One of my first full-time jobs was as a baseball play-by-play announcer, and I still marvel at the remarkable individual skills and precision teamwork of those who play the game well.

The players competing in the 1983 National Junior College Athletic Association Baseball Tournament certainly are in that category, and the fans fortunate enough to be here are in for a real treat.

Best wishes to each of you for an exciting tournament and a pleasant visit to Grand Junction, Colorado.

CHALLENGING OURSELVES

To Win 1982 Crown

Middle Georgia Comes Back

It was almost a carbon copy.

Seminole had Middle Georgia on the ropes twice, holding a 6-1 lead early on the next to the last day of play and a 6-2 advantage in the third inning of the championship game. But it wasn't enough either time as Middle Georgia fought back to win its third Junior College World Series baseball tournament championship in four years with an 11-7 victory.

Middle Georgia, the top-rated team going into the tournament, accomplished the feat the hard way, coming back through the loser bracket after an 8-3 loss to Seminole. Middle Georgia, 53-3, which beat Seminole 11-10 to force a final game, also won the tournament under Coach Robert Sapp in 1979 and 1980.

"The first title was absolutely great, because everything was new," Sapp said after the post-game celebrations subsided. "The key thing here was we got into the loser bracket, and we came back and won three straight."

"We've got a lot of most valuable players."

Actually, freshman left fielder Kal Daniels, who batting .476, hit three home runs and led the tournament with 17 runs batted in — one short of the record — in Middle Georgia's seven-game stint, was the MVP. Daniels went 2-for-3 with his third home run of the competition, a two-run opposite field shot in the seventh that gave the winners the final cushion, plus an RBI single and a pair of walks.

"Last night they kind of had my number in a way," said Daniels, a third-round draft choice of the New York Mets who went hitless in Middle Georgia's victory on Thursday. "I was just missing."

"But I saw the ball great tonight. I knew I just had to come in and hit the ball somewhere."

"In Thursday's game he was trying to pull everything, and we tried to tell him that he could hit as well going the opposite way," Sapp said. "He did it one time, and it was enough."

Daniels wasn't the only hero for Middle Georgia, though. There was relief pitcher Bo Taylor, who came on with two out in the first and limited the potent Seminole attack to three runs the rest of the way. There was defensive stalwart Ricky Wiggins, the third baseman who hit a sacrifice fly in the sixth to put Middle Georgia ahead for good at 8-7, and catcher Mike Blair, who hit a line double to make it 9-7.

And there was No. 8 hitter Alex Diaz, who hit a pair of key two-run home runs in each of the last two games, and who added a two-run double on Friday. Diaz had only six hits in the tournament, but four were home runs. Diaz, who had a regular-season batting mark of .264 didn't hit for average in the tournament either, but ended up with nine RBIs.

"I started out slow this year, but sometimes I came through in the clutch," Diaz said. "Just like tonight."

"He got some big home runs for us," Sapp said.

