GOLFERS OF THE WEEK

MEN'S

Derek Oland, Midwestern State University, SR, McKinney, Texas, Boyd HS

Oland finished strong with a final round 68 to take second at The Territory Classic Tuesday in Duncan. The senior from McKinney notched back-to-back par-or-better rounds with a 72 and 68 to close a stroke behind St. Mary's Alex Bissaro with a 4-under total of 140. Oland delivered his 36th and 37th career par-or-better round while posting his school record 17th round in the 60s.

WOMEN'S

Beatriz Prados, Tarleton State University, SO, Madrid, Spain, Ortega y Gasset School

Prados led the way for the TexAnns this weekend in Dallas. The sophomore from Madrid, Spain concluded the first day tied for fourth place with a one-over-par 73, four strokes behind leader Sydney Williams (-3). Prados' first round included three of five total birdies for the tournament, putting Tarleton in second place after day one action. Prados would shoot 73 in the second round matching her day one total, giving her a No. 3 finish in the overall individual standings with a tournament total score of 146 while helping Tarleton finish in a tie for fifth place at 617 for the tournament.

OTHER TOP PERFORMERS

Ethan Peterson, West Texas A&M University, paced the Buffs with a pair of 71s for a 2-under 141 score at the Territory Classic this week in Duncan, Okla. He finished third, while helping the Buffs also finish third in the tournament. It was his first top five finish of the season.

Ashley Bartholomew, Angelo State University, finished strong with a 75 (3-over-par) at the DBU Classic this week at the Golf Club of Dallas in the Rambelles' fourth fall tournament. Bartholomew carded an 80-75 - 155 which put her in 26th place at the event. ASU's only senior, she is averaging 77.5 strokes per round this season and has led the team in three of four tournaments. Her final round 75 matches a season-best which she also shot at the RMAC No. 2 earlier this season.

Glory Jangthongsiri, West Texas A&M University, finished tied for 13th at the DBU Women's Classic hosted by Dallas Baptist University this week. Jangthongsiri carded rounds of 75 and 76 for a 151 score as she paced the Lady Buffs to a 10th-place finish.

Jaqueline Strickland, Cameron University, led Cameron with a 149 at the Dallas Baptist Classic. After shooting a 76 in round one, she came back with a 73 in round two to give her a sixth place finish individually. Strickland's low score helped the Aggies maintain an eight place finish and hold off the teams in ninth and tenth place.

NOTES (Submitted by LSC SID's)

Angelo State

The Rambelles finished 12th of 17 teams at this week's DBU Classic at the Golf Club of Dallas. ASU shot 319-315 - 634 with senior Ashley Bartholomew leading the team with a 36-hole total of 155. Freshman Leah Meza carded a 78-78 - 156, while Rashae Skillern and shot 84-79 - 163.
