Tough to Beat in Grand Junction

San Jacinto Overpowers 1986 JUCO FIELD

by Ray Coca

San Jacinto North of Houston, Texas, is a tournament team and tough to beat . . . not impossible, but tough.

During the past three years, the Gators' record reads: 1984, 4-2 and a JUCO runner-up trophy; 1985, 4-1, JUCO National Championship; 1986, 6-0 JUCO National Championship. This is a grand total of a 14-3 Grand Junction record, against the best possible Junior Colleges in the United States.

The Gators command respect in their own region, as the power hitting team has a combined 128-24 record coming into the JUCO Tournament the past three years.

During the 1986 competition, the Texans scored plenty of runs but were also involved in four tight games. They beat: Meramec 12-10; Nassau 18-3; Brookdale 12-11; Brevard 9-7; Yavapai 11-9; met Brevard in the finals and won the Championship game 11-4.

Sports Editor Rick Jussel compiled some interesting statistics from the 1986 extravaganza:

- There were 209 walks. That is more than ten per game.
- A total of 85 errors were committed in the first 18 games.
- In 18 games, 371 hits fell to the ground, which was 20 per game.
- JUCO Teams found a way to score 339 runs for 18 games or an average of 18.8 each contest.

According to JUCO Tournament Director Sam Suplizio, the biggest reason for all of the runs scored was the presence of aluminum bats.

"These danged aluminum bats have just made it unfair for the pitchers," Suplizio said. "We must do something about them."

"We had individuals playing in this tournament (1986) hitting the baseballs into and over the light poles. When I was coaching Mike Epstein and Craig Morton (Epstein, a former Major League star, and Morton, former NFL star, were both top caliber performers with the Grand Junction Eagles semi-pro baseball team back in the 1960's). They could not hit the balls that far . . . not with wood bats anyway. And, I guarantee you, they were better players than the ones who hit the balls out of the park now (1986) with the aluminum," Suplizio continued.

However, one of the positive aspects was the attendance which was around 73,000 and short of the 75,000 record. If Brevard had beaten the Gators in the Friday night contest, it would have forced the event into one more night and the attendance would have pushed 80,000 fans.

San Jacinto plays out of the South Central Region and it is the second strongest in the tournament. The Arizona teams have dominated the affair, with ten championships in the past 29 years and the South Central (Texas Region) is right behind with seven titles. The other region finishing in the money, would be the South Eastern as the Florida/ Georgia teams have won five of the 29 titles. Other Regions winning titles were: Central (3), Eastern (2), North East (1) and North West (1).

Gators are "Number One" in Grand Junction.

THRONEBERRY paved the way for MARIS after trade by Yankees to Kansas City

by Ray Coca

"Marvelous" Marv Throneberry made a bigger contribution to Major League Baseball than anyone will ever realize.

During an interview, Marv talked about the teams he played with in the Major Leagues (Yankees, Mets, Baltimore and Kansas City) and one 'big' trade.

"I was with the Yankees and then I was traded to Kansas City. It was a trade that involved sending Roger Maris to the Yankees and of course I ended up with the Royals," the easy going Throneberry said.

Maris went on to break Babe Ruth's home run record by hitting 61 and combined with Mickey Mantle for the "M & M Connection".

Marv later ended up with an expansion team known as the Mets, in the National League.

The guest speaker at the 30th Annual Banquet, represents the Miller Lite Beer All-Stars. Tournament Chairman Sam Suplizio was excited about Throneberry's appearance in Grand Junction. "We are really pleased to have Mr. Throneberry as our special guest for 1987. The Baseball Committee also appreciates the efforts of John Simons of High Country Sales, who is responsible for bringing him to the JUCO event," Suplizio stated.

Actually, Marv's best year was with the Mets, a team, Manager Casey Stengle tabbed "amazin" as the hapless New Yorkers lost 120 games in their first season. Marv hit 16 home runs and was a fine defensive first baseman.

The Tennessee native was born on September 2, 1933 and attended Southside High School in Memphis, where he lettered in football, track and baseball.

