WINTER ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL ANNOUNCED

ANNVILLE, Pa. – The Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Corporation winter Academic Honor Roll, which notes academic excellence by student-athletes, contains 332 honorees as announced by Executive Director Ken Andrews.

The Honor Roll comprises those student-athletes of sophomore class standing or higher who participated in a varsity-level sport and registered a cumulative grade point average of 3.20 (4.00 scale) or higher and completed the playing season in good standing.

Messiah led in selections with 52 student-athletes, while Lebanon Valley was second with 35, followed by Elizabethtown at 33. Widener was fourth with 31 student-athletes on the list. DeSales was fifth with 26 and Lycoming had 25 student-athletes. Misericordia was sixth with 36 and Albright was seventh with 19 student-athletes. Arcadia was eighth with 17, King's was ninth with 14, and Delaware Valley had 11 followed by Alvernia and Manhattanville (7), Wilkes (6), FDU-Florham (5), and Eastern (4).

Featured on the Winter Honor Roll are several standouts including Freedom Conference Women's Basketball Player of the Year, LeighAnn Burke of DeSales. Messiah athletes took home both the MAC Track Athlete of the Year in Patrick Roach and the MAC Field Athlete of the year in Ted Simmons. Kristen Bates of Messiah earned MAC Field Athlete of the Year honors. The MAC Swimmer of the Year honorees, Chris Sheerer of Albright and Gretchen Geiger round out the list.

Student-athletes are selected from men's basketball, women's basketball, men's track & field, women's track & field, men's swimming and women's swimming.

The Honor Roll comprises those student-athletes of sophomore class standing or higher who participated in a varsity-level sport and registered a cumulative grade point average of 3.20 (4.00 scale) or higher and completed the playing season in good standing.

Messiah led in selections with 42 student-athletes, while Elizabethtown was second with 39. Lebanon Valley was third (32), while DeSales had 26 student-athletes on the list. Albright had 25 student-athletes for fifth, followed by Arcadia with 24. Widener seventh with 19, followed by Lycoming (16), King's (14), Delaware Valley (12), FDU-Florham (8), Wilkes (7) and Manhattanville (5).

Featured on the winter honor roll are several standouts including both Commonwealth and Freedom Conference women's basketball Players of the Year, Nikki Lobach of Messiah and LeighAnn Burke of DeSales and men's basketball Commonwealth Conference Player of the Year, Albert Medoro of Albright. Also featured on the honor roll are MAC Most Outstanding Performers of men's and women's indoor track, Drew Graybeal of Elizabethtown and Kristen Bates of Messiah.

Student-athletes are selected from men's basketball, women's basketball, men's swimming, women's swimming, men's indoor track and women's indoor track.

Academic Honor Roll

2005 Spring Academic Honor Roll Announced

ANNVILLE, Pa. – The Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Corporation Spring Academic Honor Roll, which notes academic excellence by student-athletes, contains 464 honorees as announced by Executive Director Ken Andrews.

The Honor Roll comprises those student-athletes of sophomore class standing or higher who participated in a varsity-level sport and registered a cumulative grade point average of 3.20 (4.00 scale) or higher and completed the playing season in good standing. Messiah led in total selections with 50, while Elizabethtown was second with 47 student-athletes on the list. Susquehanna was third with 42 student-athletes and Scranton was fourth with 41, followed by Drew (35), Moravian (32), King's (30), Juniata (27), Widener (25), Albright (24), DeSales (23) and Wilkes (23), Lebanon Valley (18) and FDU-Florham (18), Lycoming (16) and Delaware Valley (13).

Featured on the Spring Honor Roll are several standouts including All-American and Commonwealth Conference softball Player of the Year Heather Bortz of Moravian, All-American and Commonwealth Conference softball Pitcher of the Year Meagan Hennessy of Moravian and All-American and Middle Atlantic Conference women's lacrosse Player of the Year Kayte Hall of Messiah.

Also on the Honor Roll are Commonwealth Conference baseball Player of the Year Pat Bergmaier of Albright, Jono Linebaugh of Messiah who was named the Middle Atlantic Conference Player of the Year in men's lacrosse, Steve Datt of Susquehanna who earned First Team All-Commonwealth Conference honors in golf, Commonwealth Conference men's tennis Player of the Year Jeremy Speicher of Albright, Laurie Agresti of Wilkes who earned Freedom Conference Pitcher of the Year honors in softball, James Bechtel of Lycoming who was named First Team All-Freedom Conference in golf and Hassan Shah of Wilkes who was a First Team All-Freedom Conference honoree in men's tennis.

Student-athletes are selected from baseball, golf, men's lacrosse, women's lacrosse, men's and women's outdoor track and field, softball and men's tennis.

Academic Honor Roll

ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL ANNOUNCED

ANNVILLE, Pa. – The Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Corporation Winter Academic Honor Roll, which notes academic excellence by student-athletes, contains 343 honorees as announced by Executive Director Ken Andrews.

The Honor Roll comprises those student-athletes of sophomore class standing or higher who participated in a varsity-level sport and registered a cumulative grade point average of 3.20 (4.00 scale) or higher and completed the playing season in good standing. Elizabethtown led in total selections with 48, while Susquehanna was second with 33 student-athletes on the list. Albright was third with 32 student-athletes and Juniata and Lebanon Valley each placed 25 on the list, followed by Scranton (23), Lycoming (22), Moravian (21), Messiah (20), DeSales (18), King's (17), Widener (15), FDU-Florham (12), Wilkes (9), Drew (8) and Delaware Valley (6).

Featured on the winter Honor Roll are several standouts including All-American and Commonwealth Conference men's basketball Player of the Year J.D. Byers of Lebanon Valley, Andy Ikeler of Albright who was the David B. Eavenson Award winner as the Most Outstanding Male Swimmer at the Middle Atlantic Conference Meet and Gina Lucrezi of DeSales who was an All-American in indoor track and field.

Also on the Honor Roll are Commonwealth Conference women's basketball Player of the Year Eli Cook of Messiah, Taryn Mellody of Scranton who was named the Freedom Conference Player of the Year in women's basketball, Steve Hawley of Lycoming who earned First Team All-Middle Atlantic Conference honors in men's swimming, First Team All-Middle Atlantic Conference honorees Steve Sanko of Elizabethtown and Scott Silvoy of Moravian in men's indoor track and field, Cindy Barner of Albright who earned First Team All-Middle Atlantic Conference honors in women's swimming and Heather McGarvie of Moravian who was an NCAA qualifier in women's indoor track and field.

Student-athletes are selected from men's and women's basketball, men's and women's swimming, men's and women's indoor track and field and wrestling.
