

LSC CROSS COUNTRY RUNNERS OF THE WEEK (09/13/12)

MALE

Xavier King, Abilene Christian University, FR, Toronto, Ontario, Pickering HS

King finished second in his collegiate cross country debut last Saturday morning at the Bill Libby/McMurry Invitational hosted by Nelson Park. King finished the men's 8K race in 25:52.39, six seconds behind winner Izzy Miranda of Lubbock Christian.

FEMALE

Mireir Guarner, West Texas A&M University, FR, Catalonia, Spain, Collegi Diocesa` Sagrada Familia

Guarner impressed in her first collegiate race at West Texas A&M as she finished in eighth place at the PUMA/Joe I. Vigil Open Cross Country Meet in Alamosa, Colorado hosted by Adams State University. The Catalonia, Spain native finished in eighth place with a time of 18:24 in the 5K event.

OTHER TOP RUNNERS

Dylan Doss, West Texas A&M University, crossed the finish line first for the Buffs in last weekend's PUMA/Joe I. Vigil Open Cross Country Meet in Alamosa, Colorado by Adams State University. The sophomore finished in ninth place with a time of 26:03 in the 8K race as the Buffs finished in fourth place as a team in the event.

Tye Doty, Tarleton State University, was the first collegiate runner to cross the finish line at the Baylor Twilight August 31. His time of 18:51.4 in the 6K event led the Texans to a third place overall finish.

Alyse Goldsmith, Abilene Christian University, finished second in her 5K cross country races Saturday at the Bill Libby/McMurry Invitational hosted by Abilene's Nelson Park. Goldsmith, a 2011 NCAA qualifier, finished her race in 19:23.52, leading ACU to a fourth-place team finish. Cecilia Ramirez of team champion McMurry came in first at 19:15.04.