The Texans dropped a 41-21 contest to #23-ranked West Texas A&M in Canyon on Saturday... Tarleton scored the game's first touchdown, but allowed the Buffs to run-up 24-unanswered points in the first half... Texans pulled within six points of WT, down 27-21 with a little over five minutes left to play in the third quarter... A key defensive personal foul penalty though, led to the Buffs taking it into the end zone from one-yard out and never relinquishing the lead... Tarleton's Vaughn Smith rushed for a game-high 134 yards on 24 carries... Vaughn has now rushed for 100+ yards in consecutive games... Tarleton has now had five 100-yard rushers in four games... The last time a Tarleton team had a 100-yard rusher in four consecutive games came back in the 2006 season (Oct. 14 - Nov. 4)... Aaron Doyle completed 15 of his 27 passes for 196 yards and one TD... Arthur Buckingham led the Texans in receiving with four catches for 69 yards and one score... Isaac Arellano tallied seven punts for 330 yards (47.1 yd/punt)... Matt Knicky, Cameron Bridgewater and Charles Moore each had a team-high eight tackles in the game... Tarleton is 2-2 overall and 2-2 in Lone Star Conference play... The Texans will host Delta State this Saturday for the team's first non-conference game of the season... Kickoff between the Texans and Statesmen is set for 7 p.m. in Stephenville.

Texas A&M-Commerce

A&M-Commerce's emotional 21-14 overtime victory over A&M-Kingsville Saturday evening snapped a number of streaks the Lions are happy to get rid of. It was A&M-Commerce's first victory over A&M-Kingsville since 2007 and the first time they hoisted the Chennault Cup since 2001. It also marked just the second time the Lions had won the Chennault Cup on its home field since defeating West Alabama 45-6 in the inaugural game in 1990. The Lions notched their first overtime win in program history and defeated a team from the state of Texas for the first time since 2008, snapping a 16-game skid.

Texas A&M-Kingsville

For the second time this season, the Javelinas will play an opponent that has the same nickname as the opponent they faced the week before. The Javelinas opened the season by knocking off the Central Washington Wildcats and then traveled to Abilene Christian and defeated the Wildcats. This time A&M Kingsville is playing its second-straight opponent with the name Lions. This past weekend it was the A&M-Commerce Lions and this weekend North Alabama...The overtime loss at Commerce was the first OT contest for the Kingsville this season and first since beating Angelo State 36-33 in triple overtime a season ago. Under head coach Bo Atterberry, the Javelinas have gone 2-2 in OT contests. The Javs had two overtime games in 2009 downing West Texas A&M 23-17 before seeing their season end against Tarleton State 57-56 in the first round of the 2009 NCAA Championship in a double overtime contest... With three straight losses after starting the season 2-0, A&M-Kingsville is in danger of losing four straight contests this weekend for the first time since Atterberry's first season in 2007...Saturday's meeting with North Alabama will be the fifth between the two NCAA Division II perennial powers. The Lions won all four meetings between the two sides in the 1990s. The first two meetings came in the postseason. The first-ever meeting was in the NCAA semifinals 27-25 and in the 1994 Division II title game following 16-10. In 1994, the two teams met in the NCAA Championship game in Florence, Ala. with the Lions winning 27-25 on their home field. In 1996 and 1997 the sides had a home-and-home series. In '96, TAMUK fell 24-7 at Javelina Stadium. In 1997, the two sides battled to a 17-12 score. The meeting is part of the First and 10 Challenge between the Lone Star Conference and the Gulf South Conference. In early November, the Javelinas travel to Georgia to meet Valdosta State. The lone meeting came in the semifinals of the 2002 NCAA Championship with Valdosta winning 21-12... Despite being limited to two catches at Commerce in wet conditions, Sherman Batiste continues to be one of the top receivers not only in the conference but in the nation. With an average of 87 yards a game, Batiste is third in the Lone Star Conference and 39th in the nation. He is tied for third in the LSC in receptions along teammate Robert Armstrong at 5.80 a game. The number is 51st in DII...With an average of 11.2 yards per punt return, Joseph Vela is first in the LSC and 37th in the nation...Punter Angel Millan is 40th in the nation with an average of 39.7 yards a punt which is fourth in the league...The Javelinas have reached the red zone 16 times this season scoring 75% of the time. However, they have scored just five touchdowns in the red zone for 31%. Opponents have scored 13-of-16 times in the red zone. Eleven (65%) of the 13 trips have resulted in a TD.

West Texas A&M

Senior Offensive Lineman Aaron Mullane is one of 147 semifinalists for the National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete as he is one of just two from the LSC to make the semifinal list.
