MIDDLE ATLANTIC CONFERENCE FOOTBALL PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Trey Lee (Stevenson, So., RB / Lusby, Md.) tied a Stevenson single-game school-record for rushing touchdowns with four in a 57-0 victory over Fairleigh Dickinson-Florham. He averaged 9.0 yards per carry while rushing for 153 yards on 17 attempts. Lee finished the day with 185 all-purpose yards with the addition of 32 receiving yards.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Steve Barroso (Albright, Jr., LB / Toms River N.J.) had nine tackles, two tackles-for-loss, an interception and a pass break-up in Albright's 30-24 double-overtime win over King's. The junior had two big defensive plays in the victory. With King's driving for a go-ahead score early in the third quarter, Barroso intercepted a pass at the Albright 13-yard line. In the second overtime, with King's facing a fourth-and-two on the Albright five-yard line, Barroso made the tackle stopping the runner short of the first-down marker.

SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Daniel Sobolewski (Albright, Jr., K/P / Linden, N.J.) drilled a school-record 52-yard field goal in the Lions' 30-24 victory over King's. Sobolewski topped his own record when he easily connecting on the 52-yard FG in the second quarter. The junior also averaged 42.5 yards on two punts. He pinned one punt inside the 20-yard line. Sobolewski averaged 66.4 yards on five kickoffs and recorded two touchbacks, including an 80-yard kickoff for a touchback.
