GOLFERS OF THE WEEK

MEN'S

Cullen Stahl, Cameron University, JR, Lawton, Okla., Lawton-Eisenhower HS

Stahl led the Aggies to a third place team finish with a three-under, 213 (71-76-66) for his third career top-10 at the WNMU Intercollegiate. The 66 in the final round on Tuesday was the lowest score of the day and it was the second time he hit the mark this season. In the tournament, Stahl led the field in par five scoring (nine-under), and birdies (18).

WOMEN'S

Ashley Bartholomew, Angelo State University, SR, Mansfield, Texas, Mansfield HS

Bartholomew earned a runner-up finish for the Rambelles this week at the RMAC No. 2 Tournament at the Bookcliff Country Club in Grand Junction, Colo., to lead ASU to a third-place finish in a 17-team field. Bartholomew's second-place finish is a career's best and came after turning in a 77-75 - 152 scorecard in the 99-player field. ASU's lone senior, Bartholomew now has two top-10 finishes in her career after taking sixth last season at the Lady Buff Classic. Her final round of 75 propelled her up four spots after she had come into the final round in sixth place through the first 18 holes.

OTHER TOP PERFORMERS

Ethan Peterson, West Texas A&M University, finished tied for 15th of 99 players at the WNMU Fall Invitational on the par 72, 7,102-yard Golf Club of Estrella Course in Goodyear, Ariz., this week. Peterson carded rounds of 69, 74 and 73 for an even par 216 score. Peterson paced the Buffs as they finished 13th of 19 teams in the field.

NOTES (Submitted by LSC SID's)

Angelo State

The Rambelles claimed third place at the RMAC No. 2 Tournament this week with a cast of one senior, one sophomore and three freshmen battling against a 17-team field at the Bookcliff Country Club in Grand Junction, Colorado. ASU finished just six shots off the Dixie State pace and one shot behind Metro State in the team standings. Ashley Bartholomew led the Rambelles with a runner-up finish in the individual race after she shot rounds of 77 and 75 at the par-72 course. Leah Meza recorded her second straight top-10 finish by carding 78-79 - 157 which put her in 10th, while fellow freshmen Morgan Rogers was 21st and Courtney Ward was 29th. Ward cut five shots off her first-to-second round scoring for a two-day total of 165 and Rogers cut an impressive nine strokes off her first round total with a 77 on Tuesday. Sophomore Rashae Skillern finished the tournament in 40th, but saw the most drastic improvement as she shot a final round 78 which was 13 strokes better than her first round. The Rambelles third-place showing was their best finish as a team since the 2013 season at the Doc Housewright Invitational. ASU is back in action next week at the UCO Classic.