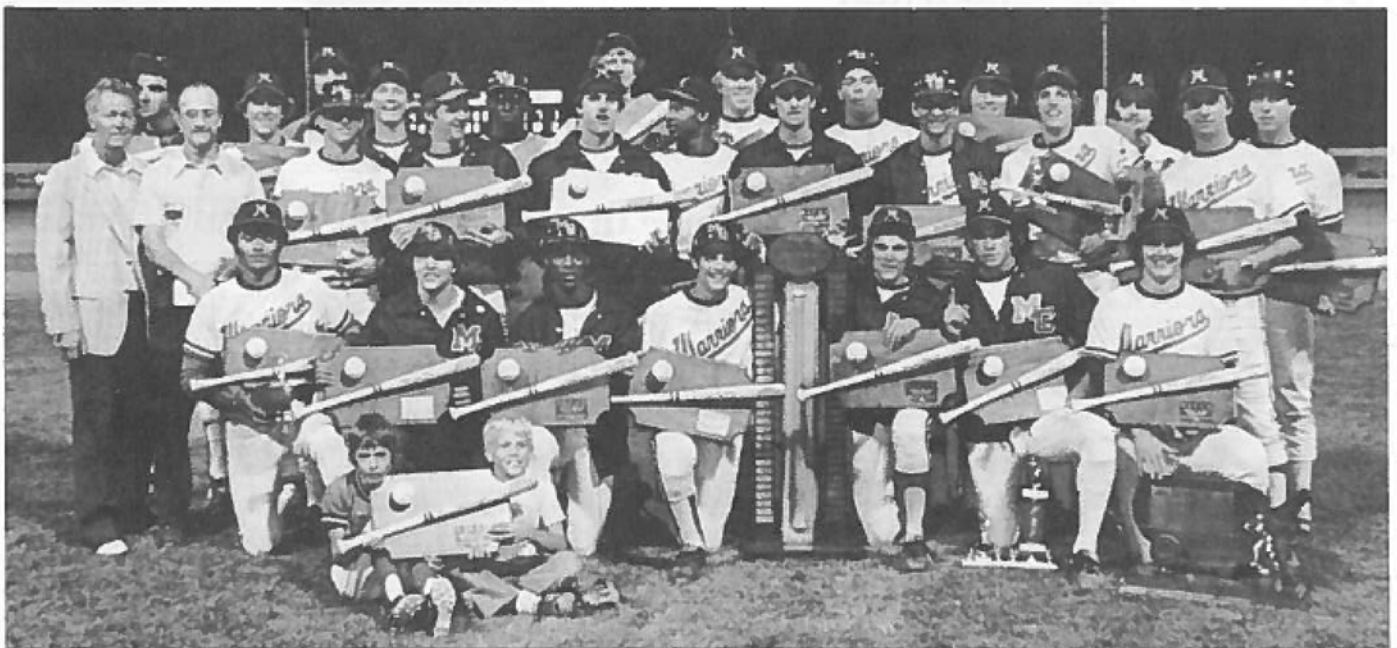

Seminole, at 86-9 the runnerup for the second straight season, capitalized on Middle Georgia starter Jerry Slagle's control problems for four runs in the first. Slagle walked Nos. 3, 4 and 5 hitters Brad Thomas, Jose Tolentino and Darren Loy, then hit designated hitter Jeff Shafer to force a run before Sapp had seen enough. Jamie Doughty greeted reliever Taylor with a three-run double to left-center.

Middle Georgia answered with a pair of unearned runs in its half of the first, with Daniels and Scott Powers driving in runs, before Seminole got a single run off Brad Thomas' RBI double in the second and Tolentino's solo home run — and his fourth of the tourney — in the third inning.

But that was about it for Seminole, which got only two hits in the last six innings off Taylor who retired 10 of the last 12 batters. The only other damage was a solo home run by Todd Strickland in the sixth.

Middle Georgia got back into contention in the third with the help of some Seminole pitching wildness. Starter Kirk Burgess walked the first three batters before hitting the showers, and Blair knocked in a run with an infield grounder before Diaz golfed a low curve for a two-run double to make it 6-5.

Diaz added a two-run home run in the fifth, Wiggins and Powers drove in runs in the key two-run sixth, and Daniels added the two-run home run in the seventh for added measure.

White Sox' Bobby Winkles No Stranger To Baseball

By RAY COCA

Bobby Winkles is no stranger to baseball and his accomplishments verify the type of individuals involved in America's pastime.

The 51 year-old Winkles was the guest speaker of the 1983 JUCO banquet.

Bobby Brooks Winkles, director of player development for the Chicago White Sox of the American League, made his mark in baseball when he accepted a job in Arizona at a relatively unknown University (1959).

made ASU a winner...

