KU STARTERS (SEASON/CAREER STARTS):
Devonte’ Graham (18/90)
Svi Mykhailiuk (18/49)
Malik Newman (13/35*)
Udoka Azubuike (18/24)
Marcus Garrett (6/6)

Opponent Notes
- The Mountaineers connected on just 5-of-27 (18.5 percent) from beyond the 3-point line, the lowest 3-point percentage by a KU opponent this season.
- West Virginia became the sixth KU opponent to shoot 80 percent or better from the free throw line this season, hitting 11-of-12 charities (91.7 percent). In Big 12 play, Jayhawk foes have shot 85.3 percent (67-of-102) from the free throw line.
- WVU forward Konate Sagaba’s five first-half blocks were the most by a KU opponent since Texas’ Prince Ebeh also swatted five in the second half against the Jayhawks on Jan. 23, 2016.

Individual Notes
Senior G Devonte’ Graham
- Shot 50 percent of better (3-of-6) from beyond the 3-point line for the seventh time in his last nine games. In that span Graham posted a 47.8 percent clip from 3-point range (32-of-67).
- His six assists marked the 18th-straight game he has tallied five or more helpers in a game.
- Scored in double figures for the 10th-consecutive contest and 16th time this season.
- Played the full 40 minutes of a game for the fourth time this season. He has logged 38 or more minutes in nine of his eighteen outings this season.

Senior G Sviatoslav Mykhailiuk
- With his 3-of-6 mark from 3-point range he has connected on three or more treys in 14 of his 18 outings this season, including each of his last six contests.
- Since going 0-for-5 against Stanford (12/21), has shot 53.2 percent (25-of-47) in his next six games, all of which were in conference play.
- His three treys moved him to No. 8 on KU’s all-time 3-point chart, tying him with Frank Mason III with 185 career threes.

Sophomore C Udoka Azubuike
- His 5-of-5 clip from the field marked the fourth time this season he hasn’t missed a shot in a game. The NCAA’s leader in field goal percentage has converted on all but four of his attempts (27-of-31, 87.1%) in his last five outings.
- Pulled down nine rebounds, marking the 10th time this season he has collected eight or more boards.
- Was issued a technical foul with 14:23 remaining in the first half, the first technical of his career.

Freshman F Silvio De Sousa
- Scored first points as a Jayhawk on a lay-in with 2:33 remaining in the first half.

Team Notes
- Kansas trailed by 16 points in the first half, making the come-from-behind win its largest since the Jayhawks erased a 16-point win at Texas Tech on Feb. 2, 1997.
- The Jayhawks’ 13-point halftime deficit erased was its largest since KU came from 14 points down at the break to beat West Virginia on March 3, 2015 in Lawrence.
- In the final eight minutes of regulation in KU’s last two contests against West Virginia, the Jayhawks have outscored the Mountaineers 53-27 (25-16 on Feb. 13, 2017 and 28-11 on Jan. 19, 2018.)
- During the 28-11 run to close the game, the Jayhawks were 8-of-10 from the field and 7-of-9 from the free throw line.
- KU committed eight turnovers over the first 9:29 of action, but turned the ball over only five more times during the rest of the game to tie for the fewest by a West Virginia opponent this season (13).
- After shooting 37.5 percent (12-of-32) in the first half, its second-lowest clip from the field in a half this season, Kansas hit 51.1 (14-of-27) in the second frame. It marked the 16th time this season the Jayhawks shot 50 percent or better from the field in a half.
- Devonte’ Graham and Sviatoslav Mykhailiuk combined for 20 of their team’s final 28 points over the last 8:30 of regulation.
