LSC FOOTBALL PLAYOFFS

Texas A&M-Commerce and Angelo State will meet in the Lone Star Conference football playoffs championship game on November 15 in Commerce, Texas. The Lions edged the Rams, 41-40, earlier this season.

The third-place game matches Tarleton State at Midwestern State. The Mustangs won the previous meeting 27-23. West Texas A&M and Eastern New Mexico play for fifth-place, while Texas A&M-Kingsville at McMurry is the seventh-place contest. The Greyhounds topped the Buffs 31-21, and the War Hawks defeated the Javelinas 27-21 during the regular season.

LSC FOOTBALL

Lone Star Conference teams played the first week of the inaugural conference playoffs last week. Here is a closer look at the contests:

- A&M-Commerce topped Tarleton State 56-49 to win it's second straight game.
- Angelo State defeated Midwestern State 41-36 for its fourth consecutive win. All six scoring drives for ASU were four play or less.
- Eastern New Mexico charged to a 34-0 halftime lead and never looked back, en-route to a 61-7 win over Texas A&M-Kingsville.
- West Texas A&M posted a 58-13 victory over McMurry.

LSC football teams are 40-36 overall this season. The squads are 5-1 combined versus the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, Great Lakes Valley Conference and Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference teams, which are also in NCAA Super Regional Four.

PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

CO-OFFENSIVE

Kyle Washington, Angelo State University, JR, QB, Humble, Texas, Humble HS

Washington had a hand in all six of the Rams touchdowns in the 41-36 win over Midwestern State to propel ASU to the LSC Playoff Championship game. The junior threw for 268 yards and four touchdowns on 14-of-28 passing while gaining 184 yards on the ground and two touchdowns. He averaged 15.3 yards per carry in the win. Washington is now No. 4 in NCAA Division II and No. 1 in the LSC in total offense averaging 353.6 yards per game.

E'lon Spight, Eastern New Mexico University, SR, RB, St. Louis, Mo., Hazelwood East HS/Grossmont College

Spight registered Eastern New Mexico's first 200-yard rushing day since early in the 2007 season and finished with 217 yards on just 16 carries. His performance lifted the Greyhounds to their third consecutive victory over Texas A&M-Kingsville. Spight carried the ball 13 times for 103 yards and four touchdowns in the first half and saw limited action in the second half, due to the Greyhounds' lead. The four touchdowns clinched his single-season team record with 19. Spight had 114 yards on just three carries in the second half, to bring his season total to 1,479, also an ENMU record. For the game, he had positive yardage on all 16 carries, with eight first downs and four runs of at least 23 yards

DEFENSIVE

Iosia Iosia, West Texas A&M University, JR, DE, San Francisco, Calif., Aiagon HS

Iosia was all over the field as he had eight tackles, including two huge sacks for a loss of 24 yards and 4.5 tackles for loss for a team-high 33 yards. He had one quarterback hurry as the Buffs held McMurry to just 186 yards of total offense which was a season-low against the Buffs.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Ransom Cook, Texas A&M University - Commerce, SR, Coverage, Gulfport, Fla, Boca Ciega HS

With the game knotted at 28 and Tarleton State attempting a field goal, the Lions special teams unit batted the ball down and Cook jumped on it. He scoop the ball and ran 80 yards for the touchdown to give the Lions a 35-28 lead. His scamper was part of a 27-point swing for the Lions to start the third quarter.

OTHER TOP PERFORMERS

Chauncey Harris, Midwestern State University, accounted for 240 all-purpose yards Saturday night against Angelo State. The 5-9, 175-pound senior running back from San Antonio churned out a season-high 178 yards with a touchdowns including a season-long 61-yard burst midway through the third quarter. Harris also caught four passes for 32 yards while returning a kick of 20 more yards. It was his third straight 100-yard rushing performance as he has amassed 518 yards on 63 carries (8.2 yards per carry) over the past three weeks with five touchdowns.

Jeremy Alridge-Mitchell, West Texas A&M University, tallied his eighth consecutive game of 100 yards rushing and sixth-straight game of two touchdowns on the ground in a 58-13 win over McMurry Saturday. Alridge-Mitchell rushed for a career-high 175 yards on 23 carries, including a long of 40. A-Mitchell has 1,175 yards this season to lead the team.

Joe Bergeron, Texas A&M University - Commerce, was a force for the Lions in the 56-49 win over Tarleton State. He carried the ball 20 times for 139 yards for a 6.9 yards per carry average. With the game knotted at 49, Bergeron carried the ball four times on the game-winner drive eating up chunks of yards. He capped off the drive with a yard-plunge into the end zone. His most impressive run of the day came on a 10-yard scoring dashing when he stiff armed two tackles to get the ball across the plain of the end zone.

Zed Woerner, Tarleton State University, first career start for Tarleton State was one for the record books as the sophomore signal caller from Marble Falls threw for a school-record 470 yards against Texas A&M-Commerce in the first round of the LSC Playoffs. Woerner was thrust into the starting lineup after an injury to Collin Strahan kept him from playing. As a result, Woerner accounted for four total touchdowns, including three threw the air and one on the ground. He was 41-56 throwing and spread the ball around, hitting eight different receivers and completing over 100 yards to two different players.

Leo Migo, Texas A&M University - Commerce, who has been vaulted into the starting role due to injuries, was a one man tackling force for the Lions in their 56-49 win over Tarleton State. Migo was in the back field with 1.5 tackles for loss including a sack, in pass coverage as he recorded 11 solo tackles and a run stopper. Migo came up with the biggest play of the game and arguably the year for the Lions. With the Tarleton State on the two-yard line, the Texans attempted draw play that was stuff out by Migo and stopped in the backfield to preserve the win.

Benjamin Pedro-Langford, Eastern New Mexico University, led a Greyhound defense which allowed just 103 offensive yards to Texas A&M-Kingsville in the first half. Eastern did not allow a scoring drive until late in the third quarter, when Eastern was up 47-0. In addition to his nine tackles, Pedro-Langford made an interception in the endzone, early in the fourth quarter, to give him four for the season. Eastern's defense limited the Javelinas to just four third-down conversions in 14 tries.

Anthony Gonzales, Tarleton State University, had a strong game from the defensive end position against Texas A&M-Commerce last Saturday, recording eight tackles – seven of them solo – including a 14-yard sack and a forced fumble.

Mitchell Cox, Eastern New Mexico University, had four touchbacks on 10 kickoffs against Texas A&M-Kingsville, which included one against the wind.

Bubba Tandy, Tarleton State University, led the team in return yardage with one punt return for 25 yards and one kickoff return for 17 yards. Combined, Tandy had two returns for 42 yards and a 21.0 yard per return average.

Conner Hollabaugh, West Texas A&M University, tied his career-high going 3 for 3 in field goals against McMurry Saturday. He connected from 22, 23 and 22 yards, while kicking off 11 times for 62.5 average with five touchbacks. He also went a career-best 7 of 7 in extra-points for the game and scored 16 points in the game. For the season he is 16 of 18 in field goals and 42 of 44 in extra-points.