Under the direction of the former Minor League infielder, Arizona State University became a house-hold name: winning three NCAA titles, compiling a .750 winning percentage, had 68 players sign professional contracts, had the distinction of the first player selected in the draft (Rick Monday, 1965), 11 players were first team All-Americans and Coach Winkles was named College Coach of the year by the Sporting News (1965-1967-1969), NCAA Coach of the Year (1965 & 1969), District Seven Coach of the Year (1964-1965-1967-1969), Columbus, Ohio TD Club Coach of the Year (1969) and was honored by Adirondack Bat Company (1969) for his contribution to amateur baseball plus was selected to coach the Pan American games in 1971, where the United States won a silver medal.

Winkles, who played shortstop on the Colorado Springs Sky Sox team (1951 & 1954), started from scratch at ASU... one of the first duties was to help build his own diamond to play on.

Winkles then went to work on the Sun Devil schedule and slowly eliminated the junior colleges and Air Force bases which comprised the majority of ASU's games.

After getting his foot in the door and the ground work underway, the Swifton, AR, native went on the recruiting trail.

"I looked for players with ability and were good students — basically a 'good person' is what I wanted on my team", remarked Winkles.

JUCO Tournament Director Sam Suplizio echoed Winkles' comments: "We had an agreement with ASU when the Eagles (a semi-pro team in Grand Junction) were going strong and Winkles would send down players.

"All of the ASU players were very disciplined, class people, and they all had an extreme desire to play the game. Winkles has a good ability to pick student/athletes, which again is a tribute to selection of a well rounded individual and not just an athlete."

According to Suplizio, Winkles is the only college coach to ever manage in the Major Leagues (Oakland, 1977) and moved up in the ranks because "he is an excellent teacher of the game."

What separates Winkles from other coaches? "He lives, breathes, and is totally dedicated to the advancement of the game of baseball and helping young people advance," replied Suplizio.

When scouting college players, Winkles explained what he looks for: "If I'm looking at a hitter, I watch for quickness of the bat; as far as pitchers are concerned, they must have a good fast ball, good strong arm and be able to throw hard; the fielders must possess speed — speed can turn a game around; I never look for the DH type."

After his domination of college baseball (the graduates of his program read like the "Who's Who" of the Major Leagues including Yankee/Angel Star Reggie Jackson and former Oakland All-Star Sal Bando), Winkles joined the California Angels as a coach in 1972 and was manager of the team in 1973. He later was a coach at Oakland and San Francisco before being named to pilot the A's June 11, 1977. He resigned as manager of the A's, May 23, 1978, with his team leading the A.L. West with a 24-15 record.

Although very successful as manager of the A's, Winkles and Oakland's controversial owner, Charlie O. Finley, never saw eye-to-eye. "He was a tough man to work for. I'm not going to say anything derogatory about him. When I quit enjoying being a manager, I'll quit."

Winkles, who resides in Anaheim, CA, played for the Tulsa Oilers and Charleston Charlies. Winkles attended Illinois Wesleyan (Bloomington, IL) and the University of Colorado before signing his first pro contract in 1951, with the Sox. He played eight seasons in the White Sox farm system, batting .271 in 858 games.

He earned his master's degree before he coached at ASU. Winkles and his wife, Ellie, have two daughters — Kelly and Jaimie.

Nineteen hundred and eighty two was the beginning of a tradition for the annual JUCO Tournament. A trio of outstanding Junior College World Series Pioneers — Jay Tolman, Martin "Pug" Marich and Homa Thomas — were the charter members of the NJCAA Hall of Fame. All three were instrumental in establishing the JUCO World Series twenty-five years ago. It is with pride that three more names are added to the Hall of Fame, firmly establishing a tradition of excellence and integrity associated with the coaching and administration of the JUCO teams.

Reviewing Yesteryear's Champions

1982 — The Middle Georgia Warriors celebrated their third National Junior College Baseball Tournament title in four years by defeating the Seminole (Okla.) Trojans 11-7. Middle Georgia came back to win the JUCO title after losing to Seminole earlier in the tournament. Homers by Alex Diaz and Kal Daniels and a fine relief pitching effort by Bo Taylor paced the Warriors.

