2012 Freedom Conference Women's Lacrosse All-Conference Teams

Annville, Pa. – The Middle Atlantic Conference has announced the 2012 All-Freedom Conference women's lacrosse teams. Fairleigh Dickinson University-Florham swept the special awards. Breana Kilpatrick took home the Player of the Year honors, Caitlyn McGinley won Rookie of the Year and Adrienne Carr earned Coach of the Year.

Kilpatrick led the Devils to an undefeated record in Freedom Conference play and the number one seed in the Freedom Conference Tournament. This season, she won Freedom Conference Player of the Week honors twice and leads the Devils in goals (59), points (74), shots (123), game-winning goals (4), ground balls (58), draw controls (48) and caused turnovers (36) while ranking third in assists (15).

McGinley is the leader of the FDU defense in just her first season. Having started every game for the Devils, she ranks second on the team in caused turnovers (20) while also collecting seven goals and 21 ground balls.

Carr collects Coach of the Year honors for the second time in her career. She led the Devils to double-digit wins for the seventh consecutive season and guided her team to the Freedom Conference Tournament for the sixth straight year.
