2010-11 Freedom Women's Basketball All-Conference Teams

Anville, Pa. – The Middle Atlantic Conference has announced the 2010-11 Freedom Conference all-conference women's basketball teams. Christine Marks from Misericordia was recognized as Player of the Year, Sondrine Glovas of DeSales earned Rookie of the Year, and Tom Griffith, Misericordia, was awarded Coach of the Year honors.

Marks, a junior, leads the team in scoring and rebounding with 18.3 points and 9.4 rebounds per game. She ranks third in the Freedom Conference in both categories. She leads the Freedom in field goal percentage (54.4%) and is third in free throw percentage (84.6%). The first Misericordia women's basketball player to earn Player of the Year honors in the Freedom Conference, Marks went over the 1,000 career point mark earlier this season. This is Marks' second time on the All-Conference team.

Sondrine Glovas ranks second on the Bulldogs in scoring at 10.4 points per game and third on the team in steals at 1.8 per game. The freshman also averages 4.5 rebounds per game and has recorded one double-double on the season. In Freedom Conference games only, Glovas finished the regular season averaging 12.1 points and 5.6 rebounds per game.

In his seventh season as MU's head coach, Griffith went over the 100-win plateau earlier this year and owns a career mark of 107-75. He has guided the Cougars into the post-season in six of his seven years at the helm, including all three of their seasons in the Freedom Conference.
