WEST FLORIDA LEADS WOMEN'S SOCCER ALL-GSC SELECTIONS

Birmingham, AL— The Gulf South Conference was proud to announce its All-Conference Women's Soccer honors for the 2012 season on Tuesday.

The 32-member team is headlined by West Florida, who leads all schools with eight overall honorees, including six First Team selections. Alabama-Huntsville had six players, while North Alabama, and Valdosta State each had five. West Alabama added three members, West Georgia, two, and Christian Brothers and Delta State posted one player each.

UWF's STORY SELECTED AS TOP PLAYER

West Florida goalkeeper Sarah Story was chosen as Player of the Year as a result of her stellar play in goal this season. Story, a native of Hoover, Ala., led the GSC in goals-against average (0.73) and save percentage (.841). She was second with six shutouts and fourth in saves, with 53. She also was named the GSC Defender of the Week three times this season.

UAH's FIOCCA SELECTED AS TOP FRESHMAN

Alabama-Huntsville forward Sydney Fiocca enjoyed a productive first season for UAH and was chosen as Freshman of the Year. She tied eighth in points in the GSC with 15, while her seven goals ranked her in a tie for seventh place. She led the GSC with five game-winning goals.

UWF's BARTLINSKI SELECTED AS TOP COACH

West Florida head coach Joe Bartlinski was named GSC Coach of the Year after leading UWF to an astounding 15-1-0 record, including an undefeated 8-0 conference record. A former player, he competed as a player at both Brevard and Elon, leading both teams from the goalkeeper position.