He started his baseball career with the Yankees and tasted his first professional competition with Denver of the American Association. Denver was then known as the Bears and at that time (1955-1957) was a Yankee farm team. Throneberry was asked who was the greatest player he ever played against and with. "Mantle was one of my teammates and I later played against him . . . he was a great one. Of course, Al Kaline (Detroit) was pretty good too," he offered.

What about the players in the 1960's and today's stars? "I think the biggest difference is, they are rich and we were poor. Actually, I don't want to say much because it might cause a controversy. However, the one big difference I can see, is the relief pitchers."

"Back in my day, a relief pitcher was someone who was not good enough to be a starter. Now they specialize in relieving," he concluded.

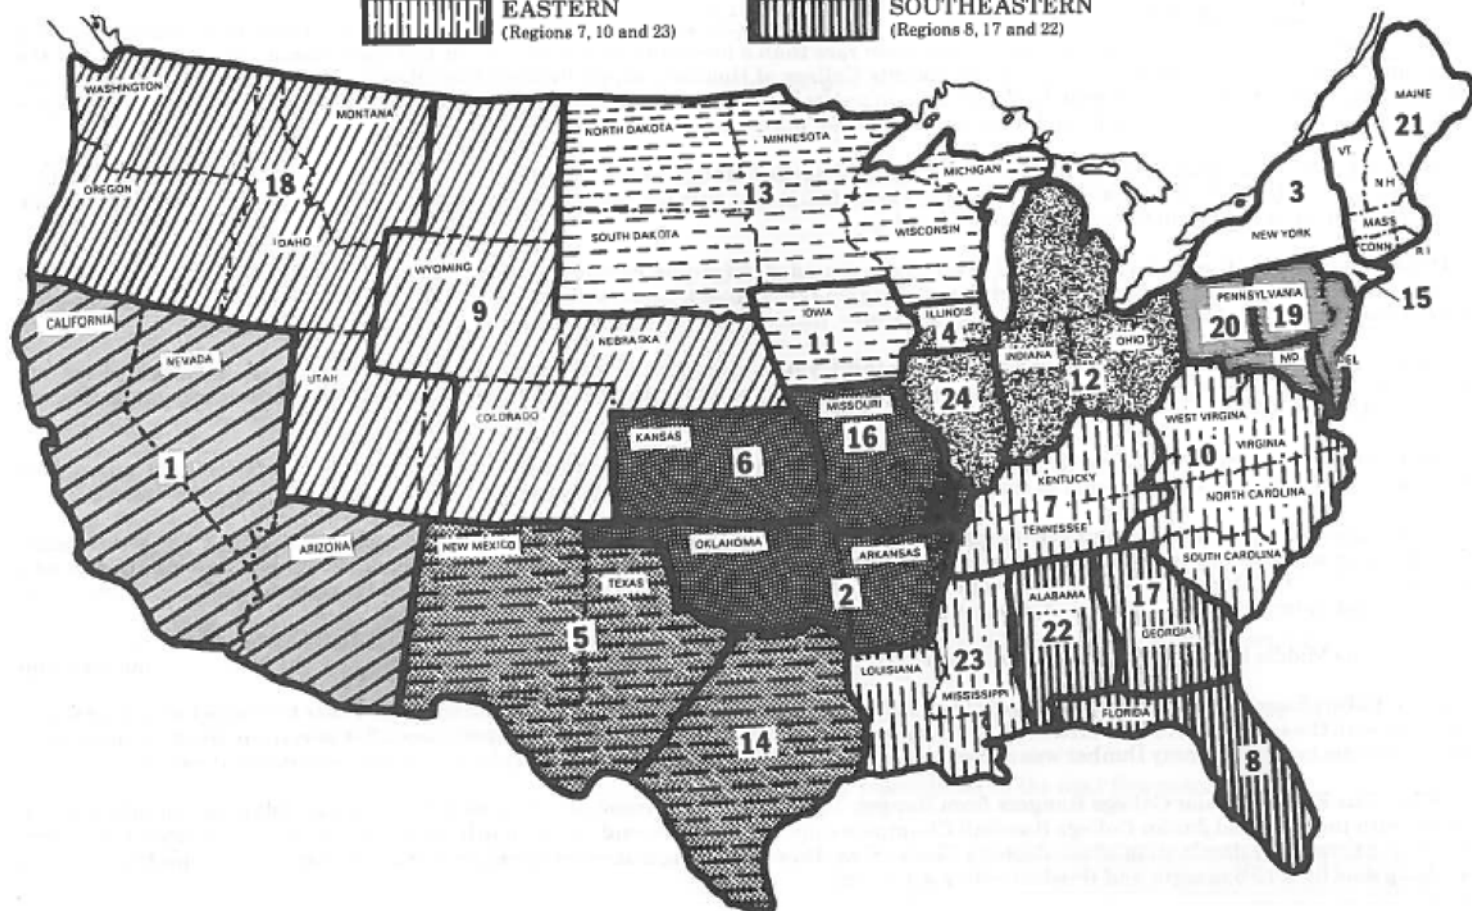

As far as the Miller Lite All-Stars are concerned, "They kid around a lot and are always playing pranks on each other."

"I have a good job and enjoy shaking hands, signing autographs and of course having a 'few with the boys'. It is an easy way to make a living but I have to travel quite a bit," he continued. "One year I traveled 80,000 miles."

Throneberry became part of the award winning Miller Lite advertising campaign in 1976.

One advertising executive tabbed Throneberry as "a guy you'd love to have a beer with."

In his first commercial for Lite, Throneberry suggested Lite sales would plummet, "if I do for Lite, what I did for baseball". This commercial gave him another round of fame. He became a mainstay of the campaign and has since appeared in numerous commercial spots.

REVIEWING YESTERYEAR'S CHAMPIONS

1986 — During the past three years, San Jacinto North, won a bid to visit Grand Junction as the South Central Champion. Coach Wayne Graham had his Gators ready to play - they won two Championships and one runner-up trophy. In 1986, the Houston, Texas team scored runs at 12.16 clip and sweep six straight games. Coach Graham made a believer out of the rest of the field as his team broke the record for most runs, 73 . . . which was set in 1985 by his own trained bats.