1981 — Miami-Dade South won five straight games, as the Jaguars' raw hitting talent crushed the opposition, to win national honors. The Florida team set a record for most runs as they averaged 13.8 per game and pounded the ball at a .388 clip.

1980 — Cleveland State won the battle of the statistics, but Middle Georgia won the war and the National Championship. The Warriors left little doubt in anyone's mind as to who was in control during the finale, as they pounded Cleveland State for 19 hits in winning a second consecutive title 18-8. During their stay, the Cougars from Tennessee broke four tournament records, landed four on the all-tournament team, plus the most valuable player award was given to one of their stars, Greg Geren.

1979 — The Middle Georgia Warriors beat a determined Panola Texas team two-out-of-three games to clinch the National championship trophy.

Coach Robert Sapp's team put on a display of power before a record setting crowd in the finals to whip the Texas faction 8-4 after dropping a 4-2 decision in the semi-finals. The Warriors broke a team record by scoring 59 runs in six games and placed five players on the All-Tournament team plus team member Tommy Dunbar was chosen as the most valuable player, out of the 223 players that participated in the seven-day event.

1978 — The Ranger Junior College Rangers from Ranger, Texas came into Grand Junction with both six-guns blazing and rode into the sunset with the National Junior College Baseball Championship. It was the second national title for the Rangers and the second time they broke up a three-year domination of the Arizona Connection. However, Ranger met defending champion Yavapai in the finals and won a heads-up duel by a 12-5 margin and finished with a 4-1 record.

1977 — Ho, hum...Another National Junior College Baseball Championship is taken home by the Arizona representative. Out of the 20 National Junior College Baseball Tournaments, Arizona teams have won ten and six out of the last eight events. This year, Yavapai conquered the 10-team field by scoring at a 9.0 run average in winning six of seven games. Spear-headed by MVP Dan Townsend and Robert Purkey, Jr. Memorial winner Rick Kranitz, a 5-11 righthander, the Rough Riders turned back a determined DeKalb squad twice during the tournament. Yavapai finally applied the clincher 10-4 in the finals over DeKalb after suffering its only loss (8-7) the night before in what turned out to be one of the most interesting and controversial games in the history of JUCO baseball.

1976 — A well balanced determined baseball team, representing Central Arizona College won the 1976 JUCO Tournament. The Vaqueros from Casa Grande, Ariz., upended St. Clair College 10-8 in the finals. A total of six Central Arizona individuals were named to the all-tournament team while Jim Morley was presented the MVP award. It was the ninth JUCO crown claimed by an Arizona Junior College.

1975 — Yavapai College of Prescott, Ariz., had to beat defending champion Meramec twice to win the National Tournament, but the Roughriders pulled up their boot straps and whipped five straight teams. It was the eighth time for a team out of the Southwestern Region to win the crown in the past 17 years. Yavapai finished undefeated and came-from-behind to beat Meramec 7-3 in the finals, but Neil Fiala won the MVP award. Steve Coats of Louisburg highlighted the tourney with five home runs in four games to set a new record which incidentally was the only one broken in the 14 games played.

1974 — For the first time in the 17-year history of the National Tournament a team from the Central Division won the event... Meramec Community College of St. Louis, Mo. The Warriors utilized the balance of pitchers Mike Murphy and Joe Muich plus the offensive and defensive play of shortstop Steve Vieffhaus to claim the title with five straight victories. Meramec topped Miami-Dade North 6-4 in the finals before a sell-out crowd in Lincoln Park.

1973 — Ranger, Tex., broke a three-year domination by the Mesa Arizona HoKams and captured the tourney with a 5-1 record. The Texans, sparked by the MVP pitcher Donnie Moore, knocked the defending champion into the losers' bracket in the opening round and eventually whipped Gulf Coast of Panama City, Fla., 5-0 in the championship finals.

