2011-12 Men's Basketball All-Freedom Conference Teams

Annville, PA - The Middle Atlantic Conference has announced the 2011-12 men's basketball All-Freedom Conference teams. Misericordia's Ethan Eichhorst earned Player of the Year, while his coach Trevor Woodruff took home Coach of the Year honors. Wilkes' Jourdan Wilson was awarded Rookie of the Year.

After earning first-team All-Freedom honors a year ago, Eichhorst took his game to another level for his senior campaign. He ranked third in the Freedom in scoring (17.9 ppg), eighth in rebounding (7.3 rpg), second in free throw percentage (88.6%), third in field goal percentage (53.4%) and fifth in assists (3.0 apg). Eichhorst was Misericordia's leading scorer in 16 of 25 games, scored in double figures 24 times and recorded six double-doubles. He led the Cougars to an 11-1 home mark in the Anderson Center while moving into fifth place on Misericordia's all-time scoring list with 1,420 points.

In his eighth season as head coach at his alma mater, Trevor Woodruff led the Cougars to a 19-6 record, including a 10-game winning streak down the stretch to earn the top seed in the Freedom Championships. The Cougars tied the school record for wins in a season and qualified for the Freedom Championships for the third consecutive season as Woodruff earned his 100th career victory.

Wilson, the top scoring freshman in the conference averaging 10.6 points per-game, led the high-powered Wilkes offense. The Mechanicsburg, Pa. native added 3.0 rebounds per-game and 2.7 assists per-contest while scoring double figures in 13 of 24 games. He poured in a season-high 26 points in his Freedom debut in the Colonels victory over top-seeded Misericordia and earned Freedom Conference Player of the Week status for his performance.