1985 — The 28th National Junior College World Series is history. Some might say thank goodness for that. It was, to put it mildly, a long drawn-out affair that at times more resembled a marathon race than a baseball game, meaning the last team standing won. In this case, the endurance champion was San Jacinto North Community College of Houston, which finished second to the College of Southern Idaho last year. It was, however, still JUCO baseball. Maybe it wasn't at its best, as most in Grand Junction who have watched the tournament over the years will readily tell you, but it still fun for those who worked, played and watched.

1984 — A gutsy team from the College of Southern Idaho, dispelled the myth that a northern team cannot win the National Junior College World Series baseball title by defeating San Jacinto, Texas, 9-7. It was only the second time in the 27 year history of the tournament that a 'so-called' Northern team won the national championship.

1983 — McLennan Community College of Waco, Tex., pounded defending champion Middle Georgia College 15-5 to win the national championship. Jerry Faught allowed eight hits in picking up the complete game win. McLennan had 20 hits against five Middle Georgia pitchers to complete its four-game sweep of the tournament.

1982 — The Middle Georgia Warriors celebrated their third National Junior College Baseball Tournament title in four years by defeating the Seminole (Okla.) Trojans 11-7. Middle Georgia came back to win the JUCO title after losing to Seminole earlier in the tournament. Homers by Alex Diaz and Kal Daniels and a fine relief pitching effort by Bo Taylor paced the Warriors.

1981 - Miami-Dade South won five straight games, as the Jaguars' raw hitting talent crushed the opposition, to win national honors. The Florida team set a record for most runs as they averaged 13.8 per game and pounded the ball at a .388 clip.

1980 - Cleveland State won the battle of the statistics, but Middle Georgia won the war and the National Championship. The Warriors left little doubt in anyone's mind as to who was in control during the finale, as they pounded Cleveland State for 19 hits in winning a second consecutive title 18-8. During their stay, the Cougars from Tennessee broke four tournament records, landed four on the All-Tournament team, plus the most valuable player award was given to one of their stars, Greg Geren.

1979 - The Middle Georgia Warriors beat a determined Panola Texas team two-out-of-three games to clinch the National championship trophy.