1972 — Mesa Community College of Mesa, Ariz., became a triple crown winner by defeating Manatee College of Florida 4-2. Individual standout for the HoKams was outfielder Greg Snowden. Snowden repeated on the all-tournament team and was named the 1972 tournament's Most Valuable Player.

1971 — Mesa Community College of Mesa, Ariz., won its second straight baseball championship with a 7-2 triumph over Miami-Dade North of Miami, Fla. Miami won its first four tournament games, but the hustling HoKams came out of the losers' bracket to defeat the Falcons twice on the final two days of the tournament. Jim Otten of Mesa was selected as the tourney's Most Valuable Player after winning two games and playing in the outfield in the other tournament contests.

1970 — After finishing second in 1969, the HoKams of Mesa Community College of Mesa, Ariz., reached the JUCO tourney throne room in 1970. Coach Jim Brock's HoKams defeated Mesa College of Grand Junction 8-0. Jim Otten held the Mavs to three hits and Ken Reed, one of the smallest players in the tournament, delivered a key two-run homer. Larry Patton of Columbia State College, Tenn., won the most valuable player award.

1969 — Panola College of Carthage, Tex., used only 12 players in the six-day, double-elimination but the lack of depth did not hamper the tireless Texans from capturing the national title with an 8-6 victory over Mesa, Ariz. Most Valuable Player honors went to Doug Ault, who won three games in the tournament for Panola, and hit .318. Ault played in the outfield when not pitching. Randy Bayer, a 6-5 first baseman with sprinter speed from Mesa, Ariz., was voted the player most likely to succeed.

1968 — Glendale Community College battled the odds to win the national crown. The Gauchos dropped their tournament opener 15-8 at the hands of Manatee College but rebounded to win five straight games and the crown. Glendale's Otis McCowan was selected as the tournament's Most Valuable Player.

1967 — The Bacone Warriors lashed out 16 hits to defeat Odessa 10-4 for the national title. Gerald Pirtle of Bacone was the recipient of the most valuable player award, Ed Bravo of Miami-Dade was the top hitter with a .500 average and Larry Koch of Nassau was voted the most likely to succeed.

1966 — Nassau Community College of Garden City, N.Y. won its first national title with a come-from-behind victory over Miami-Dade College of Miami, Fla., 9-6. Joe Arnold, the Miami-Dade pitcher, was selected as the tourney's most valuable player while Miami catcher Bob Stinson was named the player most likely to succeed in professional baseball. Steve Lohrer of Nassau was the tourney's leading hitter.

1965 — Phoenix College won its third national title with a 9-6 victory over Gulf Coast College of Panama City, Fla. Tom Burgess of the Bears won three games and was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player. Tom Robson of Phoenix was meet's top hitter with 13 hits in 24 times at bat.

1964 — Miami-Dade College of Miami, Fla., swamps the Mesa College Mavericks 19-5 in the final game. Mack Gendreau of the Mavs is voted most valuable player and sets tournament strikeout record with 31.

1963 — Wilmington, N.C. wins second JUCO title by beating Manatee, Fla., 9-2. Ken Widman of Long Island, N.Y. is most valuable player while Phil Dickens of Manatee is voted most likely to succeed in professional baseball and signs $50,000 bonus contract after tournament.

1962 — Phoenix College claims second national title by upsetting defending champion Wilmington, N.C., 13-5. Lee McFarland, Phoenix pitcher is named most valuable player while 17-year old George Jones of Trinidad College sets tournament batting record with a sensational .647 average.

1961 — Wilmington, N.C., wins first tournament title by whipping Mesa College in finals and semi-final, 8-3 and 16-9 respectively. Ron Durham of Wilmington named Most Valuable Player.

1960 — Phoenix College won the tournament for the first time, a feat it would repeat twice in the next 5 years.

1959 — Paris, Texas, was the first JUCO champion witnessed by Grand Junction fans. Labeled the "Iron Men" (arriving with only 10 players) they won the championship.

