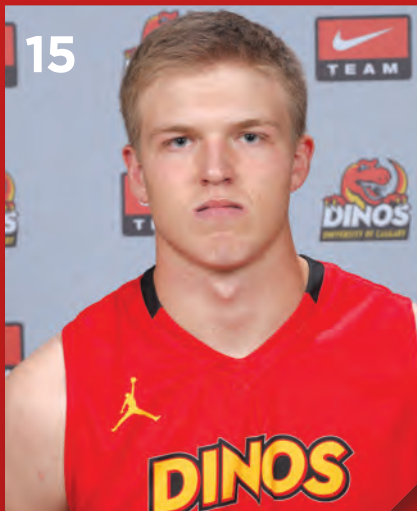

Connor Foreman

F | 6-6 | 230lbs

Science4 | Camrose, Alta.

The forward from Camrose will be looked at to provide more muscle inside for Calgary off the bench again this year. Along with Ellis, the fourth-year Foreman will battle other Canada West forwards in the post with defense and rebounding.

Jeff Rodenhutskors

F | 6-8 | 205lbs

Arts 1 | Dalemead, Alta.

A key part of Calgary's future, Rodenhutskors carries on the family tradition as his father played for the Dinos. The rookie forward out of Chestermere starred in high school, including averages of 32 points and 13 rebounds in last year's St. Mary's tournament.

Sunny Johal

F | 6-7 | 215lbs

Arts 5 | Abbotsford, B.C.

Wrapping up his CIS career, Johal will look to get on the floor this season. At 6'7", he's yet another forward that can battle inside and showed some flashes of his potential in the preseason.

Matt Douglas

F | 6-6 | 296lbs

Arts 2 | North Vancouver, B.C.

Like Foreman going from volleyball to basketball, Douglas is another Dino coming from a different sport. Originally an offensive lineman for Calgary, the North Vancouver native will bring his 6'6", 296-pound frame to the hardcourt.

THE REUNION:

SCHLUETER AND EISELE TOGETHER AGAIN

It's taken over half a dozen years, some convincing and a trip across the Atlantic Ocean, but Lars Schlueter and Max Eisele are together again.

"It's really nice to have a best friend of yours on the court," Schlueter said of his former and now new teammate. "We know what we can do and I think we can really end well together."

Eisele is one of the key recruits for the Dinos this year after playing extensively with Team Ehingen Ursprung of the German ProB league. But he and Schlueter go way back when they played on a U14 team and although they weren't on the same team for very long, they quickly became close friends.

That friendship would quickly dissipate whenever they played against each other in Germany, with Schlueter playing for rival Ratiopharm Ulm.

"I actually can't remember losing a game against Lars," the new Dinos guard said. "I knew a lot of guys from that team and Lars was a key factor, especially in their last year."

"But in that last year, we totally destroyed them."

"No friendship in the game right," Schlueter said. "Play as hard as you can and hope the better one wins."

While Eisele stayed in Germany and always had his eye on one day playing in the NCAA, Schlueter joined the Dinos and immediately made an impact, winning Canada West Rookie of the Year in 2015 and being named a third team all-star last season as the Dinos won the conference championship and made it to the CIS final.

"We were just kidding always about it, that we would play with each other again," Eisele said. "He kept telling me how good it is over here and I was never really convinced"

"Then last year it became a little bit more serious."

Schlueter brought up the idea to head coach Dan Vanhooren, "Dan was really into the idea about bringing Max [to Canada] and he was getting more and more used to playing here," Schlueter said. "It worked out perfectly."

When Eisele touched down this summer, Schlueter greeted him at the airport before training that same day. And just as Schlueter got accustomed to a new school, city and country when he arrived, Eisele is doing the same — albeit — not alone.

Expectations are high for the Dinos as they look to repeat as conference champions and return to the national championship game. For Schlueter, that means taking on more of a leadership role.

"Just leading by example, try to do as best I can, keep people accountable, that's all stuff that I have to do and it's what people expect of me," he said.

While the third-year sharpshooter keeps people accountable, he and Eisele have also been keeping opponents — and sometimes teammates — guessing at times.

"I can tell him things in German and nobody knows what we're doing," Eisele said. "You can really show the opponent something you want to do, but say the exact opposite and it might work out, it's always fun to get messages in your game to play out your defender."

"I CAN TELL HIM THINGS IN GERMAN AND NOBODY KNOWS WHAT WE'RE DOING. YOU CAN REALLY SHOW THE OPPONENT SOMETHING YOU WANT TO DO, BUT SAY THE EXACT OPPOSITE."

"I actually like everything about it, it's the full experience I hoped it would be," Eisele said. "The campus life, you've got so many opportunities to do something, I was talking to Dallas (Karch) about it and I asked — is it even possible to do everything during those five years?"

Then in the preseason, the moment they kidded and thought about for years came to be, as they suited up for the same team once again.

"I talked to Lars about it in the warmup, like this is actually happening," Eisele said, as the team would go on to beat Windsor 99-64. "I like our players, I like the intensity in practice, it's amazing, because we have so much competition, everybody just goes 100 per cent."

"Our teammates are getting annoyed already, like hey, it's just English in practice," Schlueter added.

Now that the days of competing against each other are over, they now share a common goal.

"We have such a deep group, we can sub people on and off the court without any interruptions, it's really great to see," Schlueter said. "I think we're capable of going all the way this year."

"I'm a person who hates to lose, I've always played on teams with great chances to win," Eisele said. "Every guy on our team, they're all winners who compete to win." 🏀

HEAD COACH DAN VANHOOREN

Dan joined the Dinos in May 2000 and is the seventh men's basketball head coach at the University of Calgary.

Since he took over the program, Vanhooren's Dinos have made a steady climb into elite status in CIS basketball. In just four years, he took a program that had not enjoyed a winning season in nearly a decade all the way to the conference title and within two points of the national final in 2004. It was Calgary's first Canada West championship since 1993, and their first-round victory at the Final 8 in Halifax was the Dinos' first national quarter-final win in 38 years. The two-point semifinal loss came at the hands of the eventual champion Carleton Ravens.

The Dinos make their fifth appearance at the Final 8 under Vanhooren in 2017, reaching the semifinal round in each of their previous trips: 2004, 2009, 2010, and 2016, as well as the national final in 2016 – their first gold medal game since 1966.

Under his leadership, the Dinos have captured three of their six Canada West titles: 2004, 2009, and 2016. Vanhooren captured his first career Canada West coach of the year award in 2014-15.

Vanhooren moved to Calgary following a four-year stint as head coach of Medicine Hat College. In 2000 he coached the Rattlers to a bronze medal finish and was named the ACAC south coach of the year.

He played varsity basketball at the University of Alberta under the legendary Don Horwood. After three seasons with the Golden Bears, Vanhooren graduated with a Bachelor of Physical Education in 1993 and moved to graduate studies at the University of British Columbia. While attending UBC he worked for the NBA's Vancouver Grizzlies in their inaugural season, and he received his Master's of Human Kinetics in 1996. Vanhooren is a certified NCCP Level III coach.

Dan and his wife Kara reside in northwest Calgary with their three children: Peyton, Wyatt, and Nash.