Coach Robert Sapp's team put on a display of power before a record setting crowd in the finals to whip the Texas faction 8-4 after dropping a 4-2 decision in the semi-finals. The Warriors broke a team record by scoring 59 runs in six games and placed five players on the All-Tournament team plus team member Tommy Dunbar was chosen as the most valuable player, out of the 223 players that participated in the seven-day event.

1978 - The Ranger Junior College Rangers from Ranger, Texas came into Grand Junction with both six-guns blazing and rode into the sunset with the National Junior College Baseball Championship. It was the second national title for the Rangers and the second time they broke up a three-year domination of the Arizona Connection. However, Ranger met defending champion Yavapai in the finals and won a heads-up duel by a 12-5 margin and finished with a 4-1 record.

1977 — Ho, hum...Another National Junior College Baseball Championship is taken home by the Arizona representative. Out of the 20 National Junior College Baseball Tournaments, Arizona teams have won ten and six out of the last eight events. This year, Yavapai conquered the 10-team field by scoring at a 9.0 run average in winning six of seven games. Spear-headed by MVP Dan Townsend and Robert Purkey, Jr. Memorial winner Rick Kranitz, a 5-11 righthander, the Rough Riders turned back a determined DeKalb squad twice during the tournament. Yavapai finally applied the clincher 10-4 in the finals over DeKalb after suffering its only loss (8-7) the night before in what turned out to be one of the most interesting and controversial games in the history of JUCO baseball.

1976 - A well balanced determined baseball team, representing Central Arizona College won the 1976 JUCO Tournament. The Vaqueros from Casa Grande, Ariz., upended St. Clair college 10-8 in the finals. A total of six Central Arizona individuals were named to the All-Tournament team while Jim Morley was presented the MVP award. It was the ninth JUCO crown claimed by an Arizona Junior College.

1975 - Yavapai College of Prescott, Ariz., had to beat defending champion Meramec twice to win the National Tournament, but the Rough Riders pulled up their boot straps and whipped five straight teams. It was the eighth time for a team out of the Southwestern Region to win the crown in the past 17 years. Yavapai finished undefeated and came-from-behind to beat Meramec 7-3 in the finals, but Neil Fiala won the MVP award. Steve Coats of Louisburg highlighted the tourney with five home runs in four games to set a new record which incidentally was the only one broken in the 14 games played.

1974 - For the first time in the 17-year history of the National Tournament a team from the Central Division won the event...Meramec Community College of St. Louis, MO. The Warriors utilized the balance of pitchers Mike Murphy and Joe Muich plus the offensive and defensive play of shortstop Steve Viefhaus to claim the title with five straight victories. Meramec topped Miami-Dade North 6-4 in the finals before a sell-out crowd in Lincoln Park.

1973 - Ranger, Tex., broke a three-year domination by the Mesa Arizona HoKams and captured the tourney with a 5-1 record. The Texans, sparked by the MVP pitcher Donnie Moore, knocked the defending champion into the losers' bracket in the opening round and eventually whipped Gulf Coast of Panama City, Fla., 5-0 in the championship finals.

1972 - Mesa Community College of Mesa, Ariz., became a triple crown winner by defeating Manatee College of Florida 4-2. Individual standout for the HoKams was outfielder Greg Snowden. Snowden repeated on the All-Tournament team and was named the 1972 tournament's Most Valuable Player.

1971 - Mesa Community College of Mesa, Ariz., won its second straight baseball championship with a 7-2 triumph over Miami-Dade North of Miami, Fla. Miami won its first four tournament games, but the hustling HoKams came out of the losers' bracket to defeat the Falcons twice on the final two days of the tournament. Jim Otten of Mesa was selected as the tourney's Most Valuable Player after winning two games and playing in the outfield in the other tournament contests.

1970 - After finishing second in 1969, the HoKams of Mesa Community College of Mesa Ariz., reached the JUCO tourney throne room in 1970. Coach Jim Brock's HoKams defeated Mesa College of Grand Junction 8-0. Jim Otten held the Mavs to three hits and Ken Reed, one of the smallest players in the tournament, delivered a key two-run homer. Larry Patton of Columbia State College, Tenn., won the Most Valuable Player award.

