LSC SOFTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

The six-team field has been determined for next week's Lone Star Conference Softball Championship, which will be played over two days at Schaeffer Park on the campus of West Texas A&M in Canyon, Texas, starting on Friday, May 2.

WT, Angelo State, Texas Woman's, Midwestern State, Cameron, and Tarleton State qualified for the single-elimination event.

The Lady Buffs are the top seed and host after winning the LSC Championship for the second time with a 23-4 league record. ASU is No. 2 followed by TWU, MSU, CU, and TSU.

Tournament play will begin on Friday, May 2, with four games scheduled to be played at 11 a.m., 1:30 p.m., 4 p.m., and 6:30 p.m.

The conference championship will be decided on Saturday, May 3, at 2 p.m.

As part of the league's partnership with the Comcast SportsNet Houston regional sports network, the championship game Saturday will be aired live on the CSN Houston. The title game will be available via live web streaming as well at <http://www.csnhouston.com/page/live>.

In addition, all four games on Friday will be web streamed live. The webcasts are available free of charge.

LSC SOFTBALL

West Texas A&M ran its program record win streak to 23 games while claiming the Lone Star Conference Championship this past week with two wins over UTPB before sweeping rival Angelo State in Canyon to move to 50-4 with a 23-4 mark in league play.

The overall LSC Champion will be the team(s) with the best winning percentage in regular-season conference games, while the winner of the postseason championship will be recognized as LSC Tournament Champion and receive the league's automatic qualification into NCAA postseason.

LSC softball teams are 226-184 overall this season. In the NCAA South Central Region, the group is currently 59-38 combined versus Heartland Conference teams and 32-11 against the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference.

PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

HITTER

Katy Vandewater, Midwestern State University, JR, SS, Arlington, Texas, SA O'Connor HS/Weatherford College

Vandewater erupted to hit .889 (8-for-9) with three doubles and three homers while driving in 12 runs to lead Midwestern State to a sweep of Tarleton State last weekend at Mustangs Park. The junior transfer from Weatherford College was 3-for-3 with a pair of doubles and a three-run homer as MSU rallied from a 5-1 deficit to run-rule the TexAnns 13-5 in the opener. Vandewater stayed hot in the second game lining a bases loaded, bases clearing double to the left-field gap and added an RBI-single to center field to go 2-for-3 with 4 RBIs in a 12-0 whitewashing. She capped the series with her first multiple homer game of the season sending a three-run shot over the left-field fence in the fourth inning and a solo blast down the left-field line in the sixth finishing the game 3-for-3 with 5 RBIs. Vandewater upped her season average to .363 with 13 homers and a team leading 50 RBIs.

PITCHER

Katlyn Holmes, Midwestern State University, FR, Pitcher, Gunter, Texas, Gunter HS

Holmes weaved the fifth perfect game in Midwestern State program history helping the Mustangs to a 12-0 win in five innings over Tarleton State Friday night. The freshman from Gunter induced nine groundouts and five fly outs with one strikeout to become just the third MSU pitcher to deliver a perfecto. Holmes followed the effort with another solid performance limiting the TexAnns to one run on seven hits with four strikeouts in a complete game win on Saturday.

OTHER TOP PERFORMERS

Morgan Spearman, Angelo State University, led the Rambelles with a .727 average over the weekend. She scored six runs off eight hits. The Kennedale native also recorded two doubles and one home run. She finished the weekend with a 1.182 slugging clip and a .824 on-base percentage.

Renee Erwin, West Texas A&M University, had a monster weekend as the #1 Lady Buffs claimed the LSC Championship as they ran their win streak to 23 games to move to 50-4 with a 23-3 mark in league play on the season. The Anna, Texas native hit .556 on the week with 10 hits in 18 plate appearances including four homeruns to drive in 10 RBI for an incredible slugging percentage of 1.222 while walking four times and registering a 1.000 fielding percentage with four putouts and one assist."

Erica Graham, Texas A&M University - Kingsville, had a .522 average and six RBI on the week. Against Eastern New Mexico, Graham started all four games for the Javelinas. She had five runs, nine hits and five RBI. She finished the series with a .600 average.

Shelby Ripple, Eastern New Mexico University, batted .500 against Texas A&M-Kingsville with more than half of her hits going for extra bases. For the series, she batted three-for-four with runners in scoring position and finished with a team-best five runs batted in. In the series finale, she batted four-for-five, scored twice, drove in two runs and missed the cycle by a triple. Ripple's fifth inning, three-run homer came with the Zias trailing by four and snapped a seven-game homerless streak. She cracked a walk-off RBI double in the bottom of the ninth inning, to lift ENMU to a split with the Javelinas.

Brandie Lander, Texas Woman's University, posted two complete-game victories to help the Pioneers to the series win at Cameron and secure the No. 3 seed in LSC Championship Tournament. She struck out 12 batters in 14.0 innings while holding the Aggies to a .180 batting average. Lander continues to lead the conference with 23 wins and second with 154 strike outs.

Cailin Garmon, Eastern New Mexico University, started three games, appeared in all four games against Texas A&M-Kingsville and pitched 16.1 of the series' 29 innings. She opened the series with a complete-game two-hitter for the win and allowed just one unearned run with five strikeouts. Garmon allowed just three hits over 4.1 innings of scoreless relief, to earn the victory in the finale. Over the four games, she batted an eye-popping .778 (7-9) and scored five runs. She had multiple hits in three games, which included a three-for-four outing in the finale.

Carlie Clark, Texas A&M University - Kingsville, went 2-0 on the week with the Javelina pitching staff. In game two of Kingsville's Friday doubleheader with the Zias, she pitched a complete game with three runs with two earned on eight hits. In the game two of Saturday's doubleheader, Clark pitched four innings with three runs with three earned on six hits. She fanned three batters for the week Clark is 6-19 on the season.
