LSC CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Lone Star Conference will hold its cross country championships this Saturday, Nov. 8 at the former Hawk Ridge Golf Course in Wichita Falls. The West Texas A&M men and women's teams look defend their 2013 titles.

The championships will consist of an eight-kilometer race for the men starting at 9:30 a.m. and a six-kilometer race for the women starting at 10:30 a.m.

The LSC has held cross country championships for the men each year since 1982, and WT won its first title last year. Texas A&M-Kingsville in (1984, 1986) and Eastern New Mexico (2011, 2012) have won the event as well.

On the women's side, the Lady Buffs added a second straight championship in 2013. Midwestern State won the crown from 2008-11, Angelo State has seven titles (1985, 1992, 1987-90, 1998), and TAMUK one (1986).

Last year, the Buffs recorded a team score of 22 points with five top-10 runners. Dylan Doss paced the Buffs effort with a first place finish in 25:18. Anthony Baumal (25:30), Steve Lagat (25:49), Lucas Marquez (25:58), and Baptiste Moreu (26:05) completed the WT victory.

On the women's side, the Lady Buffs repeated with 35 points including five runners in the top 11. Mireia Guarner led the Lady Buffs in third place with a time of 22:29, followed by Haley Sparks (22:39), Amber Moore (22:54), Emma Love (23:00) and Carley Glass (23:08).
