#HLMBB NEWS & NOTES

- Cleveland State was voted as the preseason favorites this season for the first time since 2009 after winning the Horizon League Men's Basketball Championship last season. The Vikings are also coming off a season where they earned a share of its first #HLMBB regular season title since the 2010-11 campaign and the No. 1 seed for the championship for the first time in program history.
- Despite losing Player of the Year Loudon Love, Wright State was selected second in this season's preseason poll and returns four starters from last year's team that claimed at least a share of the regular season title for the third-straight year. The Raiders return preseason All-League honorees Holden and Grant Basile.
- Northern Kentucky made it three-straight appearances in the Horizon League Men's Basketball Championship semifinals last season and will look to do it again this year behind 2021 Freshman of the Year Marques Warrick and All-League Second Team selection Trevon Faulkner, who were both named to the Preseason All-League team prior to this season.
- Preseason All-HL First Team selection Jalen Moore led the NCAA in assists last season with 8.4 per game, becoming the third Oakland player to accomplish the feat since 2009. He also poured in nearly 18 points per game. Moore will be joined this season by Marquette transfer Jamal Cain who averaged almost 10 points a game for the Golden Eagles last season.
- Purdue Fort Wayne will look to continue its hot shooting from last season as the Mastodons were the only team in the country in 2020-21 to shoot over 50 percent from the floor and 40 percent from 3-point range. Preseason All-Horizon League selection Jarred Godfrey will look to lead the way once again for the 'Dons this season.
- First-year head coach Matt Crenshaw takes over for his alma mater at IUPUI where he is the all-time assist leader in program history and a member of the Athletics Hall of Fame. He will lean on B.J. Maxwell this season after the Jags lost All-Horizon League honoree Marcus Burk.
- Youngstown State has averaged just under 10 #HLMBB wins over the last two seasons as head coach Jerrod Calhoun enters his fifth season at the helm. The Guins return a core group from last season including Michael Akuchie who was fifth in the HL in rebounding including setting a HL single-game record with 24 boards.
- RMU's Andy Toole prepares for his second year in the Horizon League with a solid core of returners, including Kahliel Spear and Kam Farris, and newcomers featuring Rasheem Dunn.
- Second-year head coach Luke Yaklich looks to build off last season with seniors Michael Diggins and Jamie Ahale along with transfers Zion Griffin, Kevin Johnson and Damaria Franklin.
- Green Bay lost a heart breaker in double overtime last year in the first round of the Horizon League Basketball Championship in Will Ryan's first season with the Phoenix. He will look to improve on last year's performance with the help of All-Freshman Team honoree Lucas Stieber and Emmanuel Ansong.

HORIZON LEAGUE INITIATIVES

We Are All One Team

"We Are All One Team" provides a voice for the League, its members and student-athletes in a dynamic and unified way, and is built on the notion that although schools and student-athletes compete against each other, through a commitment to stewardship and respect, and by working together, we can create meaningful and impactful change.

#OneHL

A subset of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC), the #OneHL Group is a student-athlete-led initiative that seeks to celebrate unity, inclusion and bring meaningful change and impacting social issues such as racial injustice across the Horizon League by encouraging student-athlete to Be The Change.

This year, the #OneHL group has created a campaign to help amplify the message of playing "Lift Every Voice and Sing" at HL contests. Last year, the group worked on a voter registration rallies on campus and also a video series that tackled subjects like cultural injustice and social awareness.

Coach John McLendon Day

For the second year, the Horizon League will be Coach John McLendon Day Feb. 11-12. Former Cleveland State University head men's basketball coach John McLendon was hired in 1966, becoming the first African American head coach at a predominately white institution. He led the Vikings for three seasons. In January, McLendon was posthumously honored as the 2021 Theodore Roosevelt Award honoree, the highest distinction the NCAA awards.

McLendon is a two-time inductee into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame as a contributor and later as a coach. He has been recognized due to his lifetime of work pioneering and innovating college basketball.

More information on the celebration will be forthcoming closer to the event.