1958 — Cameron College of Oklahoma won the first National Invitational Baseball Tournament, which was hosted by Northeastern A&M in Miami, Oklahoma. A total of eight teams attended with Cameron defeating Northeastern Oklahoma 9-6 in the finals. Navarro (Texas) was third followed by Lamar (Colorado), Trinidad (Colorado), Phoenix (Arizona), Dodge City (Kansas), and Ellsworth (Iowa).

Most Valuable Players...Were Invaluable

1982 — Left fielder Kal Daniels of Middle Georgia and teammate Scott Skripko shared MVP honors in 1982. Skripko was selected the most valuable team player. The 6-1 sophomore from Hampton, N.J., hit .448 while Daniels hit .476 with three home runs and 17 RBI's while going 2-for-3, including three RBI's and a two-run homer in the championship game.

1981 — What Curtis Morgan of Seminole Junior college accomplished at the National Tournament — most players would consider a good season.

The Oklahoma native had a sparkling .636 batting average, driving in 15 runs on 14 hits with three home runs, one triple and three doubles and delivered one game winning hit to lead his team to National runner-up honors.

1980 — Cleveland State did not win the National Championship but one of its players was chosen as MVP — Greg Geren, 6-1, 197-pound, sophomore from Cleveland Tennessee.

The righthanded slugger broke the tournament record for RBI's with 18, batted .393 and scored eight times as the strong outfielder helped the Cougars to second place.

1979 — Freshman Tommy Dunbar displayed his versatility on the field and at the plate to pace Middle Georgia to a National Championship.

The superb, 5-11, 170-pound centerfielder hit .444, with four extra base hits, two stolen bases, scored six times and drove in seven runs to help the Warriors finish with a 5-1 tournament record.

1978 — Jim Mick, a powerful freshman from Brooklyn, N.Y., was voted the MVP after he led Ranger Junior College to the national championship.

The 6-2, 190 pound first baseman pounded the ball at a .526 clip, had two game winning hits and finished just as strong... as he went three-for-five in the finale with three RBI's and scored two runs against runnerup Yavapai of Arizona.

1977 — A defensive sensation, who also hit for a .354 batting average, named Dan Townsend, was voted the Most Valuable Player in the 1977 Tournament.

The 5-11, sophomore from Lompoc, Calif., set a tournament record of 15 RBI's and scored five runs to help lead Yavapai College of Prescott, Ariz., to the 20th annual Junior College Baseball World Series.

1976 — A righthanded, sophomore named Jim Morley, from Phoenix, Ariz., was selected as the tournament's Most Valuable Player.

Morley, a 6-0, 190 pound outfielder slugged the ball at a .473 clip and drove home eight runs to help pace Central Arizona College to the Junior College World Series Title.

1975 — Shortstop Neil Fiala of Meramec Community College had a big pair of shoes to fill when he joined the team, but the high school All-American lived up to all expectations by not only winning the MVP Award but he also captured the Big Stick Award with a .529 batting average. The 6-1½, 182-pound freshman replaced shortstop Steve Viefhaus who was the 1974 MVP on the Meramec championship team.

1974 — Steve Viefhaus of Meramec Community College accomplished some amazing feats during five straight victories and the national championship trophy won by his team.

The 6-4, 190-pound freshman collected ten hits for a .526 batting average and was near perfect at his shortstop position which not only earned him the most valuable player award but the best defensive player in the eight-team tourney.

What was an almost impossible feat, four of Viefhaus' hits sailed out of the ball park to accomplish a new home run record for the tournament.

1973 — Donnie Moore of Ranger, Tex., established himself as a one-man pitching team and guided the Rangers to their first national baseball championship.

Moore, a 6-0, 170 pound righthander, was a tireless workhorse as the Ranger pitcher tossed 30 innings, had an ERA of 1.20 and set a new tourney record of four wins without a loss. Moore finished the season with an 18-1 mark.

