Gareth Rees

Gareth Rees is a University of Victoria graduate (BA, 1991) and a proud alum of the Vikes men’s rugby program. He completed his post-graduate studies at Keble College in England before going on to star in the top European professional rugby leagues in France, England and Wales. Rees helped form the backbone of Canada’s international team for 14 years, earned 55 international caps and played in four Rugby World Cups. He was the first Canadian inducted into the World Rugby Hall of Fame (2011), the first and only rugby player in Canada’s Sports Hall of Fame (2014) and is a member of the UVic Sports Hall of Fame inaugural class (2002). Gareth is currently Director of Commercial and Program Relations for Rugby Canada.