1969 - Panola College of Carthage, Tex., used only 12 players in the six-day double-elimination but the lack of depth did not hamper the tireless Texans from capturing the national title with an 8-6 victory over Mesa, Ariz. Most Valuable Player honors went to Doug Ault, who won three games in the tournament for Panola, and hit .318. Ault played in the outfield when not pitching. Randy Bayer, a 6-5 first baseman with sprinter speed from Mesa, Ariz., was voted the player most likely to succeed.

1968 - Glendale Community College battled the odds to win the national crown. The Gauchos dropped their tournament opener 15-8 at the hands of Manatee College but rebounded to win five straight games and the crown. Glendale's Otis McCowan was selected as the tournament's Most Valuable Player.

1967 - The Bacone Warriors lashed out 16 hits to defeat Odessa 10-4 for the national title. Gerald Pirtle of Bacone was the recipient of the Most Valuable Player award, Ed Bravo of Miami-Dade was the top hitter with a .500 average and Larry Koch of Nassau was voted the most likely to succeed.

1966 - Nassau Community College of Garden City, N.Y. won its first national title with a come-from-behind victory over Miami-Dade College of Miami, Fla., 9-6. Joe Arnold, the Miami-Dade pitcher, was selected as the tourney's Most Valuable Player while Miami catcher Bob Stinson was named the player most likely to succeed in professional baseball. Steve Lohrer of Nassau was the tourney's leading hitter.

1965 - Phoenix College won its third national title with a 9-6 victory over Gulf Coast College of Panama City, Fla. Tom Burgess of the Bears won three games and was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player. Tom Robson of Phoenix was the meet's top hitter with 13 hits in 24 times at bat.

1964 - Miami-Dade College of Miami, Fla., swamps the Mesa College Mavericks 19-5 in the final game. Mack Gendreau of the Mavs is voted Most Valuable Player and sets tournament strikeout record with 31.

1963 - Wilmington, N.C. wins second JUCO title by beating Manatee, Fla., 9-2. Ken Widman of Long Island, N.Y. is Most Valuable Player while Phil Dickens of Manatee is voted most likely to succeed in professional baseball and signs $50,000 bonus contract after tournament.

1962 - Phoenix College claims second national title by upsetting defending champion Wilmington, N.C., 13-5. Lee McFarland, Phoenix pitcher is named Most Valuable Player while 17-year old George Jones of Trinidad College sets tournament batting record with a sensational .647 average.

1961 - Wilmington, N.C. wins first tournament title by whipping Mesa College in finals and semi-final, 8-3 and 16-9 respectively. Ron Durham of Wilmington named Most Valuable Player.

1960 - Phoenix College won the tournament for the first time, a feat it would repeat twice in the next five years.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYERS...WERE INVALUABLE

1986 — The Most Valuable Player award is usually tabbed for the Championship team. However, the JUCO Committee did not overlook the accomplishments of Yavapai Catcher Brian Deak. The 6-0, 182 pound Scottsdale, AZ, freshman slugged four home runs, knocked in ten runs and finished with a .444 batting average for the third place Yavapai team. The last MVP to be picked, who was not on the Championship team was Curtis Morgan of Seminole in 1981.

1985 — Shortstop Randy Randle provided the spark as San Jacinto won the 1985 title. Randle committed only two errors in the six games and a hit at a .370 clip, with 10 hits in 27 appearances. He also stole six bases, a tournament high, and had two homers, one an inside-the-park blow. He scored 11 runs, second highest in the tournament.

1984 — Shell Scott hit .484 for the tournament, including a 3-of-4 night in the championship game. Scott had a homer, a triple and a double as Southern Idaho won the title 9-7. Scott, a shortstop, also was flawless in the field.

1983 — Put together 10 hits in 19 at bats, a .526 average, two home runs, 11 runs scored, nine RBI's and flawless outfield play and you come up with David Turner, Most Valuable Player in the 26th Annual National Junior College Baseball World Series. The McClennan star was 3 for 6 with a two-run, two RBI performance in the championship game.