The Most Valuable Player award was given to Moore after balloting conducted by the press, radio, Major League scouts and the NJCAA Committee.

1972 — Hard hitting Greg Snowden of the championship Mesa, Ariz., grabbed the title while being named to the all-tournament team for the second year. Statistically, Snowden led the tourney with 10 hits, along with a .435 batting average, 10 RBI's, two triples and two home runs.

The pinpoint accuracy of his arm in the outfield also helped establish him as the top vote getter in the all-tournament selections.

1971 — Mesa, Ariz., again took the championship and again fielded the recipient of the MVP. Jim Otten pitched 20 innings on the way to a 1.35 ERA and won two games. Otten also won three games in Mesa's 1970 national triumph.

1970 — Although Columbia State Community College of Columbia, Tenn., did not win the title, one member of the Charger team displayed versatility to win the MVP award. Larry Patton won three games for the third-place Columbia team, while doubling as a slugger with five RBI's and a .471 batting average.

1969 — Once again, an outstanding athlete in both hitting and pitching came away with the MVP trophy. Doug Ault of the national champion Panola squad of Carthage, Tex., won three games along with a .318 batting average. He also drove in five runs and pitched 24 innings for a 2.62 ERA.

1968 — Glendale, Ariz., Community College won the national title, and MVP Otis McCowan was a major factor. The centerfielder tied a tourney record with two home runs, picked up a double and a triple, and was 10 for 22 during the tournament for a hefty .455 batting average.

McCowan knocked in 11 runs and scored four times himself. After completing the 1969 season, he signed with the Seattle Pilots of the American League.

1967 — National champion Bacone's pitching ace won the most valuable player award with an ERA of 0.45. Gerald Pirtle won two games, saved two more in relief, and batted .375 during the tournament slate. He gave up one earned run in 20 innings and struck out 31.

1966 — Joe Arnold of the Miami-Dade Falcons established a new tournament record when he pitched 30 2-3 innings to win the MVP trophy. The workhorse of the third-place team also played third base.

1965 — Tom Burgess was another tireless mound man to win the tournament MVP. The hurler for champion Phoenix, Ariz., broke the tourney strikeout record with 33 while pitching 23 innings and winning three games.

1964 — Mack Gendreau of Mesa College in Grand Junction permitted just one earned run and fanned 28 opposing batters while hurling two complete game victories for the Mavericks.

The Mav standout set a new tourney record of 31 strikeouts in the finals with a short relief stint.

1963 — Ken Widman of Long Island gained the MVP trophy with sharp pitching performances. Widman won two games, pitched 20 innings and struck out 17.

1962 — Lee McFarland of the national champion Phoenix Bears won the MVP award after pitching the winning game in the tournament finals. He gave up one run in 5 2-3 innings in the game, along with one win and a save in previous appearances.

1961 — Ron Durham of Wilmington won the MVP award with two homers and a .600 batting average. He still holds tourney records for most hits in one game and most tourney homers and held the pitching record of three tournament wins until 1971.

1960 — Mickey Lee of Tarleton State was an unanimous choice as the all-star catcher and the MVP. Lee batted .429 for the tournament with 15 RBI's and pounded out 11 hits.

1959 — Glendell Baker of Paris, Tex., stroked a home run, two doubles and seven singles in 19 plate appearances for a .526 average and drove in eight runs for the MVP honors.

Paris won the first NJCAA Tournament ever held in Grand Junction and did it with only ten players. Paris was picked to finish last among the eight teams.

Dear NJCAA Players and Fans:

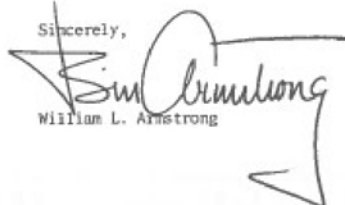

For 26 years now, the NJCAA has thrilled baseball enthusiasts with its annual championship tournament.

