KANSAS’ WIN…
• Made Kansas 86-9 all-time in exhibition games
• Extended Kansas’ home exhibition winning streak to 48 games dating back to the 1994 season
• Gave KU its 27th-consecutive exhibition victory
• Made Kansas 11-0 against Fort Hays State, including 8-0 in exhibition games
• Improved Kansas head coach Bill Self to 54-2 in exhibition play while at KU, including 30-0 in Allen Fieldhouse
• Made KU 59-4 in exhibition games in Allen Fieldhouse

TEAM NOTES
• Kansas took advantage of its size by working the glass for a rebound margin of +16, which included 11 offensive rebounds. Kansas used those offensive boards to outscore their opponent 13-4 on second chance points.
• Kansas shot 23-of-31 from inside the arc (74.2 percent), which included 44 points in the paint.
• The Jayhawks took better advantage of Tiger turnovers in the second half, converting the nine turnovers into 13 points, as compared to nine points in the first half from seven FHSU turnovers.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES
• With an outstanding performance from the field, senior guard Devonte’ Graham would have tied his career high with 27 points.
• Graham would have broken his career high of six 3-Point field goals, with eight tonight.
• Senior guard Svi Mykhailiuk’s eight rebounds were his most in his 12 career exhibition games.
• Mykhailiuk’s three steals would have tied his previous career high set three times, last vs. Texas (1/21/17).
• In his three exhibition games, freshman Billy Preston has shot 14-of-16 from the field, a sizzling 87.5 percent and averaged 11 points per game.
• Freshman Marcus Garrett broke his previous exhibition game career high of two steals, with three tonight.
• Sophomore center Udoka Azubuike has averaged 16 points and nine rebounds in the three preseason exhibition games. Azubuike has shot 20-of-28 from the field (71.4 percent) in those games.