1982 — Left fielder Kal Daniels of Middle Georgia and teammate Scott Skripko shared MVP honors in 1982. Skripko was selected the most valuable team player. The 6-1 sophomore from Hampton, N.J., hit .448 while Daniels hit .476 with three home runs and 17 RBI's while going two-for-three, including three RBI's and a two-run homer in the championship game.

1981 — What Curtis Morgan of Seminole Junior College accomplished at the National Tournament—most players would consider a good season.

The Oklahoma native had a sparkling .663 batting average, driving in 15 runs on 14 hits with three home runs, one triple and three doubles and delivered one game winning hit to lead his team to National runner-up honors.

1980 — Cleveland State did not win the National Championship but one of its players was chosen as MVP—Greg Geren, 6-1, 197-pound sophomore from Cleveland Tennessee.

The righthanded slugger broke the tournament record for RBI's with 18, batted .393 and scored eight times as the strong outfielder helped the Cougars to second place.

1979 — Freshman Tommy Dunbar displayed his versatility on the field and at the plate to pace Middle Georgia to a National Championship.

The superb, 5-11, 170-pound centerfielder hit .444, with four extra base hits, two stolen bases, scored six times and drove in seven runs to help the Warriors finish with a 5-1 tournament record.

1978 — Jim Mick, a powerful freshman from Brooklyn, N.Y., was voted the MVP after he led Ranger Junior College to the National Championship.

The 6-2, 190-pound first baseman pounded the ball at a .526 clip, had two game winning hits and finished just as strong...as he went three-for-five in the finale with three RBI's and scored two runs against runner-up Yavapai of Arizona.

1977 — A defensive sensation, who also hit for a .354 batting average, named Dan Townsend, was voted the Most Valuable Player in the 1977 Tournament.

The 5-11, sophomore from Lompoc, Calif., set a tournament record of 15 RBI's and scored five runs to help lead Yavapai College of Prescott, Ariz., to the 20th Annual Junior College Baseball World Series.

1976 — A righthanded, sophomore named Jim Morley, from Phoenix, Ariz., was selected as the tournament's Most Valuable Player.

Morley, a 6-0, 190-pound outfielder slugged the ball at a .473 clip and drove home eight runs to help pace Central Arizona College to the Junior College World Series title.

1975 — Shortstop Neil Fiala of Meramec Community College had a big pair of shoes to fill when he joined the team, but the high school All-American lived up to all expectations by not only winning the MVP Award but he also captured the Big Stick Award with a .529 batting average. The 6-1½, 182-pound freshman replaced shortstop Steve Viefhaus who was the 1974 MVP on the Meramec championship team.

1974 — Steve Viefhaus of Meramec Community College accomplished some amazing feats during five straight victories and the national championship trophy won by his team.

The 6-4, 190-pound freshman collected ten hits for a .526 batting average and was near perfect at his shortstop position which not only earned him the Most Valuable Player Award, but the best defensive player in the eight-team tourney.

What was an almost impossible feat, four of Viefhaus' hits sailed out of the ball park to accomplish a new home run record for the tournament.

1973 — Donnie Moore of Ranger, Tex., established himself as a one-man pitching team and guided the Rangers to their first national baseball championship.

Moore, a 6-0, 170-pound righthander, was a tireless workhorse as the Ranger pitcher tossed 30 innings, had an ERA of 1.20 and set a new tourney record of four wins without a loss. Moore finished the season with an 18-1 mark.

The Most Valuable Player Award was given to Moore after balloting conducted by the press, radio, Major League scouts and the NJCAA Committee.

1972 — Hard hitting Greg Snowden of the championship team Mesa, Ariz., grabbed the title while being named to the All-Tournament team for the second year. Statistically, Snowden led the tourney with 10 hits, along with a .435 batting average, 10 RBI's, two triples and two home runs.

The pinpoint accuracy of his right arm in the outfield also helped establish him as the top vote getter in the All-Tournament selection.

1971 — Mesa, Ariz., again took the championship and again fielded the recipient of the MVP. Jim Otten pitched 20 innings on the way to a 1.35 ERA and won two games. Otten also won three games in Mesa's 1970 national triumph.