Grand Junction and the great state of Colorado are distinguished and fortunate once again, to host the tournament with the same excellence and anticipation as in the past.

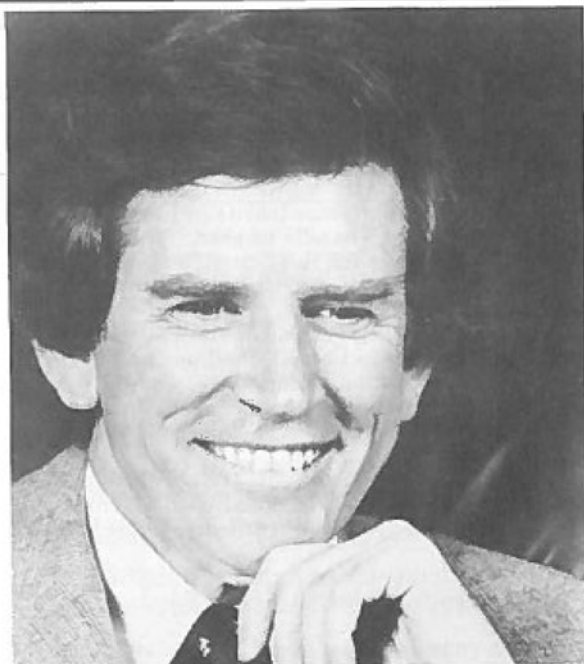

The officials and citizens of Grand Junction have made arrangements for another successful tournament, leaving only two words to be said:

Dear NJCAA Players & Tournament-goers:

I very much appreciate the opportunity to welcome the National Junior College Athletic Association Baseball Tournament to Grand Junction for the 26th year. The NJCAA and Colorado's Western Slope have had a mutually profitable relationship for a quarter century, and it's one I hope will continue forever.

No doubt this year's tournament will feature the spirited and high-caliber play that it has in the past. Our beautiful state will, I'm sure, contribute to a tremendous week.

Best of luck to everyone. Play Ball!

Sincerely,

Gary Hart

Local Sports Personality Highlights JUCO Banquet

The NJCAA Baseball Committee added a little local flavor, when Gene Rozelle accepted the role as master of ceremonies at the pre-tournament banquet.

Rozelle, a well known Grand Junction radio and television personality, was born in Danbury, NE, on September 8, 1930 and moved to Colorado (Center) at age six. The Rozelle family eventually found a home in Clifton six years later, where young Gene started his long friendship with Mesa County.

After graduation from Central High School (1948) Rozelle served in the United States Air Force from 1949 to 1954, when he was air crew qualified and worked in research.

Known as the "backbone of the broadcast team" at KREX Radio, Rozelle started his current career in Delta for KDTA. "The local sports man had a sore throat and asked me if I could describe a high school basketball game," Rozelle recalled. "That was in March of 1957, when I was working as an investigator for the Department of Agriculture," he continued.

Rozelle came to Grand Junction and worked for KEXO Radio and was hired at KREX Radio and has been with the company for the past 21 and one-half years.

A love for sports grew out of his participation in basketball and softball while in the military. Rozelle pitched in the 1953 World Softball Tournament and then was part of a barn-storming team which played against the best softball teams in the United States.

During the past decade, Rozelle has covered every inning of the NJCAA Baseball World Series for KREX Radio.

"I have had many positive experiences during the JUCO Tournament. Some of the highlights were: watching a triple play; covering the only no-hitter; watching a 21 inning game unfold; a 1-0 pitching dual and the best junior college teams in the United States," commented Rozelle.

Rozelle is a true patriot and has received numerous awards from all branches of the service, including the 1981 State American Legion Community Service Award and is a member and past Chairman for the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame Selection Committee plus he was selected for a special citation from the JUCO Committee.

"I believe in sports and enjoyed my involvement," said Rozelle, the man who has broadcast over 2,700 events.

The former University of Alabama student and his wife Nell have two children — Ricky (18) and Randy (21).
