GOLFERS OF THE WEEK

MEN'S

Dylan McClure, Cameron University, SR, Trophy Club, Texas, Northwest HS

McClure led the Aggies to a first place finish at the Midwestern State Invitational. He shot a 209 for the tournament to give him a second place finish. His second round 66 was his lowest 18-hole score in his career at Cameron. He also set career bests for his score through 36 holes and 54 holes, and tied for his best finish.

CO-WOMEN'S

Isabel Jimenez-Perea, Tarleton State University, JR, Cobena, Spain

Jimenez-Perea continued to be the top golfer for Tarleton State as she led the way for the TexAnns second place finish at Oklahoma Intercollegiate Golf Tournament at Fort Sill Golf Club in Lawton, Okla. She finished day one in a tie for second place with a score of 72. On day two, Jimenez-Perea would better her day one score by one stroke (71) for a tournament total of 143 tying for second-place individually at one-under par. Jimenez-Perea's eight birdies tied for a tournament lead and helped earn her a spot on the all-tournament team.

Brenna Moore, Midwestern State University, SR, Burkburnett, Texas, Burkburnett HS

Moore posted consecutive par-or-better scores to take second in the Oklahoma Intercollegiate Monday and Tuesday at the Fort Sill Golf Club. The senior from Burkburnett notched her second and third rounds with a par-or-better score logging a 72 and 71 for a total of 143 (-1). Moore tied Tarleton State's Isabel Jimenez-Perea for second place closing six strokes behind tournament winner Ivon Reijers (138/-6) of Redlands CC (Okla.). Moore's efforts helped the Mustangs to a third-place team showing.

OTHER TOP PERFORMERS

Oscar Spolander, West Texas A&M University, tied for sixth at the Midwestern State Classic where he fired rounds of 73, 70 and 72 for a 215 score. Spolander paced the Buffs to a sixth-place finish in the tournament.

Elise Strutt, West Texas A&M University, led the Lady Buffs to a fourth-place finish at the Oklahoma Intercollegiate with rounds of 73 and 75 for a 148 score. Strutt and the Lady Buffs fired a school-record 292 first round topping last year's previous best of 294 at this tournament.
