2011

Maalik Reynolds (Penn) and Donn Cabral (Princeton) shared the award after Reynolds won the high jump with a mark of 7-5 $\frac{3}{4}$, second-best in meet history, while Cabral won the 10k and the steeplechase.

2012

Donn Cabral (Princeton) not only became the first three-time winner of the 10K and the steeplechase, but also the first Ivy to accomplish the feat in three-straight years.

Prior to the 2012-13 season, the Most Outstanding Performer award was changed to Most Outstanding Performer - Field and Most Outstanding Performer - Track.

2013

Cornell swept the two awards, as Bruno Hortelano-Roig was Track Most Outstanding Performer and Stephen Mozia was Field Most Outstanding Performer. Hortelano-Roig became the first Big Red to win the 200m and 400m in the same meet, while Mozia won the shot put, took fourth in the discus and fifth in the hammer.

2014

Max Hairston (Cornell) won the 110mH and 400mH, the first Ivy to accomplish the feat since 1989, and helped the Big Red win the 4x400m relay. Maalik Reynolds (Penn) became a three-time outdoor high jump winner after holding off Cornell's Montez Blair.

2015

Tom Awad (Penn) claimed both the 1,500m and 5,000m runs, while Stephen Mozia (Cornell) won his fourth-straight outdoor shot put and placed second in the discus, with the second-best marks in meet history in both events.
