UWF AND DSU WIN GSC ALL-SPORTS TROPHIES

Birmingham, AL—The University of West Florida and Delta State University each finished at the top of the 2013-14 Gulf South Conference All-Sports Trophy standings.

UWF led the way by claiming the first-ever Overall All-Sports Trophy, while also earning its ninth consecutive Women's All-Sports Trophy. DSU spoiled the Argonauts hopes of third straight All-Sports' sweep by notching its first Men's All-Sports Trophy since 2004.

West Florida cruised past the field in the Overall standings, compiling an even 78.000 total points which was nearly 24 points more than second-place Alabama Huntsville (54.625). UWF broke its own record for the number of GSC Championships in the same season by one school, tallying eight Titles in 2013-14. The Argonauts began the year with both Soccer Crowns and another Volleyball Title. West Florida did not stop there, winning its first-ever Women's Basketball trophy followed by spring titles in Men's and Women's Tennis and Men's and Women's Golf.

Valdosta State and West Alabama tied for third (50.750) in the Overall standings, followed by North Alabama (49.125), Delta State (47.250), West Georgia (37.875) and Christian Brothers (36.125).

West Florida continued its Women's All-Sports dominance, stretching its streak to a GSC-record nine, 10 in the last 11 years. In fact, UWF continued the longest streak by any school in Men's or Women's All-Sports Trophy history. The Argonauts celebrated their 12th overall trophy, totaling 36.750 points behind Conference Championships in Basketball, Soccer, Volleyball, Golf and Tennis. Alabama-Huntsville earned second-place via 28.250 points, followed by Valdosta State (26.875), North Alabama (25.125) and West Georgia (20.250). Christian Brothers (17.875) and Delta State tied for sixth-place (17.875) and West Alabama (16.375) completed the women's list.

Delta State put the brakes on a nine-year All-Sports skid, clipping West Florida by less than one point, 28.625 to 27.875. DSU claimed its first Men's Trophy since 2004 and its fourth overall honoree dating back to 1998-99. The Statesmen used impressive regular seasons to push themselves to the top, earning Regular Season Titles in Basketball and Baseball. Delta State also finished in second-place in Football and Golf.

West Alabama finished third for the second year in a row (26.875), while Alabama Huntsville (23.325) and North Alabama (21.875) completed the Top Five. Rounding out the Men's Standings were sixth-place Valdosta State (18.500), Christian Brothers (15.125) and West Georgia (14.000).

The Conference will present the All-Sports Trophies at its Annual Awards Banquet, Thursday, June 26th, at the Hilton Pensacola Beach in Pensacola Beach, FL. At that time, the GSC will also recognize its "Top Ten" student-athletes, announce the winners of the Commissioner's Trophies and enshrine the inaugural GSC Hall of Fame class.