1970 — Although Columbia State Community College of Columbia, Tenn., did not win the title, one member of the Charger team displayed versatility to win the MVP award. Larry Patton won three games for the third-place Columbia team, while doubling as a slugger with five RBI's and a .471 batting average.

1969 — Once again, an outstanding athlete in both hitting and pitching came away with the MVP trophy. Doug Ault of the national champion Panola squad of Carthage, Tex., won three games along with a .318 batting average. He also drove in five runs and pitched 24 innings for a 2.62 ERA.

1968 — Glendale, Ariz., Community College won the national title, and MVP Otis McCowan was a major factor. The centerfielder tied a tourney record with two home runs, picked up a double and a triple, and was 10 for 22 during the tournament for a hefty .455 batting average.

McCowan knocked in 11 runs and scored four times himself. After completing the 1969 season, he signed with the Seattle Pilots of the American League.

1967 — National champion Bacone's pitching ace won the most valuable player award with an ERA of 0.45. Gerald Pirtle won two games, saved two more in relief, and batted .375 during the tournament slate. He gave up one earned run in 20 innings and struck out 31.

1966 — Joe Arnold of the Miami-Dade Falcons established a new tournament record when he pitched 30 2-3 innings to win the MVP trophy. The workhorse of the third-place team also played third base.

1965 — Tom Burgess was another tireless mound man to win the tournament MVP. The hurler for champion Phoenix, Ariz., broke the tourney strikeout record with 33 while pitching 23 innings and winning three games.

1964 — Mack Gendreau of Mesa College in Grand Junction permitted just one earned run and fanned 28 opposing batters while hurling two complete game victories for the Mavericks.

The Mav standout set a new tourney record of 31 strikeouts in the finals with a short relief stint.

1963 — Ken Widman of Long Island gained the MVP trophy with sharp pitching performances. Widman won two games, pitched 20 innings and struck out 17.

1962 — Lee McFarland of the national champion Phoenix Bears won the MVP award after pitching the winning game in the tournament finals. He gave up one run in 5 2-3 innings in the game, along with one win and a save in previous appearances.

IN MEMORIUM

Terry Mack Schiessler

December 1, 1934 — February 6, 1987

The National Junior College Baseball Tournament lost a friend in the passing of Terry Schiessler on February 6, 1986. Schiessler, a Denver educator and coach, umpired for many years in the national meet.

Schiessler, a former baseball coach at Hinkley High School in Aurora, a former athletic director at Aurora Central High School and a former activities director at Northglenn High School suffered from diabetes.

Schiessler became part of the Denver sports scene in 1953 when he enrolled at the University of Denver. He played baseball and football at DU before joining the ranks of teachers and coaches.

Schiessler made impressions on students and faculty throughout, including his last assignment at Northglenn.

Diabetes took him quickly. He got hit with it one day and within two months he was completely blind.

George McCulloch, principal at Northglenn, talked of Schiessler's work.

"He was noted for his caring of kids," said McCulloch. "He would stop at nothing to make things right for kids."

Schiessler was a school administrator at Northglenn and Aurora schools for 25 years.

He was a member of Phi Delta Kappa, the Colorado Athletic Directors Association, I.A.A.B.O. No. 4, and C.A.S.E. Schiessler was also a member of the Colorado State High School Football, Basketball and Baseball Association and the Teachers Association of J28 and District 12.

Dear JUCO participants,

Although this is the 30th annual JUCO tournament held in Grand Junction, each year there is a special excitement that permeates the entire community as JUCO time draws near. Grand Junction is honored to be home of the JUCO tournament and extends to you a most sincere and hearty Western Colorado welcome!

Recreational opportunities abound in the Grand Valley area. If your schedule at Stocker Stadium and other tournament activities will allow, we invite you to sample these opportunities. The Grand Mesa offers camping, hiking, fishing and spectacular views.

Anyone who enjoyed the movie, "American Flyer", can bike the "Tour of the Moon" route over the Colorado National Monument only 4 miles west of town. Don't forget the camera!

No matter where you rate when all the games are played, we hope Grand Junction will rate high on your list of places you'd most like to visit again.

Congratulations on reaching this stage of the competition and the very best of luck to all of you!

Sincerely,

O. F. Regúdale
