

GAC OFFICIATING CONFLICT OF INTEREST STATEMENT

1. Officials that are currently employed by a GAC school will not officiate any contests involving that school and will be restricted to working only non-conference contests.
2. Former coaches or other employees at a GAC school may not officiate a contest involving that institution within 10 years of last working at the school.
3. Officials with children that are on a GAC roster may not officiate that school during their child's career or within 10 years of their child's playing career ending.
4. All GAC game officials will receive education in recognizing conflicts of interest and when to recuse themselves from working contests.
5. GAC administrators and coaches are urged to notify the conference if they see potential conflicts of interest on listed assignments.
