THE RHODES SCHOLARSHIP

The Rhodes Scholarship is one of the most prestigious scholarships in the world, is given in honor of Cecil Rhodes. Rhodes Scholars are awarded full tuition and fees to pursue their course of study at the University of Oxford for two years, with the possibility of a third year. The first American Scholars were elected in 1904 and regional committees select just 32 Rhodes Scholars each year. Ivy League football has claim to 38. Special thanks to Robin Patsey and John Eschenbach for the research.

All-Time Awards

ASA S. BUSHNELL CUP

The Asa S. Bushnell Cup is an annual award initiated in 1970, which honors Asa S. Bushnell, Princeton '21, and Commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference from 1938 to 1970. Presented by the Eastern Association of Intercollegiate Football Officials, the Bushnell Cup is awarded by vote of the Ivy League's eight head football coaches to the players who display outstanding qualities of leadership, competitive spirit, contribution to the team, and accomplishments on the field.

From 1970 to 2010, the Bushnell Cup recognized a Player of the Year (or Co-Players of the Year if there was a tie in the voting). Beginning with the 2010 season, the award is presented as a part of the festivities surrounding the National Football Foundation Annual Awards Dinner in New York City with four finalists named a week prior to the presentation.

Beginning with the 2011 season, the award recognizes Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year, honoring both as Bushnell Cup recipients. Two offensive players and two defensive players are named Player of the Year finalists a week prior to the presentation.
